Aldermen Vote Against Proposed Charter Change

Suggest Further Study of The Election Laws

The bill now before the Massachusetts Legislature which seeks a referendum by the voters of Newton on amending the Newton city charter to permit certain changes in conducting city elections and selecting aldermen, met with the disapproval of the majority of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night. A public hearing on this bill was held before the Aldermen some weeks ago and last week the Legislation Committee of the Aldermen invited the proponents and opponents of the bill to attend a conference. The principal changes sought are to hold city elections biennially instead of annually, and to have all three aldermen from each of the seven wards elected by the Ward they represent, instead of having one elected as a Ward alderman and the other two voted for in all seven wards. The bill as originally presented also proposes that the members of the School Committee be voted for only in the Ward which each represents. The proponents of the bill have stated that they are willing to compromise on the basis of having each Ward elect two of its three aldermen and the third alderman to be elected at large. They also stated they are willing to disassociate the election of the school committee members from the election by wards of aldermen.

The Legislation Committee of the Aldermen reported to the Board that it opposes the bill receiving favorable consideration at this session of the Legislature, that more study should be given to this matter and that a committee should be appointed to consider not only the changes asked for in the bill, but also the matter of changing the Ward lines in Newton. The committee was divided in its reports; five opposed the bill; three favored it. Those in the majority were Aldermen Grebenstein, Gordon, Colby, Inches and McKay. The minority included Aldermen Akins, Cronin and Guzzi. At the meeting on Monday night Alderman Cronin said that he believes the issues involved in the bill are too large in scope to be decided by a few men, and the proper way

New Minister Appointed To Channing Church

Joseph Barth To Be Installed Sunday

Joseph Barth, who has been called to serve as pastor at Channing Unitarian Church, Newton, was born in Salina, Kansas, on May 3, 1906. He was educated at Sacred Heart grade and high schools in Salina, served as an altar boy during his grade school days and sang in the church choir during his high school years. He attended Creighton University (Jesuit) and later Kansas Wesleyan University, working at various occupations while attending college and during summer vacations. In 1931 he entered Meadville Theological School and the University of Chicago. In 1932-33 and '34 he continued his studies in these institutions and during the summer seasons travelled in Europe and the British Isles. On Sept. 29, 1934, Mr. Barth married Romona J. Sawyer, daughter of Representative Roland Sawyer of Ware. He is at present a senior at Meadville Theological School and president of the student body. He was pastor of a student church at Shelbyville, Ill., for over a year.

The ordination and installation service of Mr. Barth will be held at Channing Church on Sunday evening, April 7, at 7:30. Rev. Charles E. Park, D.D., will preach the sermon. Mr. Barth states that his aim in life is to assist in producing an ethically religious culture in America.

Aldermen Refuse Gas Sta. Permit On Turnpike

The Board of Aldermen on Monday night refused to grant the petition of the John Barthelme estate for a permit to erect a gasoline filling station at the corner of Boylston and John sts., Newton Centre. The Licenses Committee was divided on this matter. Hill, Guzzi, Inches and Walker voted to grant leave to withdraw on the petition. Aldermen Colby, Akins and Gordon favored the petition.

Alderman Hill said that there are three filling stations on the turnpike now within 125 yards of the proposed station. He said that the Licenses Committee had taken the stand of limiting filling stations in any one neighborhood along the turnpike. Alderman Colby said that Boylston st. is now a heavy traffic thoroughfare. There is no filling station on the north side of the turnpike between the Brookline line and the proposed station and it would cause the removal of a dilapidated building now on the property. He argued that the dwellings in the neighborhood are not expensive, are occupied by workmen and he can't think of any development along the turnpike except for filling stations and business.

Alderman Inches said he is glad there are no filling stations between the Brookline boundary and John st. on the turnpike, as gasoline stations spoil the beauty of a city. He commented that gasoline station permits are fairly perpetual and we want to keep the streets of Newton attractive. Alderman Holden said it is not the province of the Board to limit the number of gasoline stations but a station at the proposed locus would cause a traffic hazard at a point where there had already been one death of a pedestrian who was hit by an automobile. He said there is a bus stop at the corner in question, most of the residents of the neighborhood do not own cars and use busses, and a similar petition was refused last year.

Alderman McKay, taking an opposite attitude from Alderman Colby, read a newspaper clipping telling of concerted action by towns on the new Cambridge-Concord highway to prevent gas stations and roadstands spoiling the appearance of this thoroughfare. He said Newton can take a lesson from these towns. Alderman Cronin said that although the Planning Board of Newton had favored the granting of the petition for the proposed filling station, it had given no reason for so recommending. The Ward 4 Alderman said the Aldermen are capable of deciding issues without depending on the Planning Board. Alderman Hutchinson said that it is

Argue Over Police Inspector's Salary

Office Vacant—Alderman McCabe Makes Protest

During the discussion of the budget by the Board of Aldermen on Monday night an interesting discussion occurred relative to the acceptance of the budget of the Police Department. Among the items listed in this budget was one calling for the appropriation of $5400 for the salaries of two lieutenants (each receiving $2700 per year), and another item calling for the appropriation of $2025 for the salary of an inspector-lieutenant. The two lieutenants are in charge of police headquarters nights alternating on the first half and the second half. The other lieutenant is a member of the detective force, designated as an inspector. This latter position was filled for some years by Inspector John Shaughnessy who retired on a pension last September. The detective force now includes Captain Richard Good, Sergeants Patrick King and Thomas Burke and Special Officer Charles Feeley.

Late in 1934 an examination was taken to fill a vacancy in the rank of Lieutenant on the Newton police department. The sergeants taking this examination who received the highest ratings were in order: Mahoney, Crowley, Bannon, Leehan and King. Serg. Mahoney was appointed to the vacant Lieutenantcy early in 1934. Following Inspector Shaughnessy's retirement last September, the rank of Lieutenant in the Inspector force became vacant. A further vacancy in the detective force occurred with the death of Sergeant Feeley. Last autumn it was reported that the Civil Service Commission had certified the names of the three leaders on the eligible list for Lieutenants, Crowley, Bannon and Leehan, for the appointment to fill the vacancy as Lieutenant-inspector. Early in November it was rumored that Crowley had been appointed, but this was not so.

At the meeting on Monday night Alderman McCabe moved that the item calling for the appropriation of the Inspector-Lieutenant's salary be lumped with the item caring for the salaries of the two duty Lieutenants. Alderman Grebenstein raised the point of order that the Aldermen have no authority to take such action. City Solicitor Bartlett sustained Grebenstein. McCabe then moved that the item caring for the Inspector-Lieutenant's salary be omitted from the budget. Alderman Cronin seconded the motion and stated that Alderman McCabe would confer with Mayor Weeks and provision could be made at the following meeting to provide for the Inspector's salary.

Alderman Floyd said that he assumed the Ward 1 Alderman (McCabe) had made the motion in order to give Chief Hughes greater latitude in appointing the Inspector-Lieutenant. Floyd said the chief had conferred with the Mayor on this matter, had specifically asked for the separate salary designation, and queried: "Why make the change?" McCabe replied that there is an eligible list from which the Inspector could have been appointed, but that the prospective appointee is not high enough on this list to be certified, and that it is not fair to the men heading the list not to have made this appointment. McCabe also referred to the fact that when Inspector Goode was promoted from the rank of Lieutenant to that of Captain, he was advanced as one of those on the eligible list who had taken the examination for duty Captain.

Alderman Cronin said that the two present Lieutenants are both on night duty at headquarters and one of these officers, longer in the service, should be given the Inspector's job as it is for the most part a day assignment. On a voice vote McCabe's motion was lost.

Auburndale Child Drowned in River

Virginia Lewis, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William I. Lewis of 92 West Pine st., Auburndale, was drowned in the Charles River about 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. With her brother, William, 15, she had gone to the river at Forest Grove near the Newton-Waltham line and the two joined Robert Rankin, 15, of 346 Crescent st., Waltham, as passengers in a small, crudely built boat, owned by young Rankin. The craft capsized about 60 feet from the shore. The girl first clung to her brother and then to young Rankin as the boys swam toward the shore. The Rankin boy helped to sink and the girl released her hold and sank to the bottom of the river. The boys reached a raft, moored off shore and children on the river bank who had witnessed the tragedy rushed to the home of Guy Sanderson nearby and gave the alarm. Mrs. Sanderson phoned the Metropolitan police station at Riverside. The police motor boat speeded to the scene and grappling irons were used to recover the girl's body. It was found about an hour after the child went under and although artificial respiration methods were used for over an hour in an attempt to revive her, she had been submerged too long.

The girl was a pupil in the 6th grade of the Burr School at Auburndale. She is survived by her parents, two brothers, Albert and William, and a sister, Elsie. Her funeral service was held at the Centenary M. E. Church on Tuesday afternoon. Burial was in Newton Cemetery.

Alderman Guzzi Makes Attack On Playground Dept.

An attack on the employment of non-residents of Newton as playground directors in this city and a criticism of Ernest Hermann, Supt. of Playgrounds, were made by Alderman Guzzi at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night. When the budget for the Playground Department was presented to the Board for consideration Guzzi started to talk on Hermann's salary. He stated that the salary is $3000 and Hermann gives only one-third of his time to his Newton job. Alderman Floyd then interrupted to assert that Guzzi was out of order as members of the Board have no right to discuss salaries while acting on the budget.

Guzzi momentarily subsided but renewed his attack when the item of appropriating $25,000 for playground directors salaries was reached. He said that there is much adverse criticism in the city because school teachers from outside Newton have been employed as directors when there are many young college men in Newton, well qualified to serve as directors, who cannot obtain employment. He said these are not the times when persons who have well paying jobs should hold down two positions. Alderman Grebenstein said he agreed with Guzzi but the salary item must be passed if the playgrounds are to function this summer.

Guzzi then asserted that Supt. Hermann was on a six weeks' speaking tour of the West as Dean of the Saragat School and was drawing his salary while a junior high school teacher from out of Newton has been doing his work. Guzzi reminded Alderman Floyd that the latter had asserted earlier in the meeting that all city employees should give a full day's work to the taxpayers in return for their salaries. President Gordon of the Board defended Hermann's absence on the contention that he is only a part time employee and that playground activities are now on the off-season lull.

New Pastor At Our Lady's Church

Cardinal O'Connell on Thursday announced the appointment of Rev. John A. Sheridan as irremovable parish priest of the Parish of Our Lady at Newton to succeed the late Rev. L. W. Slattery. Father Sheridan has been pastor of Sacred Heart Church, West Lynn, and previously for many years was stationed at St. Thomas Aquinas Church, Jamaica Plain.

Rev. Walter Roche has been transferred from pastor of St. Bridget's Church at Maynard to the pastorate of St. Patrick's Church in Roxbury. He was for many years a curate at Our Lady's Church.

Many "Lives" Lost In Newton "Fire"

Many lives were snuffed out by asphyxiation at 253 Washington st., Newton, about eleven o'clock Saturday night when the store in the Nonantum Building occupied by the Western Union Telegraph Company became filled with suffocating fumes. Cockroaches had invaded the telegraph company's office and so the manager obtained a small electrical device which spreads fumes to kill such pests and it was put into operation when the office closed. The office soon became filled with fumes which a bystander thought was smoke from a fire. He notified Patrolman Walker and Walker notified Engine 1 which hastened to the scene. The door of the office was forced and the firemen rushed into the place to extinguish the blaze only to find the small fumigator working quite efficiently.

Rev. C. Oscar Ford Comes to Newton

Will Be Pastor of The Newton M. E. Church

Rev. C. Oscar Ford, D.D., for the past 10 years pastor of the First Church of Winthrop, M. E., on April 1st assumed his duties as pastor of Newton Methodist Episcopal Church. He is a native of Philadelphia, a graduate of Dickinson College and Boston University School of Theology and for 31 years has worked in the New England Conference. His first pastorate was at the Beverly M. E. Church and pastorates at Greenfield and Springfield followed. Subsequently for 10 years he was the New England Conference District Superintendent for the Springfield district and then he became pastor at Winthrop. Rev. and Mrs. Ford have three daughters, Miss Mary Ford, a teacher at the Gloucester High School; Mrs. Frederic W. Hutchinson of Winthrop who is the mother of four children; and Miss Florence Ford, a junior at Radcliffe College.

In 1929 and 1930 Dr. Ford was instrumental in the erection of a new church building at Winthrop valued at $225,000 and during the succeeding years of his pastorate $175,000 was received and applied to the payment of the construction of this church. Dr. and Mrs. Ford expect to occupy the parsonage on Wesley st., Newton, about April 15.

Aldermen Pass Budget of $2,561,039.66

With January Appropriations Totals $5,008,546.30

The Board of Aldermen at its meeting on Monday night approved of budget recommendations totalling $2,561,039.66 in addition to $290,296.27 appropriated for the Water Department, the latter sum to be derived from water revenue. These amounts added to the budget appropriations made in January make a total of $5,008,546.30 which it is estimated will be the cost of running the City of Newton this year. Few changes of any import were made from the Mayor's recommendations although several aldermen attempted to have certain items turned down or diminished.

Alderman Temperley voted against all raises in salaries, a number of which were given to department heads, foremen and clerks. Temperley said that the city did sufficient in restoring on January 1st the 7½ per cent pay cut. He asserted times are worse, not better, and commented that we should not add to the distress of the taxpayers.

Alderman Holden opposed an item of $3000 appropriated to employ an expert to make an efficiency survey and to introduce a system of cost accounting in the Public Works Department. Holden said a new position, Director of Public Works, was established last year with a salary of $6000, in addition to retaining the office of Street Commissioner at $4000. He asserted the director and the Supt. of Streets ought to be able to organize the department without engaging an outside expert. Alderman Cronin opposed an item of $1170 for a new clerk to work in the Director's office. Cronin asked why is a clerk needed in addition to the expert. Alderman Floyd said the director should not be compelled to attend to details. Alderman Bowen said the expert will not only devise a cost system but also find how the work of the department shall be systematized. Alderman Colby argued that the expert will enlighten the Director of Public Works as to the reason it cost $134,000 to remove snow the past winter and only $53,000 in 1933-34. Alderman Cronin said that it is

EARNING ITS KEEP

Two sisters live together. One is a secretary. The other, a semi-invalid, is housekeeper. The secretary decided to put in a telephone to help her sister in ordering supplies.

"Curiously I have found it of unexpected help to me, too," she reported. "I can communicate with my office if unable to report in person. When walking to the train would mean getting drenched—I now can call a taxi. I can be reached at any time by those who may need to get word to me. So, besides being an invaluable help to my sister, it does enough for me to earn its keep."

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

JONES MAKES SECOND VARSITY BASEBALL CUT

At the end of baseball practice today at Newton High, Coach L. P. "Jett" Jones will announce the second and last cut of the varsity squad, when some seventeen or twenty boys will be left on the varsity to begin the season. With this cut in mind, the 37 members of the present varsity have been waging a spirited battle for places as three teams go through their paces daily. Under the names of Yale, Harvard and Dartmouth, the clubs which make up the squad have been playing one game every day, with the odd team having fielding and batting practice.

New Players Strong

Younger players continue to give the two and three-year veterans a race for their regular positions. In the battle of the catchers, sophomore John McHugh displays a great throwing arm, but the greater experience of Pete Morrison will probably make him the choice to start in the first game of the season. Palmer's hitting and Gammons' steadiness also deserve mention.

Of the other veterans, James "Bullet" Byrne is forced to show plenty of spirit to beat out sophomore Bert Marrazzo for his job at first base. Bill Spilman, although doing some brilliant fielding at shortstop, has been hardly as steady in practice as his understudy, Lee Goodbar. Carl "Tarzon" Bosworth, regular outfielder last year, is being pressed for his position.

Castoldi Brothers Hitting Well

Honors for heavy hitting for the week go to Bert Marrazzo and to the Castoldi brothers, Gus and Guido, all three of whom have all but taken the horsehide off the ball in recent practice games. John Marrazzo and Lee Goodbar are the two players who have made the fastest improvement afield, while the best among the pitchers to date appear to be Jack Herrick and John Reche.

In the practice games played during the week, the varsity squad which survived the first cut was as follows, divided into team divisions: Harvard—Bosworth, Savignano, Spilman, Byrne, Morrison, Guido Castoldi, Lafie, Simon, Herrick, John Quinn, Torabene, DeMichele. Yale—Roehrig, Goodbar, O'Connell, Gammons, Palmer, Coletti, Gus Castoldi, Plantadosi, Jones, Amendola, Cushing, and Nichols. Dartmouth—Newcomb, Joyce, John Marrazzo, Bert Marrazzo, Callanan, David Quinn, Milner, MacLeod, Hickman, McHugh, Reche, Rice and Regan.

Varsity Football Schedule

The 1935 Newton High varsity football schedule is complete with the exception of the November 9 date, formerly occupied by Manchester High. The schedule is as follows: Sept. 21—Arlington at Arlington. Sept. 28—Cambridge Latin at Newton. Oct. 5—Lynn English at Lynn. Oct. 12—Everett at Newton. Oct. 19—Brookton at Brookton. Oct. 26—Quincy at Newton. Nov. 2—Rindge Tech at Cambridge. Nov. 9—Open. Nov. 16—Waltham at Newton. Nov. 23—Brookline at Brookline.

NEWTON BOYS ON DEAN'S LIST
AT M. I. T.

The names of the following Newton boys are on the Dean's List of undergraduate students of Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Freshman Class, second rank: Howard Charles Ness and Richard Munroe Samuel; third rank: Julius Kovitz, Carl Edgcomb Megquier and Jonathan Russell Roehrig.

Sophomore class, first rank: Karl Perley Goodwin; second rank: Frederick Regan Claffee; third rank: John Martin Gallagher, Theodore Ruggles Timble, and Harry Udin.

Junior class, third rank: Elmer Wulbur Davis.

Senior class, second rank: George Walter Bartlett, and Vincent Parkhurst Cook; third rank: John Pitkin Allen, and Richard Francis Bailey.

GIRLS IN ANNUAL GYM MEET TONIGHT AT H. S.

Tonight is the night of the annual girls' gym meet at Newton High, when close to two thousand alumnae, parents and friends will gather at the school gymnasium for this traditional interclass competition. Beginning with the grand march and a salute to the flag promptly at 8 o'clock, the meet will proceed with class competition for the trophy cup, exhibition events, dances and letter awards.

The interclass competition comes during the early part of the gym meet. The sophomore girls first present their very best in mimetics, a routine of exercises set to music. Then come the juniors, with gymnastics, followed by the seniors, whose part will consist of marching. Relay races between classes will close the competitive part of the program, and the trophy will be finally awarded to the class which best goes through its appointed drills.

Basketball and Badminton

The senior class basketball team will do battle with the juniors in an exhibition game, which ought to make very good watching, judging from the record of the Newton class teams in interclass games. Another exhibition will be a badminton match, since this sport has been introduced only this year in girls' athletics at the high school.

Each class then has tap dancing. The sophomores then will present folk dances, and the seniors will put on a burlesque of an old-time gym class, in recognition of the 75th anniversary of the high school this year. To close the meet, basketball and badminton and class teams will be made, as well as the trophy for the best team in interclass competition.

Newton Highlights

The basketball season has been gone just about a month, but that means nothing to the Newton High varsity. Billed as the Newton Independents, the original six are playing in the amateur basketball tourney of the Boys' Clubs of Boston, and won their first round game Wednesday from Princeton A. C. of Medford by 31-30.

Four of these Newton Independents are doubling in the sports. Ted Lafie, Pete Morrison, Bullet Byrne and Ernie Savignano each has a full-time baseball workout under his belt when he goes on the floor at the basketball tourney in Charlestown. Ellis Donovan and Allen Smith, captain and captain-elect of Newton High varsity basketball, are the only two who do not play baseball.

Varsity-Alumni Baseball Game

Tomorrow, by the way, will be the first opportunity to see the high school baseball team in action, when they meet an informal alumni team on the Dickinson Field greensward, the game starting at 10 a. m. Coach "Jett" Jones will give all the varsity men a chance to play.

George "Jib" Taylor, a freshman at Boston University, will probably be the starting pitcher for the grads. Charlie Flagg, who is player-manager for the alumni, will also use "Junie" Kevorkian of Harvard, Bob Patterson of Williams, Johnny Wheldon of Dartmouth, Horace Wood of Colgate and others.

Newtonians in National Hockey Series

Johnny Garrison of West Newton, an alumnus of Newton Country Day and Harvard, scored both the Boston and Harvard goals in the first game of the national amateur hockey playoff series, in which the Boston Olympics beat the Baby Ruths of Chicago by 2-1. The Baby Ruths came back strong on their home ice, however, defeating the Bostonians 3-0 at Chicago Wednesday to win the series on total goals. Frank Spain, colorful center ice star of past Newton High, Exeter and Dartmouth teams, played both games for the Olympics. Frank "Junie" Stubbs of Newton and Harvard fame was in the Olympics line-up in New York, but did not make the Chicago trip.

Spring Football at Harvard

History repeats: About twelve years back, Gullian and Kevorkian were great football names at Brown University, and now they are popping up at Harvard. Mian "Mike" Gullian was captain of the 1923 Brown team, and Edwin Kevorkian of Newton Centre was one of the original Brown Iron Men of 1924.

Strangely enough, the spring of 1935 finds both families represented in Dick Harlow's spring football squad at Harvard. George Gullian, a nephew of Mian, and Alex "Junie" Kevorkian, a brother of Edwin, are out to put the Newton touch on the crimson line. Other Newton boys out at Harvard are the Giles brothers of West Newton, James and William, and Robert Wadlinger of Newton Centre, goaler of the university hockey team.

Newton Collegians in Sports

Albert Carvelli of West Newton and George Taylor of Newtonville are out for freshman baseball at Boston University. Jack McCarthy of Newtonville is doubling in baseball and spring football at Holy Cross. Bill Loud of West Newton is trying baseball at Colgate. R. Perry Elrod, Charlie Butler and Norman Appleyard, three Newton High alumni at Brown, are in line for places of the Brown varsity nine, while Jack Skillings has a berth waiting for him on the Brown tennis team.

Down in Maine, Claude R. "Johnny" Frazier of Newtonville and Jack Lawrence of Waban are out for baseball during the winter on the informal college varsity basketball team, while Lawrence earned a varsity hockey letter. Bob Ashley of Waban is on the varsity tennis team at Bowdoin.

Camping Season Begins

If you're in doubt as to whether or not spring has really come to stay, consult your nearest Girl Scout neighbor—who is sure to reply with an emphatic "yes!"—for spring means camping to all good Girl Scouts, and the season is well under way for the Newton branch of the organization. Camp Mary Day was the scene of an overnight last week-end when members of the Headquarters Senior Troop spent Saturday and Sunday there. They cooked out of doors, hiked over to the old Reservoir in Sudbury and on Sunday had a simple Sunday service in which all took part. Those who went were, Nancy Parks, Diana Cumner, Marguerite Pratt, Carolyn and Jane Hayden, Vyrling Rawson and Lloyd Edson. Miss Margaret Adams and Miss Polly Ballard were the leaders in charge.

The Camp Mary Day folders for the 1935 summer season are being printed and will be ready for distribution this month. Miss Caroline L. Freeman, Camp Director, expects a large number of applications from the eager Girl Scouts who have already spent vacation days at the camp, and for their younger sisters who have at last reached the age of ten years and whose enthusiasm has been aroused by the attractive movies of last year's camp activities. Mrs. Craig Pattengill is chairman of the Newton Camp Committee, the sponsoring group in charge of the camp.

In order that Girl Scout leaders may meet the demands from their troops for more outdoor activities, a Tramping and Trailing course will be held early in April. The course, which began Monday at Girl Scout Headquarters, 297 Walnut street, Newtonville, will consist of four indoor planning meetings and four outdoor meetings. There will be instruction in outdoor cooking, hiking and other techniques. Miss Adams, Newton Field Captain and Mrs. Harlan H. Ballard will be the instructors.

The Benefit Bridge and Whist Party held Tuesday evening, March 26th, at the Bonnar-Atwood Studio for the benefit of Troop No. 6, Nonantum Girl Scouts was a success both financially and socially.

Twenty tables of players filled the studio which was attractively decorated with spring flowers generously contributed by Mrs. F. A. Day, Sr.

The success of the evening was due to the splendid co-operation of the Troop Committee consisting of Misses Louise Lovette, Esther Smith, Pauline E. Marsh, Mrs. Frederick White and Mrs. E. E. Bachelder. Lieut. Mildred Burke, Catherine Harney and four scouts in uniform assisted in the serving of refreshments and selling candy.

With the Girls

Elena Ciccone of Newton Centre, the leading girl tennis player hereabouts, got through to the semi-final round of the New England women's indoor play in both singles and doubles at Longwood last week. At high school Barbara Bancroft won the ping pong championship from Betty Stephens, these two girls being the finalists in a field of more than 100 ping pongers.

The traditional gym meet puts the coup de grace on the winter sports for Newton High girls, and when they return from spring vacation, they choose archery, baseball, lacrosse, tennis or track and field athletics.

Leaders in the boys' ping pong tournament at Newton High are Mel Swig, Curtis Macdonnell, Jack Koughan and Myron Burnes, all of whom have won their way into the round of ten.

The High School tennis courts as well as other courts in the city will be ready for play during the spring vacation next week.

Rotary Club

"Our health problems increase with the increase in the complexity of civilization," said Dean Frederick Rand Rogers, of Boston University, in addressing the Newton Rotary Club last Monday, "and we must therefore be more on the alert than ever. Life is activity and the greatest joy of living is in being active; but we must remember that exercise alone does not make us healthy. Diet, too, is most important."

As for example, we must draw a sharp line, according to Mr. Rogers, between work and play. Play is activity without any serious ulterior motive. A change in exercise is frequently most beneficial. You begin with just tossing a ball, later you go in for baseball, and later still you change to golf. When you have exhausted golf, try tennis or mountain climbing. The latter may even lead to a study of geology and, if you climb high enough, to astronomy and so even to philosophy and religion, thus linking play with intellectual and spiritual satisfactions.

Dean Rogers' address was full of practical hints as well as being inspirational. Charles R. Spaulding, of the Newton schools, was introduced to the Club as the newest member, bringing the total membership up to 64. His classification is Musical education-directing. Harry Hanson, former president, introduced Mr. Spaulding in a little talk full of dry humor. Wilbur Thompson read letters from new Rotary clubs in Cuba and Italy in reply to letters of welcome from the local club.

Newton Legion Band Fights For Leadership

Newton Post No. 48 American Legion Band, organized in June 1930, and awarded the cup for having the largest Post band in the line of parade during the Boston National Convention of the Legion, is now exerting every possible effort to attain first place in the contest being conducted by the Ce-Lect Baking Company.

This contest has some twenty-five different bands entered representing American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars organizations in Greater Boston. The Newton Legion Band played a concert on Sunday, Dec. 23rd, last and since that time has been collecting votes and on last Sunday was in second place, with Cambridge Legion Band leading. It is hoped that by next Sunday Newton will be in the lead and will retain that position until the contest closes, May first.

The Newton Legion Band has become known as a community organization, donating its services in the past to worthy projects, and has even gone as far as Nashua, N. H., to render service to the Nashua Post of the Legion. It is truly representative of the City of Newton, and it is hoped that the citizens will do what they can in the way of saving these votes and sending them into the Band or giving them to some Legion member.

At the present time there are some fifty Legionnaires playing in the organization, and they have been collecting votes in musical accomplishments and with their appearance on the streets during the next month or so the people of Newton can be justified in looking upon them with community pride. Warrant Officer Frank Warren, senior bandmaster of the 26th Division, is Musical Director, and Past Commander Harold D. (Sailor) Ames is the business manager.

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

Judge Thomas Weston, special justice of the District Court of Newton, was the assembly speaker this morning.

Dr. D. Brewer Eddy, who has recently returned from an extended trip in the far East, will speak at Vespers, Sunday, April 7.

On Monday, the Lasell Dramatic Club will entertain the school with a little play. Those taking part are Virginia Hall of Brookline, Barbara McKellogg of Cambridge, Caroline Smith of Hyannis, Pauline Bonin of Woonsocket, R. L. Janice Piper of Windsor, Vermont and Roberta Merrill of Nashua, N. H.

Legion Cast Rehearsing For Annual Show

Mr. Leon H. Mayer, the director of Newton Post's Annual Welfare Concert has over one hundred and fifty men and women rehearsing three times each week in preparation for the musical comedy entitled "Hil-Nellie" which will be held in the Newton High School Auditorium on April 25 and 26th. This year's show will undoubtedly be the finest ever staged in the city of Newton as a large committee is assisting Vice Commander Charles E. Walker in arranging all the details for the entertainment. Director Mayer is endeavoring to secure costumes, scenery and lighting arrangements which will be on par with any professional show, and has secured the assistance of Doris Schroder, famous dancing instructor, to arrange for the dancing numbers which will be one of the features of the production, and Ovid F. Avantaggio will assist Mr. Mayer in arranging the musical program.

This week the director will select the persons for the leading parts, and assign other members of the cast for the musical and dancing numbers. The end circle for the second half of the show has been selected with a possibility of more being added at a later date; at the present time the following will comprise the minstrel ends, George E. McNamee, Past Commander of Eugene Daley Post, V. F. W., Daniel Wilkerson, Dr. Elmer DeFazio, Edward Terrio, Russell Francis, Robert Powers, Ralph Heald, and Edward Doucette. Mildred McNamara, and Eileen Epton will be featured as soloists, and for specialties there will be May McPhee, one of the fastest tap dancers in the State, Perry Twins in waltz clogs, little "Mickey" Epton in songs and stories, little Claire Silva, Newton's famous acrobatic dancer, and the Legion Quartette of Newton. Past Commander "Sam" Ames will be the master of ceremonies at both performances.

Rehearsals are held every Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and on Sunday afternoons at the Legion Rooms, Newton Corner, and will continue to be held on these days until the week of the show when Director Mayer plans to have two dress rehearsals prior to the opening night of the performance.

Child Hit By Boy Riding Bicycle
On Sidewalk

Dudley Hall, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hall of 4 Oakwood rd., Newton Centre, while walking with his father last Friday afternoon on the sidewalk at Union st., Newton Centre, was struck by a bicycle ridden by George Carson, 12, of 302 Langley rd., Newton Centre. The Carson boy was riding the bicycle along the sidewalk. The lower teeth of the Hall child were pushed through his lip and he received cuts and contusions.

Village Players To Offer
Three One-Act Plays

The Village Players will offer a set of three one-act plays at the Unitarian Parish Playhouse, Newton Centre, on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 12 and 13, at eight o'clock. The plays are: "The Unknown Guinevere," by Irving C. Whittemore; "Exile," by Henry A. VanGestel; "Table d'Hotes and A La Cartes," by John Kirkpatrick.

Two of these will be first productions of original plays, written by members of the Village Players. Irving C. Whittemore, who wrote the realistic war play, "Bend Sinister," has done a new piece in a different vein. "The Unknown Guinevere" is a long jump from active realism to tranquil romance, in poetic form.

The cast for this play will include Mrs. Dorothy Melvin, Prescott Baston, Louise Hawkes.

In "Exile," Henry Van Gestel goes back two centuries and more for his picture, setting the play in a London hostelry in 1793. Here, in an attic apartment, he tells his story, with the cast: Glenn Wilson, Robert Allingham, Judson Pratt, Henry A. Van Gestel, Ernest Braithwaite, Ivard Strauss.

The final play is "Table d'Hotes and A La Cartes" for which the cast is as follows: Mrs. Harold Keller, Robert Foote, Mary Elizabeth Flecknoe, Edward N. Griffin, Mrs. Charles Pierce, Edward D. Parent.

Miss McGill To Speak
At Zonta Club Meeting

Miss Margaret McGill of Newtonville, vice-president of the Boston Women's Republican Club, will be guest speaker of the Newton Zonta Club at its meeting on April 8th, at the home of Miss Katherine Robinson, 19 Applegray street, Newton Centre. Miss McGill will speak under the auspices of the National Economy League and will discuss the new program of the League to create employment, increase industrial activity, and preserve the American system. She will take up especially the minority groups now forming in the country, and point out the grounds on which the League opposes the Townsend Plan.

Awning Company Extends Service To Newtons

The Watertown Awning Company announces a material extension of its area of business this spring and is offering its services to the Newtons. This firm of young men, establishing their business six years ago, has a plant at 35 Edenfield st., Watertown. Through reliable work and close attention to business, a considerable clientele has been built up. With the coming of spring Newton residents are offered an opportunity of having their awnings needs estimated by this company.

Discuss Savings
In Cost of Government

The Newton League of Women Voters—a branch of the Boston League—held the final meeting of its study group on Taxation at the house of Mrs. Walter Harlstone, 350 Centre street, Newton Centre, on Monday morning, April first. The principal subject was "Possible Economies in State and Local Administration."

1. Biennial Sessions of the Legislature. It has been estimated that if our legislature met once in two years, as do those of forty-two states, the taxpayers of Massachusetts would be saved over $400,000.00 annually. For years petitions for such a change have been submitted to the legislature, which has steadily refused to pass such a bill. Last year a petition for a referendum on the subject was presented. Favorable action by at least 25 percent of a joint session is necessary. In such a case it must go to the succeeding legislature and if successful there, to the people at the next election. Last year 70 favorable votes were necessary; 71 were cast but in the interval between the voting and announcement of the result three votes were changed and the motion was lost. A similar petition will be presented to the present legislature.

2. A small legislature. At present senators represent an average of a trifle over 35,000 legal voters and representatives, an average of somewhat under 60,000 voters. The number of representatives was fixed in 1856 or 1857 at 240 and has not since been changed although before that time the number of electors for one representative was several times increased from the original number of 225 (or in case of small communities, from 150 up). A further revision would now seem overdue.

3. The United States Census Bureau. "Financial Statistics of States for 1930-31" shows that the cost of the Legislature in Massachusetts for those two years was about $45,000.00 per 100,000 population. In the same two years New York with a population almost three times as great, showed a legislative cost of some $31,000.00 per 100,000 population, while New Jersey, with a population of only about 800,000 less, showed a corresponding legislative cost of $17,000.00.

A fee for presenting a petition or resolve. More than 2000 such papers were presented to the 1933 legislature, which enacted about 1/5 of them. Much the same situation faced the legislature of 1934. Thus the legislature is spending a large portion of its time in turning down improper legislation. A large waste in printing is also involved.

4. A legislature of but one chamber. Such a chamber has recently been installed in Nebraska and the arguments for it are given by Senator Norris of that State, whose more than thirty years' experience in the National House and Senate enable him to speak with authority. He points out that whereas the English legislature on which those of our states were directly or indirectly modeled represented in one case the nobility and in the other the common people, while in this country members of both chambers are drawn from the same class and do not represent different interests.

The most weighty argument is drawn from the conference committee. "A bill must pass through both branches * * * in exactly the same word for word, before it can become a law. In cases where the senate and the house disagree * * * the bill is sent to the 'third house'—the conference committee * * * Practically all important bills get into the conference committee. * * * No record is kept of its proceedings. * * * If two of the three members of the conference committee from the senate do not agree then by the controlling vote of the senate the bill is rejected. * * * The same rule applies to the members * * * from the house. * * * It often occurs that two members lay down certain conditions which must be agreed to get any report. * * * In this way all kinds of jokers get into our laws."

Another evil which a one-house legislature will bring to an end * * * is a very great extension of the lobbyist. In the conference committee particularly the professional lobbyist gets in his work."

The importance of a local taxpayers association was also briefly discussed.

Talks on Decorating To N'ville Woman's Assn.

Beatrice Baldwin of Boston spoke on "Individual Fashions in Interior Decorating" at the afternoon session of the monthly Church Day of the Woman's Association of Newtonville on Wednesday. Using samples of wall paper and draperies, she gave many practical helps on the uses of materials in home decorating. She advised a thought of comfort first. There must be a regard for proportions with low windows in low rooms and vice versa. Color should also be considered in proportions.

The right wall paper can do much to relieve furniture. Flowered draperies are not suited to flowered wall paper. Horizontal stripes add in vogue now. Draperies should be hung before hemming as most floors are uneven. A piece of sales canvas in drapery headings will keep them in shape. Draperies are more satisfactory if lined. The speaker considers New England more conservative than New York in the use of materials for interior decorating.

The women who sewed for the Mayor's Relief have completed 350 garments. An all-day sewing will be held April 15. Other dates selected by the Association are a Rummage Sale April 19, a Pop Concert April 26, and the Mother and Daughter Dinner May 1. The Woman's Bible Class is holding its annual dinner this evening. In the absence of Mrs. Carl S. Ell, the president of the association, Mrs. W. H. Timble, first vice president, presided throughout the day.

Mothers' Auxiliary of Scouts
To Hold Meeting

The Mothers' Auxiliary of the Sixth Norumbega Group Boy Scouts and Cubs will meet Tuesday, April 9th, at 2:30 at Central Congregational Church. The speakers will be Frank Lichtenthaler, retired Scoutmaster of Troop 4A, Newton Highlands. He is Rover Leader of Lief Ericson Rover Crew. He is one of the most successful Scoutmasters in the Council and has led camping trips all over the United States. His subject is "Why Scouts Go To Camp." William R. Spiers, Assistant Scout Executive, Norumbega Council, in charge of Cubs, and Cubmaster of Pack 7, West Newton, will also speak. His subject will be "The Parents' Place in the Scout and Cub Program."

Tea will be served under the direction of Mrs. L. E. Huston, and Mrs. Frederick A. Cole as co-chairmen. Mrs. Donald Hunt, Mrs. H. C. Thomas, and Mrs. Irving House. All mothers of Scouts and Cubs, and those interested in this work are invited.

Newton Boys Attending
Middlesex Col. of Medicine

Governor James M. Curley this week signed a bill changing the name of the Middlesex College of Medicine and Surgery to Middlesex College and authorizing this institution to confer the degree of Bachelor of Science. This act will enable the college to give a full academic course in addition to the medical course which it has been offering for many years.

Middlesex College has a ninety-five acre campus in Waltham and has recently erected a large group of new classrooms and laboratories. There are at present 350 students in its premedical and medical classes. Among them are the following residents of Newton:

Charles Nelson, 16 Randlett park, West Newton; Americo Macaluso, 28 Chesterfield rd., West Newton; Adrian Delorzon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Delorzon of 5 Margaret rd., Newton Highlands; Patsy Tedeschi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Tedeschi of 14 Cook st.

Ex-Atty. Gen. Warner To Speak to Young Republicans

Hon. Joseph E. Warner, former Attorney-General of the Commonwealth, will be the principal speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Republican League of Boston at their headquarters in the Hotel Fritz-Carlton, 1138 Boylston st., Boston.

The meeting will be called at 8 o'clock by the President, Roger A. Lutz. Ladies are invited to attend. This organization was the founder of the Young Republican movement over six years ago. These meetings afford young men an opportunity to meet and hear leaders of the Republican party, to discuss issues of the day, and to promote the principles of the Republican party, and to acquaint young men with the tenets and institutions of American Government.

Those interested in these activities are invited to attend these meetings and communicate with President Roger A. Lutz of Newton Centre.

THE STRAW ON THE CAMEL'S BACK

The House of Representatives this week passed a bill to require the establishment of five cent fare zones by the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway. The bill was sponsored by Representatives of the Waltham and Watertown district. It goes without saying that a five-cent fare would be desirable to many users of the road but there is much below the surface which should be taken into consideration. The bill provides that the five-cent fare zones shall be at least a mile and a third in length. Thus a passenger might go from Newton to Newtonville for five cents, from Newton to West Newton for ten cents but might be compelled to pay fifteen cents to go from Newton to Waltham. If a ten cent maximum is imposed it is reasonable to believe that there will be a considerable loss of revenue to the company on five-cent fares. Furthermore the cost per mile is approximately 27 cents and under the proposed legislation the revenues would be reduced to 12 cents per mile. No company can exist long on such a basis. Should the present bill become law it may prove to be the straw that breaks the camel's back and we might find ourselves without bus service entirely. It should be noted that the Newton members of the State Legislature voted against the five cent fare in recognition of the ultimate outcome.

A STUDY OF ELECTION LAWS IS WARRANTED

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night the report of the Legislative committee opposing pending bills before the State Legislature to change the election laws of the city seems to us to be a proper step. It is a certainty that the changes proposed in the bills would be overwhelmingly defeated by the voters upon referendum when put on the ballot at the city election. The proposed changes, unless modified considerably, would not be to the best interests of the city. We trust, however, that the matter will not be dropped entirely and that a committee will be authorized to study the present laws and recommend desirable changes. As we have stated before there is little question that the elimination of the "off-year" election would be a desirable change. More equal division of the voters into wards is another salient feature of the problem. We have come to the conclusion that there is no way in which an equal division can be made under the existing arrangement of seven wards. Last December we broached a nine-ward plan, which, we believe, has considerable merit. There may be other plans which could be worked out advantageously. Most certainly an exhaustive study of the situation by a representative committee is warranted and should be started in the near future.

WELCOME TO NEWTON

Newton extends a warm welcome to the three new ministers coming to parishes in the Newton Corner section of the city. The Rev. C. Oscar Ford who will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Episcopal Church comes from Winthrop where he has made a host of friends in the years he has served there. The Channing Unitarian Church has called a young man with a rich religious background in Mr. Joseph Barth. Rev. John A. Sheridan comes to Our Lady Church as parish priest to succeed the late Rev. Lawrence Slattery. We know that they will receive a hospitable welcome and trust that they will meet with immeasurable success.

Newton Post, No. 48 Drill Team, American Legion, will hold its first Charity Penny Sale and Beano Party on Friday evening, April 5, 1935, at the new War Memorial Building Cafeteria. Play will start at 8 p. m. Many useful and valuable gifts will be given. The committee in charge are Oswald J. McCourt, Chairman; Capt. Hennrikus of the Drill Team, and Frank Gaw assisted by all members of the Drill Team.

Dr. Booth To Give Final Lecture In Series

Dr. Edwin P. Booth, Professor of Ecclesiastical History in Boston University, will give the sixth and final lecture in the series, "Great Men of the Christian Church," on Tuesday evening of this week in the Eliot Church, speaking on "John Wesley." This lecture is open to the general public without charge.

About Town

By Edward H. Powers

A large flock of wild geese passed high over Newton at 11:10 Tuesday morning. Flying several thousand feet up as they proceeded North toward their habitat in Canada, they presented an impressive sight and indicated the coming of warmer weather.

Further proof of the large percentage of 22 calibre politicians now composing our Legislature is offered by their action in trying to repeal the "no fix" law for illegal parking of automobiles, and the fight to restore to his old position a former State official who resigned when under charges and who has been openly accused of having gained popularity with cheap politicians by "fixing" cases for violators of automobile laws. No wonder the slaughter of people by reckless motorists constantly increases. The fact that we have in the Legislature so many Representatives who endeavor to invade enforcement of laws which would benefit the great majority of people shows that too great a number of Massachusetts voters are not sufficiently intelligent to elect the right type of men to public office.

During the debate at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night relative to the granting of a permit for another gasoline station at the corner of Boylston and John streets, in the crowded Thompsonville section, the opinions voiced by some of the aldermen were interesting. One new member of the Board stated that he could not visualize any development along the Worcester turnpike except filling stations and similar business activities. Apparently it has not occurred to him that the reason for the expenditure of millions of dollars by the people of Massachusetts in constructing the Worcester turnpike was to create an automobile highway which would avoid business sections of communities through which it passes to enable rapid travel. To convert the turnpike into a business thoroughfare would defeat the very purpose for which it was built. Wellesley and other towns along this turnpike have taken the commendable stand of restrictions which will prevent the perversion of the superhighway into a filling station and "hot-dog" auto route.

Another alderman stated that when motorists approach a cluster of gasoline stations they slow down. We would suggest to this alderman that he spend a couple of hours watching traffic whiz by the corner of John street and the turnpike and see if he can detect any appreciable slowing down of automobiles as they pass the three stations now there.

Elizabeth P. Thurston, who passed from this world on March 29, served the people of Newton courteously and efficiently for 36 years as a member of the Free Library staff; 29 of those years as librarian. A cheerful little woman, she was rewarded with a long, active and happy life. Her memory will be cherished by the older residents of Newton for whom she toiled nearly two score years.

One consolation that Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burns have in the loss of their son, Donald, is the heroic sacrifice made by Mr. Burns in giving four transfusions of blood in two weeks in efforts to save the boy. And the contributions of blood given by three of the boy's schoolmates merits high praise for the donors.

Policeman Pleads For Driver Of Uninsured Car

William Crossland of 27 Underwood park, Waltham, was arraigned in the Newton court on Saturday on charges of operating an uninsured and unregistered automobile, and also driving without a license. Crossland was arrested the preceding night by Patrolmen Cummings and Gagnin as he was driving the car on Noble st., West Newton. The police observed the car bearing 1934 number plates. With Crossland was another man who said he owned the car and Crossland stated he was testing the automobile as he was thinking of buying it.

Traffic Officer Dowling of the Newton Police asked permission to speak in Crossland's behalf. Dowling told Judge Bacon that Crossland is a neighbor of his, works only three days a week, and the car is valued at only $30. The judge asked Dowling if that was any reason why Crossland should not be penalized. He fined Crossland $10 for driving an unregistered car, gave him a suspended fine of $100 for operating an uninsured car, placed on file the charge of driving without a license.

Pilate's Daughter Is Presented At Roxbury

The annual presentation of "Pilate's Daughter," the Lenten Drama which for over 30 years has attracted many thousands of persons to St. Alphonsus Hall, Mission Church, Roxbury, is again having a very successful run. It is staged every Wednesday and Thursday evening and Sunday afternoons. A Passion Play is something for which some people have no liking but here is a play which has drawn thousands for over three decades. It tells the story of the passion of Christ and the early days of Christianity and during its long run has lost none of its popularity. Catholic and non-Catholic have found it a gripping drama that contains a personal message of comfort and illumination for men and women of all creeds. The amateur casts of girls who have performed this drama have been inspired by a spirit of Faith which has enabled them to captivate a whole generation of attendants at this passion play.

Public Auction Of Boy Will Feature Pageant

Public auction of a real live boy—sound in mind and limb—will take place on Dickinson Stadium next to the Newton High School on Friday evening, May 17th, as the opening feature of the spectacular Silver Jubilee Pageant of the Newton Boy Scouts.

The auction, fashioned after the ancient slave marts, will come as the prologue of the great outdoor production which is being planned and is designed to indicate "The Worth of a Boy." Mr. Lysecom Bruce, executive of the Norumbega Council of Boy Scouts, will act as the auctioneer. Special license to act in such a capacity has been requested and Mayor Sinclair Weeks has agreed to recommend such a license. The "slave" has not yet been selected.

Other scenes in the Silver Jubilee Pageant announced today include the Scouts of 47 Nations, an Indian Scene, a city built by cubs, an augmented troupe meeting in which 1200 boys will take part, games, bridge building, a Sea Scout scene and the construction of a Scout village of 70 tents all set up by a group of 280 scouts within five minutes.

State Officials Attend Newton A. O. H. Banquet

The banquet held on Monday night at the Newton Catholic Club by the various A. O. H. Divisions of Newton and their Auxiliaries was an outstanding success. About 250 persons attended and the guests and speakers included Lieut. Governor Hurley, State Treasurer Hurley, State Auditor Buckley, Attorney General Dever, Rev. William T. O'Brien, and prominent officials of the A. O. H. including John Fenton, National Vice President; Maurice Walsh, State Vice President; Robert Donovan, County President; Mary Doyle, State President of the Auxiliary; and Annie Galvin, County President.

A. Leslie Moriarty, president of Division 35 was toastmaster. Father O'Brien spoke on the history of Ireland and the persecutions suffered by the Irish people for their faith. State Auditor Buckley related the progress made by the Irish people in Massachusetts in the face of adverse conditions. Attorney General Dever told of the civic progress made by the people of this race in the Commonwealth. Lieut. Governor Hurley condemned the persecution of Catholics in Mexico and at the conclusion of his speech it was voted to send a telegram to Senator Walsh asking for further action in the Mexican situation.

Among those who contributed to the entertainment program were—Mrs. Annie Galvin and Mollie Sheedy in soprano solos; Mary Curtis and Edward Desmond, juvenile dancers; D. Walter Kern, baritone; Edward Dugan, Irish songs; Edward H. Powers, bass; and George Kline, accompanist.

Election Law Changes Opposed

to decide them is to allow each and every voter to ballot on these questions. Cronin said that the aldermen had heard the proponents and opponents of the bill give their views on it, and some of the opponents had alleged that aldermen-at-large take a wider view of city affairs than do ward aldermen. He commented that during his service on the Board of Aldermen he has seen no difference between the two classes of aldermen. He said that the bill is not a Democratic measure, as has been claimed by its opponents; that three of the four sponsors of the bill are registered Republicans, and one a Democrat.

Alderman Rawson said he does not see any need of the change and he expressed the fear that the referendum, at the end of the ballot, would receive only a light vote. Alderman Guzzi said that he did not receive the notice of the meeting of the Legislation Committee held last Friday night until the following morning and suggested that the chairman of this committee give its members ample notice of meetings. Alderman Grebenstein said the Legislation Committee believes that there are some good points in the bill but as it stands it is not ready to go on the ballot for a vote by the people. The proposed changes should receive more study by a committee and a report made next December. Alderman Atkins said the proponents of the bill are ready to compromise and he predicted that the Legislature will vote to submit the bill to a referendum by the voters of Newton.

On a voice vote the report of the majority of the Legislation Committee was sustained by the Board and it was voted that the bill ought not to be passed by the Legislature.

though more snow fell during the preceding winter. Holden also opposed the appropriation of $17,160 to purchase 10 sidewalk tractor plows. The Ward 6 Alderman stated that these tractors cannot be used on a large percentage of sidewalks in the city where trees and poles will prevent their passage. The Street Department has been getting rid of its horses which heretofore have drawn the sidewalk plows.

ONE THING... AND ANOTHER

By L. D. G. BENTLEY

Life's Big Moment

Last Monday I listened to solemn warning as to the future of our country, but for some reason was not impressed. Those with dubious and dismal thoughts may have been surprised that I showed no mental disturbance beyond the ordinary. The same thing must have occurred to a friend who sought, that very same day, to convince me that war among European countries was inevitable and that United States was certain to be drawn into it. On that date a friend advised me against the vagaries of Spring weather, damp feet, insufficient clothing and hatless promenades outdoors. They all talked in vain. My insatiable desire for frivolity would not down. I became so light-headed that nothing serious entered my mind. I wondered at my own effervescence. Was it renewed youth? Hardly. Could it be realization that Summer will be here before long? Not that. Still, I was puzzled. Suddenly I caught sight of a calendar. It showed April 1st—All Fools' Day. "Ah, ha," I exclaimed. "The day we celebrate."

Friendly Apprehension

It seems that private bars in some of the houses of the more favored, an idea that became popular during Prohibition, have not entirely gone out of fashion in Newton. Pardon me if I protest that this is all hearsay and remain silent as to their location. Nevertheless, I am informed there are still several. This concerns one of them.

A local hostess, a charming lady, too, takes marked pride in everything her husband does. The other day she invited a friendly dower to view the magnificent bar the husband had had erected in the cellar of their home. Calling attention to the elaborate appointments, extensive stock of liquor and vast quantities of cut glass, she turned to her guest and asked, "Isn't it wonderful. Aren't you impressed?"

"Indeed I am," came the reply, "but, tell me, do you have any trouble with the police?"

Air Full of Earfuls

The custom has grown in this country of expressing one's thoughts, particularly if they happen to be harsh and bitter, over the radio. During the political contests we became used to it and were gratified when the campaign closed and the orators were silent. Now, however, people with caustic criticisms they want to get before the public retain the services of some radio station and let loose. The only limit is that of time, governed presumably by the cost. One of the larger stations in Boston apparently does not go in for that sort of thing, which is reassuring. There are those, nevertheless, who seem willing that anybody should say anything and everything, providing they pay for the privilege. No doubt there are many with things on their mind who would like to take to the air if they could afford it. I am surprised that no one has suggested that the State provide such facilities free of charge. Meanwhile there appears no alternative for listeners, who must apparently sit and take it.

Sweet Tooth Symphony

Much of my purchasing time, as the retail tradesmen would say, has been devoted the past Winter in hunting a variety of molasses candy. You know you've got to hurry up if you have a weakness such as mine for molasses bars are not common in the warmer months, although one of the best and oldest firms in Cambridge puts out one that you get all the year around. Very good, too.

In my sweet search I had great luck. There were first molasses chips—"delicious!" In another shop, hard but crisp uneven pieces that could easily be crunched. This was the only one with a slightly burnt flavor and made a big hit. Then I discovered thin sticks or rolls, with cream inside. Wonderful! Molasses kisses, too, with and without peanut butter and good either way. In a large number of places I obtained marvelous bars, chewy and toothsome. Well, I've become expert and am prepared to advise any addicts who may wish assistance. Doctors tell me that molasses candy is good for me. If they declared it was harmful I should eat it.

One More Problem

The city's new method of disposing of rubbish may be sanitary and better for Newton in every way. If, however, it removes permanently that ancient institution—the dump—what is going to happen to our slang? The happy phrase, "Congratulations, you certainly own a swell dump," will have no significance. And you can't say, "You lucky stiff, you certainly live in a swell incinerator."

Refuse Gas Station Permit

better to have gasoline stations clustered together in groups instead of being scattered along highways as autos slow down when approaching a cluster of gasoline stations. He contended that the character of the neighborhood near John and Boylston sts. will not be adversely affected by the addition of another gasoline station to three already there. A voice vote sustained the majority report of the Licenses Committee and the petition was refused.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Unreality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 7.

The Golden Text is: "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment" (John 7:24).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. . . . The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay: . . . let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn" (Matthew 13:24-26, 28-30).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The temporal and unreal never touch the eternal and real. . . . These opposite qualities are the tares and wheat, which never really mingle, though (to mortal sight) they grow side by side until the harvest; then, Science separates the wheat from the tares, through the realization of God as ever present and of man as reflecting the divine likeness" (p. 300).

W. C. T. U.

The West Newton W. C. T. U. held their monthly evangelistic meeting at the home of Mrs. Jessie Clark, 807 Washington st., Newton.

Mrs. Nellie Cooney was the leader and took for her subject the Twenty-third Psalm. At the close of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed with refreshments. The assisting hostess was Mrs. Belle Merriam.

Recent Deaths

ELIZABETH P. THURSTON

Elizabeth P. Thurston, for 36 years a member of the Newton Free Library staff and for 29 years librarian, died on March 29 at the Newton Hospital. She was born in Billerica, 85 years ago, and in 1880 was appointed assistant to Hannah James at the Newton Free Library. In 1887 she was made librarian and served until 1915. During that period the number of books in the library increased from 25,000 to 94,000 and the annual circulation from 90,000 to 328,000. The library building was twice enlarged, deposit stations grew into branches and a real library system was developed. In 1918 Miss Thurston returned and served as acting librarian for a year while Librarian Herbert Dougherty was in library service overseas.

She was a life member of the American Library Association, a charter member of the Massachusetts Library Club and first president of the Charles River Library Club. She was always energetic and enthusiastic in her work. She studied several languages and to the end of her life read books in Italian, Spanish, German and French. During the past winter she took up the study of Greek and was making real progress. She was never known to be ill until three weeks before her death when she contracted a severe cold. Until quite recently she thought nothing of walking from her home at 16 Fountain st., West Newton, to the library at Newton.

Her funeral service was held at her late home on Monday morning. Rev. Herbert Hitchen of the First Unitarian Church officiated, and Rev. Walter F. Greenman delivered a brief, but beautiful eulogy. Cremation was at Mount Auburn. A laurel wreath was placed in the library lobby in memory of her. She is survived by a brother.

FANNIE E. JOHANNOT

Mrs. Fannie E. Johannot of 85 High street, Newton Upper Falls died on April 4 in her 73rd year. She was born in Newton Upper Falls, the daughter of Beriah and Caroline Billings. She is survived by her husband, Charles W. Johannot, a retired Boston jeweler; and a daughter, Caroline Wellington Johannot. She was very active in Methodist Church affairs. She sang in the choir of the Upper Falls M. E. Church for a number of years and was a member of the Foreign Missionary Society. She was also a member of the Upper Falls Woman's Club, the Newton Highlands Woman's Club and a charter member of the Minute Men's Chapter, D. A. R. Her funeral service will be held at Newton Upper Falls Methodist Episcopal Church on Saturday at 2:30 p. m.; Rev. G. Vaughan Shedd will officiate. Burial will be in Newton Cemetery.

FRANCIS C. PITMAN

Francis C. Pitman of 48 Jameson road, Newton died at the Phillips House, Boston on March 29. He was born in New Bedford 62 years ago, the son of Judge John R. Pitman. He had been a resident of Newton for over 50 years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Katherine G. Pitman; and one brother, Arthur Pitman of Boston. His funeral service was held on Monday morning at Our Lady's Church. Interment was in Newton Cemetery.

DONALD B. BURNS

Donald B. Burns, 16, son of Frederick W. and Edna (Bryson) Burns of 603 California st., Newtonville, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Burns, died at the Newton Hospital on April 2nd, following an operation. The boy was a junior at Newton High School, president of the Junior athletic association there and a troop leader in the Boy Scouts. He was taken ill several weeks ago and went to the Newton Hospital on March 16, where the sickness was diagnosed as purpura, a blood disease. During the two weeks before his death the boy received seven transfusions of blood; four from his father, and one each from Van Cortland Lawrence, George McDonald and David Buxbaum, three of his many school chums, who volunteered in the effort to save him. An operation on his spleen was performed on Tuesday and because of his weakened condition he failed to rally from the shock.

His funeral service was held at Our Lady's Church this morning. Among the large attendance were hundreds of his schoolmates, members of the Boy Scouts and of the boys' clubs he had helped to organize. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham. Besides his parents he is survived by three sisters, Phyllis Muriel and Janette Burns, and a brother, Frederick W. Burns, Jr.

MICHAEL F. NORTON

Michael F. Norton of 15 Edinboro terrace, Newtonville died on April 3 after a three days' illness with pneumonia. He was born in Newtonville 48 years ago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Norton. He had been employed many years at the Saco-Lowell Company as a machinist. He was a member of Needham Council Knights of Columbus. He is survived by five sisters—Misses Helen, Gertrude and Alice Norton of Newtonville, Mrs. Frank Hurley of Newton Upper Falls, Vermont; and a brother, John Norton of Newtonville. His funeral service will be held tomorrow morning at Our Lady's Church. Burial will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery, West Roxbury.

ROSE FRECHETTE

Mrs. Rose Frechette of 19 West street, Nonantum, wife of Alphonse Frechette, died on April 1. She was born in Westbrook, Maine 64 years ago and had resided in Newton for over 30 years. She is survived by her husband; five daughters, Misses Louise, Ernestine, Merilda and Claire Frechette of Newton and Mrs. Annette Hanson of Maynard; and five sons—Albert, Henry, Arthur, Paul and Eugene Frechette of Newton. Her funeral service was held yesterday morning at St. Jean Evangeliste Church, Nonantum; burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

HERBERT C. ILSLEY

Herbert C. Ilsley of 9 Woodbine st., Auburndale, died on April 2. He was born in Chelsea, 67 years ago, and had been employed by the United Shoe Machinery Company as an auditor. He was a Past Master of Star of Bethlehem Lodge of Masons. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mabel (Smith) Ilsley; two daughters, Ruth W. Ilsley and Mrs. George W. Pray, both of Auburndale, and two sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Warren and Mrs. Charles Duncan, both of Concord, New Hampshire. His funeral service will be held this afternoon in Mount Auburn Cemetery chapel.

Boy Scout Traffic Police Squad in Fifth Year

This year, 1935, is the fifth year of the operation of the Norumbega Council Inc., Boy Scouts of America, Traffic Police Squad. This Traffic Squad is the oldest of its kind in the United States. Started in 1930 under the leadership of Mr. L. A. Bruce, Jr., Executive of the Norumbega Council it has been in operation ever since.

The boys that are on the squad are probably familiar figures to many who drive to and from Boston during the day. Their duty is to protect the students at the schools during the time the students are coming in and out of the schools, 8:00 o'clock in the morning until about 8:30 and again in the afternoon during the time they are coming out of school about 2:00 o'clock to 2:30.

The Police Squad at the present time is under the leadership of Star Scout Philip Shute of Troop 15, Auburndale. Scout Shute started in the Traffic Squad as one of the Junior members three years ago and has now worked his way to position of leader.

Before taking over their positions on the road and directing traffic these Scouts are given training by the Newton Police Department. Officer Kyle has spent a great deal of time ever since the inception of the Squad giving the necessary training and making the selection of these boys for their positions on the squad.

The squad is divided into three Patrols and each Patrol is under the leadership of a Scout as follows:

Albert Coty, 7C (Sergeant), Bill Golding, 7C, Les Wyman 7C (Sergeant), Robert Marden, 7C; Wm. Smith, 7C; and Bill Courtneage, 7C. The second squad is made up of: George Allen, 2; Sergeant, Bob McCutcheon, 9; Sterling Calcord, 2; Joe Smith, 7A; Marty Bertsch, 2; and Francis Burke, 7A. The third squad consists of: Teddy Jennings, 7C; (Sergeant), Bruce Freeman, 7C; Stuart Freeman, 8; Wentworth Shepard, 10; and Don Smith, 7C. They take turns going on duty. The squad has given continuous service during the rain and snow and have worked efficiently.

Kiwanis Club

Lloyd L. Shaulis, Professor of Economics at Tufts College gave a very interesting talk on the present economic situation relative to the N. R. A., at the noon Luncheon of the Newton Kiwanis Club at the Charles River Country Club last Tuesday. He analyzed the various ways and methods by which the Government is attempting to stabilize the present depression.

He made a striking attack upon the N. R. A. declaring it to be essentially a depressing rather than a stimulating force for recovery. He said hopes for its success were doomed from the start because economically it is unsound in its original form to bring the nation out of its present chaotic condition.

A committee was named to handle the second annual show at the Paramount Theatre for the benefit of the Under Privileged Child Fund Saturday morning, May 4th. This will be a children's program with a feature picture and some entertainment from the Bob Mills Group of very talented children in Newton. The committee includes Steve Hodges, Wilfred Chagnon, Ray Green and J. N. Snieder. The Newton Club will hold an interclub meet with Wayland Weston and Sudbury Club at the Davis Turkey Farm on Monday evening, April 22nd.

Next week will be celebrated as national Kiwanis week.

Recent Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Arthur Seeley of 40 Holden rd., West Newton, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Adelaide, to Norman E. Bull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Bull of Washington, D. C. Miss Seeley is a student at Lasell Junior College, Auburndale, and Mr. Bull is a junior at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Currier of 199 Bellevue st., Newton. Miss Blake is a graduate of the Winsor School and is a member of the Junior League. Mr. Currier graduated from Harvard in 1932, attended the Harvard School of Business Administration and is now attending Harvard Law School.

Newton Campers Attend Reunion of Heathland Camps

Moosehead, Three Pines, and the Three Pines Club, separate divisions of The Heathland Camps, which are owned and directed by Drs. Arthur W. and Marjorie M. Johnson of Wellesley, held their camp reunion at the Pioneer Club in Boston on Saturday, March 30.

Approximately eighty campers and counselors were present. The tables were very colorful with favors for each person.

Motion pictures of camp and several comic pictures were shown. Games and camp songs completed the entertainment.

The following Newton children and counselors were present: Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Smith, Barbara and Wendell, Jr., 38 West View terrace; Mrs. Ethel Coty and her son, Albert; and daughter, Ethel, 99 Highland st.; Philip Ver Planck, 74 Fenwick rd.; Waban; Jean Ballard, 40 Orchard ave.; Mary Lewis, 85 Lombard st.; Fay Kirby, 60 Dolphin rd.; Nancy Covey, 11 Fenwick rd.; Waban; Margery Guimaraes, 63 Park lane, and Margaret and Jean Worth, 23 Perkins street.

Hudson-Terraplane Sales Increasing

A strong upturn in sales of Hudsons and Terraplanes in New England has caused the Hudson factory to inaugurate for the month of April an aggressive sales and advertising campaign, it is announced by Myron F. Evans, Treasurer of the Newton Hudson Terraplane Company at 208 Washington st., Newton Corner.

"An especially encouraging sign, we feel, is that the increase in our business is greater than can be accounted for merely on a basis of better business conditions in general," Mr. Evans said today. "We find that the Hudson Motor Car Company agrees with us that now is the time to strike out with a renewed effort. With a sales campaign in New England put on a competitive basis, our entire organization is determined that at the end of the month our names shall head the list."

The major advertising effort for April will be done in the local newspapers of the various dealers, as the Hudson factory feels the best way to tell their story is to bring it right into the homes of prospective purchasers. The presentation of the Hudson SIX, a new car in the Hudson line, comes simultaneously with the increased sales effort. This new Hudson is a big 93 and 100 horsepower car, priced $695 at factory. For the first time are the traditional Hudson advantages and performances brought to the low price field.

ANGLE OF STABILITY ILLUSTRATED

How far can a modern automobile be tilted before it will turn over? This Hudson Sedan has its center of gravity only 21 1/4 inches above the ground. It can be tilted to an angle of 53 degrees before it loses its stability. This contributes materially to the safety of the car at high speed and on winding roads.

WOMEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES

Edited by EMMA D. COOLIDGE

Special Birthday Party Planned

The members of the West Newton Women's Educational Club are looking forward to an especially delightful program on Friday, April 12th, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, president of the Club, has arranged, with the assistance of a committee made up of some of the new members of the Club, a special Birthday Party in honor of the fifty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Club and also in honor of members who have belonged to the Club for twenty years or more. Miss Alta Lena Nicholson, a talented musician and character impersonator, will furnish the entertainment for the afternoon's program.

The tickets for the Luncheon and Annual Meeting of the Club to be held on Friday, April 26th, will be available on this day and may be obtained from Mrs. George H. Jackson or from Mrs. Francis H. McCruden.

The Travel Class of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will meet on Monday, April 8th, at the home of Mrs. Ernest F. Robinson, 36 Oakland Avenue, Auburndale, with Mrs. Raymond O. Littlefield as the assisting hostess. Mrs. Charles E. Gibson will read a paper on "Nova Scotia," and Mrs. Louis A. Bacon's paper will be on "Ottawa and Vicinity."

The Garden Club of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will attend the two-day meeting and Conference at the Massachusetts Agricultural Experimental Station, at Waltham, on Tuesday, April 9th, and Wednesday, April 10th. The regular meeting of the Club on the 15th of the month will be omitted in consequence.

"How Styles Are Made"

A regular meeting of the Waban Woman's Club will be held at the Neighborhood Club House on Monday, April 8th, at 2:30 p. m. Miss Evelyn Tobey, who is at the head of a large Fashion Service in New York, will speak on "How The Styles Are Made," and will illustrate her talk by herself wearing many different costumes.

Mrs. Robert E. Shillady will be Tea hostess.

OTHER EVENTS PAST AND TO COME

Newton Highlands C. L. S. C.

On Monday, April 8th, the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. Mark H. Ward of Oak Terrace. Miss Thalia Clark will read "Apples and Madonnas," by C. J. Bulliet, and Miss Mary E. Hyde will present Current Events.

Social Science Club

At the meeting of the Social Science Club on Wednesday, April 10th, Miss Dorothy S. Emmons will read a paper on "Old Letters." Mrs. Chester L. Sloan, librarian of the Boys' and Girls' Library, will give a short talk on "Story Telling in the Newton Schools."

Mrs. Franklin E. Smith and Mrs. Frank P. Scofield will receive. The Club meets at 10 a. m. in the parlors of Channing Church.

Newton Community Club

Alice Dixon Bond will review "Current Books," at the meeting of the Newton Community Club on Thursday, April 11th, at 2:30 p. m., in Underwood School Hall.

The music will be furnished by Rose Hamlin, Soprano, a pupil of Madame Sundelius. She will be accompanied on the piano by Delores Rodriguez.

Tea will be served by the Social committee.
Prof. William A. Frayer of Waban, gave an interesting and instructive lecture on "The New Nationalism," before the Newton Community Club, on Thursday, March 28th. He stated that the impalpable fear that is felt, and which has been increased by the depression, probably makes each country think it must draw within its own defenses, and fight for that which they have. Declaring that exaggerated Nationalism breeds intolerance and resentments, and is a cause of war, Prof. Frayer announced that he believes in an Internationalism where every effort should be made to co-operate with the Nations over the sea.

Three attractively-gowned young ladies, the youngest being seven years of age, furnished the music for the afternoon. They were Mary Elizabeth Doehler, Harpist; Frances N. Doehler, Violinist; and their little sister Doris, "Cellist." "Barcarole," by Offenbach, and "Ave Maria" by Gounod, were played by the Trio; after which the two elder girls rendered three selections, the first being Mendelssohn's "Spring Song." They also furnished the music for the Pageant which followed. At the close of the first part of this delightful musical program, a bouquet of flowers was acknowledged very graciously by the youngest of the trio.

The Pageant presented by the International committee, of which Mrs. LeRoy Gulon is chairman, was directed by Mrs. Arthur Mansfield, chairman of the Junior committee, and Mrs. Harold Daniels. Members of the Junior Club, dressed in colorful costumes and carrying flags, represented the Nations. The sound of the bugle, played by Roger Walen, announced the entrance of the "Spirit of History," this part being taken by Rosalind Lewis who gave the reading. Italy was the first Nation to appear, and this part was taken by

Garden Club Wins Award

The Newtonville Garden Club met at the Newtonville Woman's Club House last Thursday morning, March 28th, at 10 o'clock. Mr. Bradford Williams gave his illustrated lecture on "Preserving Places of Beauty and Historic Interest in Massachusetts."

The Club exhibited in Classes 3, 4, and 5, at the Spring Flower Show at Mechanics Building, receiving first prize in Class 5, "Growing Vines in Pots," with a Japanese wax plant grown from a cutting by Mrs. Arthur W. Church.

The next meeting of the Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles P. Pratt, on April 11th, at 10 a. m. The subjects of the talks will be: "Blossoming Border of Shrubs," by Mrs. A. W. Church, and "Pruning," by Mrs. George E. Fisher.

Eleanor Collins, who sang an Italian song, Next came France to the music of the "Marseillaise," Minnie Spiers; followed by Germany to the music of their National anthem, Barbara Vannah; England, Gertrude Spiers; America, Marjorie Clapp; Russia, Frances Daley; Sweden, Sally Pierce; Holland, Eleanor Lord; Ireland, Margaret Wilson; Switzerland, Jean Weber; Spain, Sally Smith; Portugal, Betty Lloyd; Austria, Mary Ryan; Japan, Mary Ann Brennan; China, Marjorie Woodrough; and India, Barbara Dwight.

As each "Nation" appeared on the platform she saluted the "Spirit of History" and the Audience with her flag, following this with a short speech. United singing of the "Hymn of Nations" ended a picturesque and entertaining program, the result of hard work which had to be accomplished within a limited time.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Chester F. Smith, Mrs. Forest G. Bagley, and Mrs. Samuel Nash.

At the business meeting Mrs. Joseph Gerrity, vice-president, presided. In the place of Mrs. Steven Bayard Wilson who was confined to her home by illness.

Mrs. David Black exhibited the afghan made by Mrs. Corabelle Francis, of the squares knitted by Club members.

Reports of the State Federation Youth Conference were given by Mrs. John P. Dyer and Mrs. Sterling Nye Loveland, and a report of the Mid-Winter Meeting of the State Federation was given by Mrs. Kendal Woodrough.

Newtonville Woman's Club

The Newtonville Woman's Club held a regular meeting on Tuesday, April 2nd, at their Club House on Washington park. The program, in charge of Mrs. George L. Davis, chairman, was one of universal interest. Mrs. Harriette W. Patey Long, a graduate of the Cambridge School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture, was the guest speaker of the afternoon, her subject, "The Gardens of New England and Old Spain," and her intensive study both abroad and in this country, together with her interesting lecture on the subject, made the afternoon one of the greatest pleasure to all of her audience. Mrs. Long showed many fascinating pictures of gardens which she had seen and studied.

RADIO. On April 6th, tomorrow, Saturday, at 11:30 a. m., over Station WBZ, Mrs. Edgar B. Richardson, State Radio director, will present Mrs. Edgar Tregoning, chairman of the State Division of Education, who will stage a Spelling Bee. Mrs. Joseph P. Brown, Fourteenth District director, will also be heard on this program. A group of seventh grade pupils from the Bliss School, Attleboro, will participate in the Spelling Match, conducted by Mr. A. Irvin Studley, principal of this school. This should be an interesting affair, and the children in club homes are especially invited to listen in and to write to Station

Interesting Events At Newton Centre

Mrs. Harold R. Keller will be in charge of a lecture on "Flower Arrangement," sponsored by the Activities committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club, on Tuesday, April 9th, at 2:30 p. m., at the Club House. Choice flowers and most artistic vases will be combined into perfect arrangements of color harmony and beauty of design by Mr. Leson, of Carbone, Inc. Tickets may be procured from Mrs. Keller, C. N. 4495, at 35 cents to members, and 50 cents to guests.

The Membership and Reception committees will hold the last of the series of Bridge and Knitting Teas at the Club House on Wednesday, April 10th, at 2:30 p. m. The village has been divided into sections, and a Tea has been given each month in a different neighborhood to create sociability and interest in the Club for prospective members. All who have not been included in these are invited to come to the Club House on April 10th. They are asked to call Mrs. Carl H. Cummings, C. N. 1365, by April 8th, if they plan to attend.

The American Home committee will sponsor a Visit to the Hood Milk Plant at Charlestown on April 12th, leaving the Club House at 1:15 p. m., and returning about 4:30 p. m. Those who wish to go should apply to Mrs. W. J. Draper, C. N. 2286W, by April 10th.

Juniors To Entertain

ART. Mrs. Herbert Stephens, Art chairman, calls attention of clubwomen to two attractive invitations proffered to the State Art department, thence to all clubwomen interested, during Art Week in Boston which is to be celebrated from the 8th to 13th of April. The first, the Studio of Reynolds, Francis and Rohnstock, of 1 Washington street, Boston, designers and workers in Stained and Leaded Glass, will be open all week from 1 to 4 p. m., to clubwomen and their friends. They will have windows for the Cathedral of St. John the Divine of New York city, on view, among other works of art. The second, Mrs. Katherine Osborne, of 31 St. Stephens street, Boston, who has spent much time traveling and searching for art treasures in many remote places of the Far East, will exhibit her rare collection on Saturday, the 13th. From 10 to 12 a. m. there will be a private view for presidents, Art chairmen and their committees, when Mrs. Osborne will give a Talk on The Manners, Customs, and Art, of Interesting People and Places. From 1 to 4 p. m. the exhibit will be open to clubwomen and their friends.

The next in the worthwhile series of Art Scholarship Lectures being conducted at the Museum of Fine Arts in the interest of establishing and maintaining, through the price of tickets, a Massachusetts State Federation Art Scholarship Fund for talented children of club members, will be held on Wednesday, the 10th, at 10:30 a. m., the subject to be discussed by Mrs. Mary P. Sayward, of the Museum, being the Art of the American Colonial period.

Mrs. Stephens has acknowledged the gift of five dollars from the Art department of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club, of which Mrs. Edward D. Wallace is chairman, toward this State Scholarship Fund. Newton is proud that Mrs. Stephens states that she is thrilled at this contribution which is the first that has been made to the Fund.

CONTEST AWARD. In the Play Writing Contest, which was sponsored by Mrs. Elizabeth West Pigeon, chairman of the department of Education in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and which was conducted in this State under the supervision of Mrs. Edgar Tregoning, chairman of the State Federation Education department, Mrs. Bertha Newman, of the Leominster Fortnightly Club, was judged the winner. The title of her play was "Mary Smith's Job."

The other contestants and the titles of their plays, all dealing with some phase of educational problems, were as follows: "Evening School for Father," Mrs. Burr G. Merriam, Framingham; "Three Hundred Words," Mrs. Rosamond G. Waddell, Winthrop; "How the Game Was Played," Miss Eleanor Lane Peabody, Outlook Club, North Easton; "Reading, Writing, and Romance," Mrs. Beatrice Hadrell, Swampscott Woman's Club; "Bill Passes," Mary Vose Potter, Breakers, Lynn; "Glamorous Hillside," Mrs. Lucile Blanchard Boyd, Bath; "Mrs. Burr G. During 1934 the Company made an increase of business in force of over 4½%, bringing the total to $70,919,626.

The total income from all sources during 1934 amounted to $3,411,482.

During 1934 the Company paid to its policyholders for death claims, cash surrender values and dividends the sum of $1,769,934.

Since its organization the Company has paid to its policyholders the sum of $23,028,975, or $12,016,396, more than the present assets.

The Company's surplus on December 31, 1934, including dividends declared and apportioned for 1935 and unassigned funds, was $640,127.

The Company has declared the same rate of dividends for 1935 on both ordinary and weekly premium policies as prevailed in 1934.

Girl Drops Onto Railroad Tracks From Bridge

Dorothy O'Brian of N'ville Is Injured In Fall

Dorothy O'Brian, 25, of 18 Bridges avenue, Newtonville received a fracture of the left leg and internal injuries when she dropped from the Harvard street bridge at Newtonville on Saturday night shortly before 7:30 and landed on the Boston & Albany railroad tracks 20 feet below. A woman walking across the bridge observed the girl on the tracks, and informed Mrs. Solveig Poppe who resides at 3 Harvard street, next to the bridge. Accompanied by Henry Patenaude, also of 3 Harvard street, Mrs. Poppe climbed down the steep embankment alongside the railroad tracks and removed the groaning young woman from the tracks to a stone wall which runs between the rail and the ditch alongside. An east-bound train from Newtonville to Boston was due in a few minutes. Mr. Patenaude hastened toward the Newtonville depot to warn the train crew.

Police headquarters had been notified and cruising cars hastened to the scene. Patrolman O'Donnell dropped a red flare on the tracks to warn the approaching train, while other policemen carried the injured woman to the street, whence she was removed to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance. The girl had suffered a nervous breakdown and had left her home shortly before she was found on the tracks. Her mother, Mrs. Laura O'Brian, was not aware her daughter had gone out of the house until she was informed by the police of the girl's plight.

Salary of City Engineer To Be Reduced

Mayor Weeks announced on Monday that the successor to City Engineer Morse, who has submitted his resignation after 54 years service with the city, will receive a salary of $4,000, instead of $4,500, the salary Mr. Morse now receives. The lower figure is the amount now received by a number of department heads at City Hall. The Mayor states that the creation of the office of Director of Public Works has taken certain responsibilities off the City Engineer.

Woman Injured In Fall at N'ville

Mrs. Nellie Carney of 9 Pond street, Waltham received a serious injury to her nose when she fell at Newtonville square about 7 o'clock on Sunday night. She was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance. She was hurrying out of the way of an oncoming automobile when she fell.

Serg. Bannon After Autoists Who Break Laws

The activity of Serg. Richard Bannon of the Newton police against autoists who violate automobile laws resulted in several offenders appearing in the Newton court yesterday. Forest Marcy of 1173 Chestnut street, Newton Upper Falls, and Arthur Anderson of Worcester were fined $5 each for not stopping before entering a through way. Henry Hartigan of 367 Woodward st., Waban, and Paul Dolan of 80 Pine Ridge rd., Waban, were fined $10 each for speeding. Harry Nordbeck of 41 Clark st., Newton Center, was fined $5 for driving without having his license in his possession.

In the Newton court last Friday Lawrence Mullaney of 34 North st., Newton Center, was fined $100 for driving an uninsured automobile, and the fine was then suspended. Traffic Officer Hamill testified that he saw Mullaney driving the car on Homer st. with 1934 plates. Mullaney said he was only testing the car.

Weeks Urges Removal of Processing Tax

Sinclair Weeks, Mayor of Newton and prominent war veteran, in an address in Arlington last night, urged the people of New England to declare economic and political warfare at once against the fantastic theories of government, against "laboratory experiments and brain-storms of Utopian-minded groups" of impractical men at Washington, as the sole means of reviving stagnant business and saving from disaster the cotton textile industry of New England. "Ninety thousand workmen are in danger of losing their jobs and 195 mills are threatened with shut-down or curtailment," the Newton Mayor declared, "unless the processing tax, which has in one year taken $31,000,000 out of New England, is removed from cotton textiles, unless the national government stops experimenting with business and abandons itself to its own legitimate duties." The Weeks' "declaration of war" was the feature of a "Republican Round-up" of citizens from Belmont, Lexington and Medford in the Arlington Town Hall.

Send Boy To Reform School

Roscoe Cole, 15, of 163 Hicks st., West Newton, was sentenced to the Shirley Reform School when found guilty in the Newton court last Friday of driving an automobile on which he had placed number plates taken from another car which he was charged with having stolen. Cole was arrested the preceding night by Serg. Bannon and Patrolmen Gaquin and Cummings.

Pastor Installed at Channing Church

Sunday evening at Channing Unitarian Church, Newton, an ordination and installation service was held when Rev. Joseph Barth became the new pastor of the church. Mr. Barth, whose biographical sketch was printed in last week's GRAPHIC, has been a student at Meadville Theological Seminary.

The invocation at the services on Sunday night was given by Rev. Herbert Hitchen of West Newton. The Scripture reading was by Rev. Alfred S. Cole of Tufts College, who has been serving as minister at the church. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Charles E. Park of the First Church in Boston. Henry P. Curtiss, chairman of the church committee, led the installation service. The ordination prayer was given by Rev. Sidney B. Snow and the charge to the minister was made by Rev. Adolph Rossbach. The charge to the congregation was given by Rev. Adelbert L. Hudson, a former pastor of Channing Church. Rev. Louis C. Cornish, president of the American Unitarian Association, extended the right hand of fellowship, and Rev. Newton A. Merritt of the Immanuel Baptist Church gave the welcome in behalf of the Newton churches. The welcome by the congregation was given by Grosvenor Calkins.

Mayor Proposes New City Office

A conference was held at Mayor Weeks' office on Wednesday morning between the Mayor, City Solicitor Bartlett and Dr. Wilson G. Smilie of Waban, the latter a member of the Newton Board of Health. The purpose of the conference was to discuss the changing of the city ordinance relating to the Health Department. The amended ordinance would provide for a Board of Health to consist of three unpaid members and a Health Officer, the latter to receive a salary of $4,000, according to Mayor Weeks' budget recommendation. Dr. Francis G. Curtis, the present chairman of the Board of Health, who will retire on August 1st, receives a salary of $2500.

Canvass Reports $300,000 Repairs

The Newton Chamber of Commerce, which is conducting the Federal Housing Canvass in this city, reports that it has the assurance of over $300,000 worth of repairs and modernization work to be undertaken this spring. As about one-third is direct labor, this means at least $100,000 will go to Newton workmen, according to the estimate of the Chamber of Commerce. Full information regarding loans under the Federal Housing Act, both for modernization, construction of new homes, or refinancing existing mortgages can be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce, 277 Washington street, Newton.

Scout Executive Becomes Chest Executive

"Loaned" By Local Boy Scouts Council

President Maynard Hutchinson of the Newton Community Chest, Inc., announces that Mr. L. A. Bruce, Jr., for the past eight years Scout Executive of Norumbega Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, has been "loaned" on a part-time basis by that organization to the Community Chest, to serve as its Executive Secretary. This step was taken because the experience of Chests in the United States which raise about or more than $100,000.00 have been successful only when there has been an Executive Secretary on the job.

The past three years of the Community Chest have proven to membership agencies and to the community at large that the Chest is very much worth while. Therefore, on recommendation of a Special Committee appointed by the then-President, Mr. Leon B. Rogers, late last year to make a study of the Chest and to make recommendations for procedure and the like, an Executive Secretary was determined upon. This committee made the recommendation to the Directors of the Community Chest at the meeting March 5th, that such an office be created and that Mr. Bruce be named to fill it, subject to the approval of the Scout Executive Board.

President A. Leslie Harwood, Jr., of the Norumbega Council, submitted the Chest's request to the Scout Executive Board at its April 2nd meeting, and the request was approved. While the Scout Executive Board was strongly of the opinion, based upon past experience here, as well as elsewhere in the United States, that the Council could not begin to operate as effectively and efficiently without a full-time Scout Executive, nevertheless, they were equally strong in their opinion that if the move were for the benefit of the Chest, and consequently, its membership agencies and the City as a whole, then it was a temporary sacrifice the Scout Council ought to make.

As a result of this generous move on the part of Norumbega Council, the new Executive Secretary took office April 3rd. Thus, a new Chapter is being written in the history of the Newton Community Chest, Inc., and another major step has been taken towards establishing the Chest permanently in Newton.

Results of the 1934 Drive
As all records have finally been turned in to the Community Chest on the 1934 Drive, the analysis of the campaign shows the following results, for which the Chest, its membership agencies and all Newton are deeply indebted to the Director, Mr. Donald D. McKay, his Committee and staff and all the officers and workers in the last campaign.

Bold Burglar Steals Pants And $145

Shortly after 1 a. m. Wednesday, Mrs. Anthony Antonellis of 8 Clinton st., Nonantum, was awakened by a burglar who had entered the room in which she and her husband were asleep and who was rifling her husband's trousers which were on a chair alongside the bed. She awakened her husband and he jumped out of bed to chase the burglar who fled down the stairs with Antonellis' pants in his possession. The thief made his escape and took with him the pair of trousers in a pocket of which was $145. Apparently the burglar was someone who knew that Antonellis carried considerable money in his trousers pocket, and who was acquainted with the neighborhood and house. The burglar's face was partly concealed by a handkerchief.

New Pastor At Our Lady's Church

Rev. John A. Sheridan, who was appointed irremovable pastor of Our Lady's Church, Newton, on April 14, by Cardinal O'Connell, assumed his duties on Wednesday. Father Sheridan was born in Watertown, Sept. 29, 1865, graduated from Watertown High School and then worked for several years before entering Boston College. He graduated from that institution in 1890, entered St. John's Seminary and was ordained a priest by Archbishop Williams in 1894. He was assigned as curate at St. Thomas Aquinas Church, Jamaica Plain, where he served for 18 years until he was made pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Holbrook in 1913. In February, 1917, he was made pastor of Sacred Heart Church, West Lynn, succeeding Rev. James Gilfeather, the latter for many years a beloved curate at Our Lady's Church, Newton.

REV. JOHN A. SHERIDAN

During the 18 years he was pastor of the West Lynn church, Father Sheridan took an outstanding part in civic and philanthropic activities of Lynn. He served as a member of the executive board of the Greater Lynn Community Fund Association, a member of the executive board of Lynn Chapter of the Red Cross, member of the executive board of the Prevention of Cruelty to Children Society, director of the Lynn Boys' Club, director of the Lynn Council of Boy Scouts. He was a trustee of the Lynn public library, a member of the Board of Directors at Lynn Hospital, a member of the Lynn Chamber of Commerce and of the Lynn Association for the Blind. Father Sheridan was the director of the Catholic Charities Center in Lynn since its institution in 1917, and won high praise for his zeal in this position. He was chaplain of the A. O. H. of Lynn. His departure from that city has caused expressions of regret from prominent persons of all faiths in Lynn.

The LYNN ITEM on April 5th had the following editorial:

LYNN WILL MISS HIM
It is with mixed feelings of gladness and sorrow that Lynn learns of (Continued on Page 3)

Hearings At State House on Local Legislation

A hearing was held at the State House, Boston, yesterday morning before the Committee on Cities on two bills of interest to residents of Newton. House Bill 944 was introduced by Representative Baker at the request of Mayor Weeks and City Solicitor Bartlett. Mr. Bartlett, who was present at the hearing, told the committee that the purpose of his bill is to permit the County of Middlesex to contribute to the cost of building streets in Newton. Mr. Bartlett stated that Newton is perhaps the only place in the county which now has not obtained this right. There was no opposition.

The other bill discussed at the hearing was House Bill 657 which was presented to the Legislature by a group of Newton citizens including former Aldermen Earle, Sprout and Powers and David Greer. This bill seeks to change the city charter so that Newton elections will be held biennially instead of annually, that each Ward shall elect its own Aldermen instead of having two-thirds of the membership of the Board elected as Aldermen-at-Large and that the proposed changes be submitted to the citizens of Newton to be decided on a referendum.

Those who appeared before the Legislative Committee to favor the bill included William E. Earle, Edward H. Powers and David Greer. Mr. Earle outlined the present method of conducting city elections in Newton, told of the very light vote cast at "off-year" elections when there is no Mayorality contest, and criticized the activity of the Republican City Committee in local elections in Newton. Mr. Earle said that more interest would be manifested in elections if the people can select their own candidates. Mr. Powers reiterated the arguments he offered at the public hearing held on this matter before the Newton Board of Aldermen. He stated that although city elections in Newton are supposedly non-partisan, there has been in recent years domination by the Republican City Committee which nullifies the allegedly non-partisan character of the elections. He refuted the accusations which have been made that the bill is a scheme to increase the number of Democrats in the Newton Board of Aldermen, and asserted that Ward Aldermen in the past have displayed as much interest in the affairs of the city as a whole as have aldermen-at-large.

David Greer explained the political and geographical peculiarities of Newton which preclude voters in one village of the city from having the same knowledge of the qualifications of a candidate from another part of Newton, as they would have of some candidate from their own section. He told of the slates arranged by the Republican City Committee, and the campaign post cards mailed to all voters by this committee which virtually assure the election of candidates for aldermen-at-large endorsed, and the large expense which any candidate (Continued on Page 4)

Newton Tax Rate Shows Small Increase

New Rate Will Be $26.80, 20 Cents More Than 1934

Newton's tax rate, lowest of any city in the state, will be increased in 1935 by only twenty cents to a rate of $26.80. This announcement made today by Mayor Sinclair Weeks came as a surprise. Reports had been current that an increase of more than a dollar could be looked for because of the fact that the wage cut of 7½ per cent was restored to city employees this year and some slight raises, the first in six years, were given to City Hall employees as a result of the recently adopted plan of clerical reclassification.

However, administrative savings in nearly all city departments resulted in unexpended balances from 1934 appropriations. These savings were turned back to the city's excess and deficiency account, and the benefit of such municipal economy handed on to the taxpayers.

Thus, Mayor Weeks has again been able to restore the wage cuts in full, get the cooperation of city employees in further economies, and maintain what is still believed to be the lowest tax rate of any city in the state of Massachusetts.

Figures furnished by the Board of Assessors show a loss of $684,200 by revaluation of real estate. However, new buildings are valued at $1,198,250 so that the city's valuation for 1935 will show a net gain of $514,050 over last year.

Comparisons in valuations for 1934 and 1935 as announced by the Assessors were: Total value of real estate, and personal property, 1934, $163,887,200; value 1935, $164,420,550.

Boy Scout Pageant May 17

Protest against the public auction of a real live boy as part of the Boy Scout Silver Jubilee Pageant in Dickinson Stadium on May 17th, was today received by Mayor Sinclair Weeks from John R. Russell of Winchester who declared that such action would only serve as a reminder of the "degrading and damnable custom of slave trading." The Newton Mayor turned the protest over to Lysecom Bruce, Scout Executive of Norumbega Council, with a request for an explanation of the details of the proposed auction. If it is found to be objectionable, it will not be permitted.

The "Boy Auction" is only one of many pageant scenes, the Scout Executive declares, and there isn't the slightest objectionable feature in any part of it.

Mrs. John F. Capron and members of her committee have already sold 1400 tickets to patrons and patronesses in Newton and Wellesley. The Cubs, Scouts and Sea Scouts start on selling general admission tickets this week.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

BASEBALL TEAM WINS 8-0 FROM ALUMNI

The Newton High varsity baseball team opened their season last Saturday morning with an 8-0 shellacking of the alumni. Coach Jones' favorites had a fat fourth inning that put the game out of reach of the grads, as they bunched their hits to score five runs. Gus Castoldi, the least experienced player for the varsity, got a double and a home run in three trips to the bat, reaching first also on an error, and batted in three runs.

Carl Bosworth opened the fourth inning with a home run into left center field. "Bullet" Byrne reached first on Charlie Flagg's error at short, and scored on Bart Marrazzo's three-bagger. Ted Laffie scored Marrazzo with a single, and crossed the plate himself as Gus Castoldi smashed a home run deep into center field. Herick grounded out, Plantidos fled out to center field, but Spilman reached first on an error. Callanan hit safely, but was caught going to third on Pete Morrison's single, and the varsity's five-run inning was over.

Varsity Hitters Come Through

The hitters on whom Coach Jones is relying for the punch in the batting order came through nicely in the short practice game. Bosworth, Bert Marrazzo and the Castoldi brothers, with nine trips to the bat among them, hit for a total of fifteen bases, including two homers, a triple and two doubles. Guido Castoldi, on the mound for four innings, yielded two hits and struck out six men. John Rechel had one strikeout and gave one run in his single inning, and John Quinn had one strikeout and gave no hits in his inning.

The varsity had 23 official trips to bat, made nine hits for a total of 19 bases, and had only one error. The alumni hit safely three times out of 19 times at bat and made not less than seven errors. Charlie Flagg pounded a triple into right field, only to be nabbed at the plate when a scheduled squeeze play failed. Moon Duane and George Taylor got a pair of solid singles, but were marooned on the bases.

Harvard Freshmen Tomorrow

At Cambridge tomorrow, Guido Castoldi is a likely choice as starting pitcher against the Harvard freshmen, who made a very successful southern trip last week, incidentally. Pete Morrison, who was flawless before the bat last Saturday, will no doubt catch, with Bill Spilman at shortstop and Bullet Byrne at first. Gus Castoldi and Carl Bosworth are due for outfield service, and Bert Marrazzo is bound to fit in as catcher, first baseman or outfielder. The other positions are still a little undecided.

The twenty men left on the varsity after the cut of last week are as follows: Catchers—Morrison, Gammons; pitchers — G. Castoldi, Rechel, J. Quinn, Herick, Tornabene, Regan; first basemen—Byrne, B. Marrazzo; second basemen—J. Marrazzo, Plantidos; shortstops—Goodbar, Spilman; third basemen—Callanan, Laffie; outfielders—A. Castoldi, G. Castoldi, Savignano, Bosworth.

Newton Highlights

Golf is with us. George Muir of West Newton and M. I. T. opened the season unofficially several weeks ago by innovating a peculiar golf ball center that returns to its proper shape by means of projecting spines. Last Saturday Roy Buckler of West Newton made a hole-in-one with a No. 3 iron at Weston's 157-yard third hole. Buckler's 78 was the low score of the day at that club.

Brae Burn Country Club has announced an imposing list of tournaments, including the M. G. A. open, on May 23 and 24, the Women's State Championships on in the week of June 7, the State Amateur Championship

PITCHER CHOQUETTE ON OUR LADY'S BALL TEAM

Our Lady's High School may have a strong baseball team before the season gets far along. Cliff Choquette, a southpaw pitcher, who worked under Jeff Jones at Newton High three years ago, and who played for Mt. St. Charles High in Woonsocket, R. I., last year, is Fr. Haley's number one pitcher. Seymour MacLean and Francis Fitzgerald are the other hurlers, and Russell Harney is leading Joe Cronin in the catching department.

Francis "Chicken" Morris, the lad who led the home run hitters last season in the Catholic League, and who ranked high in the basketball scoring last winter, is the only outfielder sure of his place in the batting order. Captain Plus Mullen will be at first base, with Bob Gallagher at second, Fran Shaughnessy at shortstop and Paul O'Brien at third base. Francis and Bill Doherty are after the vacant outfield positions, as are Jim Tobin and Jim Shannon.

BASKETBALL AWARDS TO NEWTON GIRLS

Letter awards for basketball were made at the end of the girls' gym meet last Friday night at the high school. The sophomore and senior teams were victorious over Cambridge Latin and Needham, but lost to Waltham. All three class teams won from Waltham High teams.

Varsity Basketball — Capt. Rejane Harvey, Lillian Mancini, Leslie Wead, Jane Hessel, Joyce Wheeler, Dorothy Gentzel, Roberta Whittaker, Rejane Herlihy and Mary Doyle.

Class Basketball — Sophomores, Capt. Marion Davis, M. McNeill, E. Virginie, E. Currier, E. Vassalotti, H. Goodale, J. Anderson, L. Mancini, C. Stanley, L. Hartwick and B. Campbell; Juniors, Capt. Lillian Steitz, Brown, Harvey, Kittredge, Tobey, Ciccone, Marshall, Hansen, May, Dwyer, Leathe and Stephen; seniors, Capt. Joyce Wheeler, Lillian Mancini, Jane Hessel, Leslie Wead, Louise Goodale, Rejane Harvey, Dorothy Gentzel, Lillian Blythe, Ruth Herlihy and Ruth Whittaker.

In the following week, A qualifying round for the national amateur is set tentatively for August 22.

Alumni Ball Players

That varsity-alumni ball game at the high school field last Saturday was no classic, what with the alumni infielders and outfielders giving poor support to their pitchers, Jib Taylor and Horace Wood. The boys who have been out a year or so never seem able to get together on even terms with a team under regular coaching.

Warren Huston, the boy who made an impression on the St. Louis Cardinals as a high school shortstop under Jeff Jones three years ago, has stepped into the Springfield College infield as a sophomore, and is doing very well. And when Brown and Springfield meet this spring on the diamond, Warren will face a couple of old teammates, Perry Elrod and tall Charlie Butler, regular outfielder and first baseman for the Bruins.

Letter Winners

W. R. "Bill" Jones of Newtonville was awarded a letter for varsity swimming at Wesleyan University, and E. V. Malley, Jr., of West Newton got his numerals with the freshman swimming team. William Fred Schipper won his third varsity hockey letter at University of New Hampshire.

Douglass Chalmers took third in the mile and one quarter run in the first handicap meet of the outdoor season at Technology. Richard Jarrell ran fourth in the half-mile. At Harvard, Milton Green is working on the hurdles with an eye to the I. C. 4-A meet.

Lucille Burnham

A member of the first United States women's touring lacrosse team, which will sail for England late in August, is Lucille Burnham of the Newton High faculty. She is one of five Boston players named on the team last week.

Student leaders in last week's gym meet at the high school were Marjorie Ernst, Dorothy Gentzel, Dorothy Brown and Minnie Spiers for the seniors; Connelian Brown, Dorothy Gardner, Elizabeth Stephen, Elizabeth Tobey and Rosette Warren for the juniors; and Jeanette Kent, Sela Michalek, Janice Pozzani and Geraldine Wisbach for the sophomores. In charge of the program were Barbara Banker, Elizabeth Stephen and Janet Merrill; Jane Tobin, Betty Schaffer and Theodora Klein attended to publicity; Jane Hessel, Barbara Emig and Barbara Collins, the ushers; and Mary Ryan, Jane Dealy, and Sally Roe, the costumed.

Here and There

Five Newton boys were honored with insignia at Brown University last week as the Brown athletic council made known the award winners for five winter sports. Varsity letters for hockey were awarded to Captain Robert B. Chapin, Jr., Norman M. Appleyard and Charles W. Butler, all of Newton Centre, and Jackson H. Skillings of Newtonville. Chapin is a senior, Appleyard and Butler are juniors and Skillings is a sophomore. Alfred W. Dickinson of Newton was awarded numerals for freshman hockey.

Jack Skillings was captain of freshman hockey and tennis last year at Brown, and was elected president of the sophomore council in charge of freshman discipline. Appleyard and Butler are three-sport men, having won letters with varsity football and baseball teams.

Rotary Club

Dr. Richard Cabot, professor emeritus of the Harvard Medical School, gave a most instructive address to the Newton Rotary Club at last Monday's Luncheon meeting. His subject was "The Wisdom of the Body." In a very graphic and lucid way, the professor showed how the remarkable reserve powers of the human body are constantly at work making for health. The physician and surgeon frequently plays only a minor role, and many cures are constantly effected without their aid altogether. So marvelously does nature come to our assistance that we are forced to accept a religious interpretation of the process and say, "Here indeed is God at work." The address with its optimistic note, on a subject usually un congenial to the layman, was a rare treat to the members and guests.

This meeting was held in the dining room of the Andover-Newton Theological Institution in Newton Centre, this being the fourth annual meeting of the Club on the Hill. Dr. Herick, the president of Andover-Newton, was in charge of the program which included some spiritual exercises.

Y. M. C. A.

Roland S. Coombs won the third annual handicap squash racquets tournament at the Newton Y. M. C. A. by defeating Paul McKinnon in the final match 3 to 1. Fifty-eight members participated in this annual affair which has been held during March and April.

The Eliot Congregational Church School Basketball team won the State Sectional Championship held at Newton Y. M. C. A. Saturday, by defeating the Bethany Congregational Church team in the afternoon 50 to 22, and in the evening the First Congregational Church team of Braintree 38 to 25. This Saturday afternoon Eliot will meet with the winners of the other three sections in the state in the finals at Lynn Y. M. C. A. Eliot is represented by Andrew Kasper Jr., Nathan Dolbier, Gordon Bass, Allan Smith, Iver Kohler, Robert Gibson, and Lincoln Merrill.

The Newton Y. M. C. A. Wrestling Team defeated the Quincy "V" team 16 to 14 at Quincy on Friday evening in its last dual meet of the season. Summary of the meet: Newton winners were H. Curran, N. Arsenault, L. LaRoese, and N. Cormier.

Storer, Tomaski and Paglia of Newton lost by decisions while Keefe of Newton lost by a fall to Cadger of Quincy.

Ladies Aid Society Holds Spring Luncheon

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First M. E. Church of Upper Falls held their annual spring luncheon and election of officers on Thursday, April 4, in the Parish Hall.

The members were served at tables tastefully decorated with spring flowers with sprays of sweet peas as favors. At the close of the luncheon, the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Thomas E. Lees; 1st vice president, Mrs. C. A. Chadwick; 2nd vice president, Mrs. O. E. Nutter; 3rd vice president, Mrs. Sculley Cutler; recording secretary, Mrs. William F. Kestle; treasurer, Mrs. Samuel F. Oldfield; auditor, Mrs. Frank Mordio; Morgan Memorial, Mrs. John Temperley; Deaconsess Aid, Mrs. Susie Newcomb, Mrs. C. E. Annual Sixth Form Dance At Fessenden School

On Saturday evening, April 13th at 7:30 o'clock in the Kelley Room at the Fessenden School the Sixth Form will hold its annual dance given each year by the school and Mr. and Mrs. Hart Fessenden. The room will be filled with banners arranged by the Decorating Committee. The following girls are to be present: Margaret Smith, Lily Brown, Mary Blake, Betty Burrows, Mary Wilbur, Dorothy Smith of Keene, N. H., Jane Holbrook, Anne Kidder of Winchester, Elizabeth Best, Harriet Leatherbee, Caroline Cooke, Mary Brown, Mary O'Day, Henrietta Jones, Therese Thomas, Priscilla Wright, Elise Pickhardt, Dorothy Chandler, Jacqueline West and Alicia Clark. After the seventh dance refreshments will be served in the house. Music will be by Lou Haffermehl.

Golden Bell Cleaners Comes To Newton

The Golden Bell Cleaners, Inc., will open a branch store at 338 Walnut st., Newtonville, on Saturday, April 13. This well known firm of cleaners, one of New England's largest service institutions, has been giving satisfaction to an appreciative clientele for the past 25 years. In order to serve Newton residents better it was found advisable to establish a branch store here. A system of deliveries twice a day in the Newtons has been inaugurated.

Newton Girl Scouts Given Silver Tea

The four girl scout troops of Newton had a "get-together" and silver tea for the scout mothers on Monday afternoon, April 8th, at the Newton Y. M. C. A.

The Village chairman, Mrs. James B. Melcher, welcomed the mothers and introduced Miss Caroline Freeman, director. Miss Freeman talked about Camp Mary Day and showed two interesting reels of camp life.

One scout from each troop was appointed to collect the silver contributions after it was announced that the sum realized would be turned over to the "Y." in appreciation of their generosity in allowing the Girl Scouts to hold the regular weekly meetings in the building.

Girls from Troop 29, captained by Mrs. Russell G. Carter and assisted by Mrs. Lindberg, gave a shadow graph accompanied by the reading of a legend about the stars.

Miss Freeman awarded merit badges to several girls in Troop 12.

Captain Margaret Ball led the Good Night Circle with Troop 2 forming a small circle, the other troops surrounding them and the mothers joining the ceremony. Taps were played by Virginia Weston after which tea was served.

Mrs. Arthur Weston and Mrs. Warren Merrill were in charge of the tea assisted by the Troop chairmen and Scouts taking the Hostess Badge work captained by Mrs. John McNeil and Mrs. Warren Merrill. Mrs. Handley and Mrs. Arnold Barker are training the Scouts in their hostess work.

NATHAN FULLER CHAPTER, D. R.

The April meeting of the Nathan Fuller Chapter, D. R., was held on April 9th, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Leonard, Jr., 6 Willard st., Newton. After the salute to the flag led by the vice regent, Mrs. Donald Gibbs, the report of the secretary was read and accepted. The treasurer, Mrs. Leonard read a letter of thanks for our contribution of $10 to the N. E. Home for Little Wanderers and for $10 sent to the Pomroy Home.

A motion was made and seconded to give $150 to the Normbega Council of the Boy Scouts of America to finish the inside of the Legion Cabin, erected by the American Legion of Newton, at the Nobscot Reservation in Sudbury. This will enable the Scouts to use the cabin the year round and would make it available for services on Sunday as well as headquarters for Training Courses and would become the headquarters for the Reservation. A motion was made to donate $10 to Mrs. Leaver for the awards for attendance at the Commencement of the Franklin and Stearns School in connection with her Americanization work.

A motion was made to donate $18 to the Stone Institute. After the meeting was adjourned a social hour followed.

W. C. T. U.

Dr. Marietta Putnam Reid speaking on Medical Temperance at the April meeting of the Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union presented facts from high authorities, scientific, medical and moral to prove that beverage alcohol is inevitably inimical to human welfare. Dr. Reid said: No one can point to a single advantage to the race from the drinking of intoxicating liquors. The leading health clinics say that alcohol is never a tonic or stimulant; that it never cures disease, but is a cause of insanity and many diseases; that it destroys ability to withstand pulmonary ailments such as tuberculosis and pneumonia; that it weakens resistance to all disease; that it paralyzes the white corpuscles and shortens life; that it is a dehydrating protoplasmic poison, a narcotic habit forming drug and in addition develops a consuming thirst which disintegrates and finally bestializes.

Why does one drink anyhow is a natural question when one has learned these facts about the narcotic drug alcohol, which all alcoholic drinks contain.

One answer, of course, is that most old drinkers did not know these facts. Many of the facts have been discovered only within the past generation or two. It takes a long time for such information to uproot the prejudices of generations in favor of alcohol which its deceptive narcotic effects fostered.

Drinking customs are old fashioned customs from past centuries. Modern scientific facts show that these customs do not fit conditions of the present age.

This age requires clear brains, quick and accurate thinking, cool and steady nerves.

Up to date young people realize that it is as behind the times to follow old fashioned drinking customs as it would be to follow unhygienic practices of the period when disease germs and how they are carried was unknown to science.

A most enjoyable part of the program for the afternoon was the singing of the songs a "Prayer Perfect" and "The year is at the Spring" by Mrs. James Gridley accompanied by Mrs. Snider.

Mrs. Sidney Porter and Mrs. P. O. Briggs were hostesses at the usual social gathering at the close of the meeting.

Local Talent Getting Engagements From Auditions

No doubt there is much hidden talent in Newton and the vicinity. These prospects for the radio and screen are being brought to the surface at The Paramount Theatre on Thursday evenings under the personal direction of Mr. Carl Moore of WAAB Studios in Boston.

In the past three weeks very fine entertainment has been given at The Paramount Theatre with these entertainers. Three weeks ago two local boys gave imitations of Ed Winn, Rudy Vallee, Joe Penner, They won the broadcast at the studio the following week and they have been engaged by several theatres since that time. Two weeks ago, four boys from Newtonville won the audition and broadcast last week from the studio. Last week Mr. James Barlison of Newton won the contest. He has a very fine voice and is sure to get an engagement from his work. The contest is open to all over 16 years of age, young ladies and young men who are talented in any way, either singing, playing of any instrument or doing imitations or monologue, are eligible to enter the contest simply by applying to the manager at The Paramount Theatre. This is not to be confused as an amateur night as everything is done to make the contestant at ease while performing and Mr. Moore does everything to make them happy while in the theatre.

A special Shirley Temple resemblance contest will be held at the Paramount Theatre, Newton, Saturday afternoon, April 13th, under the direction of Mr. Bob Mills, who has been conducting the Kiddie Shows for the past few months. Numerous prizes will be given to the children most resembling Shirley Temple who plays the lead in "The Little Colonel," coming to the Paramount Theatre Sunday next. All little girls who resemble Shirley are eligible to join the contest, so send the little ones on Saturday.

Beginning Sunday, Shirley Temple and Lionel Barrymore will be seen in "The Little Colonel," a wonderful picture for the little folks as well as the entire family. This very clever little star steals the show from her senior co-stars. She sings, dances and carries a long, long story through like a veteran. On the same program will be Chic Sales and Mrs. Leslie Carter in "The Rocky Mountain Mystery," a story which makes a good companion picture with "The Little Colonel."

Beginning Thursday, Kay Francis and Warren William will be seen in "Living on Velvet," and Edw. G. Robinson in "The Whole Town's Talking," two very good pictures for family audiences. On Good Friday the theatre will not open until 3 p.m., and on account of it being a holiday, Patriots' Day, the performance will be continuous with matinee prices running until 4 p.m. Five acts of vaudeville will be given Saturday evening with Charles Frank and his orchestra, with the usual Saturday afternoon Kiddie Revue.

Kiwanis Club

At the meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club on Tuesday a talk on "Kiwanis Progress" was given by Everett W. Ireland, District Secretary and Supt. of Schools of Somerville. He spoke highly of the fine results James P. Gallagher has achieved during his three months as Governor of the New England Kiwanis District and of the many interclub meetings which have taken place during this period. There are 1850 Kiwanis Clubs in the United States with a membership of 85,000. Kiwanis was started in Detroit twenty years ago by four men. Its one main object is the Underprivileged Child Fund, which every club boasts of and many thousands of such children are being helped in one way or another throughout the United States. The New England Kiwanis clubs are to erect a bronze plaque on the border line between the United States and Canada. It will be unveiled next June. The meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club next Tuesday will be addressed by Prof. George Owen of the Department of Naval Architecture at M. I. T. His subject will be "The Battle of Jutland."

Japanese Cherry Blossom Festival

This afternoon at the Parish House of Grace Church, Newton, from 3:00 to 9:00 p. m. The young people of Grace Church have been making a study of Japan and Japanese Missions during Lent and this festival is to conclude this study program.

The entrance to the Parish House will represent a boat, which carries you on to Japan. There will be a Japanese Village Street, where articles made in Japan are for sale; two Japanese plays will be presented in the afternoon and again in the evening; an exhibit of Japanese prints has been planned; and there will be a Japanese tea house where tea, "Arare" and "Sembai" will be on sale.

Those who are interested to attend will find it not only attractive but interesting from an informative and instructive point of view.

LUCY JACKSON CHAPTER, D. A. R.

The monthly meeting was held at the Chapter House on Monday, April 8, at 2:30 p. m. The regent, Mrs. E. B. Parker, presided. After the opening exercises conducted by the chaplain, Mrs. Amos R. Wells, reports were given, including those of Mrs. John W. Byers and Miss Louise R. Sherman, who were delegates to the State Conference at the Statler Hotel. Mrs. Byers, secretary of the house committee, told of the gifts to the Chapter House of two sofas, two chairs, a large gilt framed mirror, and a footstool. The donor was Mrs. Kate Henshaw Muller, granddaughter of Dr. Alfred Baur, former rector of St. Mary's Church, and the last occupant of the manse, now the Chapter House. These gifts were from the original furnishings of the house and will be valued possessions. Miss Emily F. Jordan recalled dates of historical interest; that 250 years ago the deed was signed transferring the land of Boston Common from the hands of the Indians to the white men; the beginnings of the Boston Latin School, and the publishing of the first copy of the Boston News Letter. Mrs. Charles W. MacDonough gave a talk on "Chinese Pewter," illustrating her subject with a number of rare pieces. She had acquired 26 teapots from Mrs. George Hall, who had penetrated into all sorts of places in China, from the Thieves market to a Buddhist Monastery, in order to obtain these characteristic specimens of Chinese art. The symbolism of this handicraft suggests romance and refinement of thought. A number of the members loaned pieces of pewter among them Mrs. George L. Davis, who has spent many years in China, Mrs. J. P. Holmes, Mrs. E. H. Tarbell, Mrs. H. E. Johnson, Mrs. A. S. Tucker, and Mrs. E. O. Woodward. Tea was served, Mrs. F. W. Cowell, chairman of hostesses. Mrs. A. S. Tucker and Miss N. J. Pearson presided at the table. The following persons were on the committee: Miss E. H. Freeman, Mrs. G. P. Buell, Miss H. J. Fitz, Mrs. R. C. Kelley, Mrs. E. P. Hatch, Mrs. A. P. Dana, Mrs. A. S. Tucker, Miss E. F. Jordan, Mrs. C. L. Eddy, Mrs. A. S. Pratt, Mrs. G. E. Masters, Mrs. G. R. McDowd, Mrs. F. H. Stewart, Mrs. E. P. Crawe, Miss N. J. Pearson, Mrs. L. M. Nisbet.

Tax Association Discussed By Women Voters

The study group on Taxation of the League of Women Voters at its final meeting considered briefly the matter of a tax association. The per capita tax burden of Newton is, according to a recent editorial in the Springfield Republican, higher than that of any other Massachusetts municipality with the single exception of Boston.

City figures for 1934 give the amount to be raised by the Tax Levy as $4,359,399.52. The population, according to the last census is 65,276. Dividing the amount to be raised by the total population gives 69.8—the amount due from each individual, or for the economic family of five persons, a trifle over $349.00.

Two explanations are possible: (1) Newton is better and therefore more expensively governed than any other city in the State; or (2) Certain economies practiced in other cities have been neglected here. Which of these possibilities is the reality?

Taxpayers associations have been growing up all over the state within the last three years. The first duty of such an association is careful study of town finances. It is estimated that within these three years $20,000,000.00 have been saved to local taxpayers through the practice of suggested economies. In addition through the combined action of their representation at the State House $5,000,000.00 have been saved by prevention of needless appropriations. "This is no boast—it is the conservative estimate of conservative men."

Of the 355 cities and towns in Massachusetts 138, chiefly in the eastern part of the state, have associations while some 60 more are in process of formation. Of the 54 municipalities in Middlesex about 40 have them. Several municipalities have explained that they have such good public officials and such well run government that associations are unnecessary. Some reasons why they are still needed are advanced by the Federation of Taxpayers Associations as follows: If they have good public officials the town owes them support and backing; If good officials do not receive public backing organized minorities whom they may have been opposing alone will get them politically; When too late it may be found that they have been replaced by new officials who owe political debts (usually paid at cost of the taxpayers); An intelligent investigation of a town's affairs going back over ten years will usually disclose many economies that can be made without impairment of necessary efficiency; Alone a town can do nothing to protect itself against the constantly increasing state tax levy.

The Taxpayers Associations are united in a Federation with headquarters in the Park Square Building. Among other duties the Federation assumes the task of keeping constituents informed as to the votes on financial matters cast by their representatives.

Easter Sunrise Services On Seminary Hill

The annual Easter Sunday sunrise service will be held on April 21st at six-thirty at the Andover-Newton Theological School on Seminary Hill, Newton Centre. The speaker will be Professor O. W. Warrington of Waban, a member of the Boston University faculty. All young people and their friends are invited. The service is held each year under the auspices of the Young People's Council of the Norumbega District. Seminary Hill is reached from Newton Centre square by Institution avenue, crossing the railroad bridge and continuing on up the hill. If the weather is not suitable for outdoor services they will be held in the Seminary Chapel, Colby Hall.

Among the causes of death were: pulmonary tuberculosis 2, septicaemia 2, cancer 8, diabetes 2, cerebral hemorrhage 6, heart diseases 13, arteriosclerosis 5, pneumonia 13, accidental fall 1. Communicable diseases reported during March included: scarlet fever 12 cases, measles 11, German measles 370, mumps 2, whooping cough 58, lobar pneumonia 5, pulmonary tuberculosis 2.

McManus Spa Open For The Season

The McManus Spa, located on Route 135 between Natick and Framingham on the right hand side of the road after passing Natick Square, opens for the season the coming week. This popular rendezvous is under the able management of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Chamberlain, of Newtonville, residents of Newton for the past 25 years. Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain will be glad to welcome their many Newton friends this season, and remind them that McManus' famous ice cream is well worth the short ride from Newton any time.

Rev. John A. Sheridan's promotion to a new pastorate in Newton.

Lynn loses a priest and man who has given unselfishly and zealously to the promotion of the best interests of the community.

He is regarded as a perfect pastor and priest, a tried and true friend, possessing rare personal qualities that endear him to all.

His great humanitarianism is well known. For many years he has headed the Lynn Catholic Charity Centre, in itself a noteworthy effort, but carried on by Rev. Father Sheridan in conjunction with his great responsibilities as pastor of the Sacred Heart Church in West Lynn.

His service in behalf of the Community Fund, Red Cross and other organizations, is another index of the man's worth to Lynn. As a library trustee and in other capacities he also served his city.

It is, perhaps, no exaggeration to say that no priest has approached the enviable position enjoyed by him in the eyes of all regardless of denomination.

And while we ponder in sorrow over his departure to new fields conscious of the great loss his absence means to Lynn, yet we feel grateful for His Eminence, William Cardinal O'Connell, for the recognition accorded the priest's splendid record of service to God and mankind.

Lynn will ever remember Father Sheridan for his kindly good deeds and we feel sure that the priest will always cherish in his heart a kind regard for the city he called home for many years.

Good luck and God speed to one of Lynn's favorite sons.

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

Gloria Shareff, a young Boston musician, will play the piano for the school at the Tuesday assembly.

On Friday, Mr. William H. Upham of Boston whose daughter is a member of the Junior class will speak on "House Planning."

Miss Doris Jones of Schenectady, N. Y., will give a recital of piano music on Sunday evening. Miss Jones is a member of the Senior class.

Pupils' Recital at All Newton Music School

The Senior Department of the All Newton Music School held a recital last Friday evening at the Central Congregational Church, Newtonville. The program, well chosen and varied, was given by both branches of the school and opened with a group of interesting numbers by pupils from the intermediate grades in which there were selections for two pianos and a clarinet solo.

The second part of the program represented the more serious work of the senior pupils, presenting solos from the piano, violin and cello departments with a trio number for violin, cello and piano, bringing the recital to a close.

The audience showed its appreciation by hearty applause, enjoying especially the splendid work of Eleanor Lord in the Allegro Appassionata number for cello by St. Saens, and the beautiful Mendelssohn Trio in D Minor so well rendered by the Kovitz Trio with Anna Kovitz, violin, Norma Olson, cello, and Dorothy Kovitz, piano.

Junior Delegates At Red Cross Convention

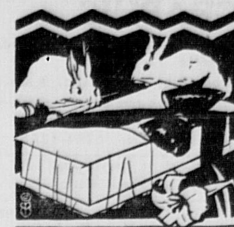

The two Junior delegates to the Annual Convention of the Red Cross, being held from Monday to Thursday of this week at Washington, are Martha Mason and Mildred of the Warren Junior High School. Miss Priscilla Aurelio, also of the Warren School, is chaperoning them. Each year the Newton Chapter sends to this convention either two girls or two boys who are chosen for special interest in Red Cross.

Mrs. Joel M. Barnes, Captain of the Volunteer Motor Corps, is representing that branch of the service at the convention.

W. C. T. U.

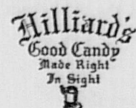

The next meeting of the West Newton W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Dr. N. Louise Baird, 247 Austin street, West Newton, on Monday, April 15 at 8 o'clock. Second Hostess, Miss Abbie M. Rand. It will be "Y. P. B. Night."

Members will please bring donations for the Easter baskets.

THE NEW TAX RATE

The announcement of the 1935 tax rate for Newton showing an increase over last year's rate of but twenty cents is gratifying to Newton taxpayers. It was felt that the restoration of city employees salary reductions the first of the year, increased snow removal costs and other factors might result in an increase of a dollar or more in the rate. The continuation of municipal economies in 1934 resulted in the turning back of funds to the excess and deficiency account which aided materially in keeping the increase low. It is true that several school projects which will probably be handled with PWA funds could not have been undertaken by the city itself without a greater increase. These projects are essential and under existing conditions it seems more desirable that they be carried on with PWA aid. There is little question in the minds of Newton taxpayers but city officials are doing an excellent job in maintaining a tax rate which in all probability will continue to be the lowest of any city in the state.

ANOTHER COMMISSIONER RESIGNS

Commissioner of Correction Arthur Lyman of Westwood tendered his resignation to Governor Curley late last week. Apparently the resignation was offered because the Commissioner would not tolerate political interference with the handling of his department. We have had the opportunity the past few months of official contact with Commissioner Lyman and his department. We believe that Mr. Lyman has been conducting his department with ability, courage and honesty. The introduction of political interference in our penal institutions can work great harm. The attitude of Commissioner Lyman in refusing to be influenced in the conduct of the department is worthy of the admiration of all right-thinking citizens.

MEET SOME INTERESTING GIRLS!

In Books for Older Girls

When you are growing up you will find many an interesting and lovable companion waiting for you in books. Why not read books about girls your own age now or you may never meet them.

May We Introduce!

Amarantha Gay in Amarantha Gay, M. D.—Sterne.

"This is I . . . Amarantha Gay standing on the steps of a railroad train . . . standing in my blue merino dress and alpaca sack with four rosettes and a store-bought hat of straw, standing with all my belongings about me, and a bouquet in my hand, ready to leave the people that care about me and go adventuring a thousand miles and eleven railway changes away."

Lynn Garrow in Mounted Falcon—Hess.

"Bozhena liked this fresh-cheeked Lynn, liked the wide smile which showed her white teeth, and the way she held her head. 'She's a real girl and I think the Czechs will like her.' Bozhena decided as Lynn pulled off her hat to let the breeze blow through her curls. They were to work under Dr. Masaryk in making a survey of the social conditions existing in Prague, the capital of the new republic of Czechoslovakia."

Betty Leicester in Betty Leicester—Jewett.

"I think fifteen is such a funny age," Betty went on; "you seem to just perch there between being a little girl and young lady, and first you think you are one and then you think you are the other. I feel like a bird on a bough, or as if I were living in a railway station, waiting for a train to come in before I could do anything!"

Felita Hernandez in Felita—Kahmann.

"Felita Hernandez sat in the doorway of the one-roomed shack where she had always lived. Her bare legs, browned by the Porto Rico sun, sprawled over the two steps, and her body, in a dirty torn blue dress, slumped against the house."

Raquel Daniels in Raquel of the Ranch Country—Malkus.

"Sunset brought Raquel to the Towers, that fashionable school for girls whose towers overlooked the Hudson. It seemed to burnish the dowdy little figure sitting so stiffly in the sedan. The girls of the Misses Carter's school, watching from the windows as the sedan came to a stop at the entrance, saw a slight figure in a badly fitting suit swing out of the car the moment the doors opened. Her hair was rather dark than fair but it curled in little ringlets and came forward at the sides—so that together with her half-closed eyes it gave her face an effect of mystery which it seemed one could never quite fathom."

Newton People You Should Know

No. 9

GEORGE W. SWEET

By F. F. MEYER

Massachusetts industrial history is conspicuously punctuated with the name of George W. Sweet, President of the Studebaker Sales Co. of Boston, Mass., New England Distributors, with offices at 900 Commonwealth ave. He is also President of the Pierce Arrow Sales Co. of Boston.

As an executive of a prosperous motor car, with which industry he has been associated here for a long period, he has made a fine reputation as a business man and citizen and is considered one of the bright lights in the local commercial world. Industrious, upright and conscientious, he has made a host of friends, and is held high in the general esteem of the people.

Newton Lower Falls

Saturday afternoon little Betty Lowell entertained a party of her little playmates on the occasion of her seventh birthday. The children had a most enjoyable time and a delightful luncheon was served.

ONE THING... AND ANOTHER

Must Keep Interesting

It won't be long now that those who speak at public dinners—annual reunions, testimonial banquets, gatherings for launching some worthy movement, etc.—may lay off until Fall. I should think they'd rather enjoy the prospect but I may be wrong. Possibly there is a satisfaction that never wavers in frequent opportunities to express a new opinion as one wishes and have a new audience each time.

One man of my acquaintance has been addressing public assemblies of all kinds for years. I have often thought that some of the clubs or societies must have heard him several times. Possibly each group has a new generation of members. At any rate, it isn't necessary to go into this, but naturally we wonder about such things.

However, I asked this man how he managed to avoid fatigue on both his part and that of the audience and he replied, "I keep fresh by thinking new thoughts and saying new things." The idea struck me as capital and I repeated it to another well known local orator, who is younger and therefore newer in the field. When I told him I also suggested the tip might be of value. Instead of thanking me he glared and shouted, "Soandso was ribbing you. All the fresh thoughts and new things he has and gives to the people he steals from me and other public speakers. I've watched him operate at many dinners and I know what his system is. No wonder he always has plenty of fresh material."

"I Never Knew That"

The path of learning leads to many surprises. Here's something I stumbled on the other day. Nearly everybody who has an interest, remote or otherwise, in the stage knows that one of the largest social organizations of actors is The Lambs in New York City. Since they have a shepherd and a pasture and frequently hold gambols, I assumed the name was of pastoral origin. All wrong. The whole idea of the club goes back to Charles Lamb, the great essayist, whose devotion to Mary, his invalid sister, was unwavering and inspirational. Charles and Mary Lamb entertained actors and other people of accomplishment, who were always welcome. It was one of these inviting homes and players and others frequently said, "Let's go 'round to the Lambs'." Thus, the name, a symbol for hospitality and good companionship, was adopted over here.

How Do They Do It?

If envy creeps into our hearts we must be wicked. Nevertheless, I observed two examples of skill—entirely different—that have made me wish I possessed such facility. In the first instance I was awed by the swiftness with which a crew loaded a furniture van. It fascinated me and instead of going about my business as I should, I stood rooted to the spot while, with a few words, a husky group brought any quantity of articles from a house and tucked them away inside the yawning covered wagon. When I saw the stuff stacked on the sidewalk and more coming, I felt they would need at least two more trucks. But, no, they put the things away with scientific ease and the one van was sufficient.

outlet to remedy this difficulty. Although residents of Newton have been instructed to place tin cans, glass and earthenware in rubbish containers as combustible matter, it is quite obvious that tin or metal cans don't go up in flames when dumped into an incinerator. Labels and the tin coating are burned off them and any food they contain consumed, thus causing the cans to crumble more rapidly when placed in dumps, and to prevent them from furnishing food to rats and other vermin.

While the incinerator is idle to have this and other alterations made, the Street Department will have an opportunity to construct a paved roadway to the building. It is also planned to have some protective device installed in the incinerator to safeguard the laborers who poke the rubbish into the furnace openings. It is probable that a pipe or cable will be used, and to this will be fastened lifelines which can be buckled onto belts worn by the laborers. Such a safety device would prevent the possibility of the men poking the rubbish into the furnaces and being cremated. Such fatalities have occurred in incinerators in other cities.

Protesting about the non-removal of the winter's accumulation of dirt and debris on our streets, including broken glass, broken links of tire chains and other sharp objects which raise havoc with tires on automobiles, we were informed that the Street Department will shortly have a new street sweeper. The old sweeper is being repaired and the two sweepers will soon be cleaning our streets. This is encouraging. But, the streets will not be kept properly cleaned until sufficient funds are allotted to the Street Department to enable a sufficient number of men to be assigned to this work. The number thus engaged has been greatly reduced. And if the streets are not cleaned before a hot spell of weather arrives, much of the debris now on the highways will be pressed into the softened surfaces.

Governor Curley's action in allowing a well-paying State job to be given to Alonzo Cook will doubtless meet with enthusiastic approval from the rank and file of regular Democrats who supported Mr. Curley at the last election, and who always admired Alonzo because of the broadminded attitude displayed by Mr. Cook when he was State Auditor.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ Scientist, on Sunday, April 14.

The Golden Text is: "Heal me O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved; for thou art my praise" (Jeremiah 17:14).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh. For the Lord shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken" (Proverbs 3:25, 26).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The cause of all so-called disease is mental, a mortal fear, a mistaken belief or conviction of the necessity and power of ill-health; also a fear that Mind is helpless to defend the life of man and incompetent to control it. Without this ignorant human belief, any circumstance is of itself powerless to produce suffering. It is latent belief in disease, as well as the fear of disease, which associates sickness with certain circumstances and causes the two to appear conjoined, even as poetry and music are reproduced in union by human memory" (p. 377).

Charge Cobbler Struck Critic

Daniel Mazzola of 134 Adams St., Nonantum, a shoe repairer, was arraigned in the Newton court on Saturday charged with assault on John Travers of Capital St. His case was continued until April 11. Mazzola was arrested after a complaint had been made by Travers that the shoe repairman had hit him following an argument regarding the manner in which some shoes had been repaired. The shoes, belonging to a friend of Travers, were taken by the latter to Mazzola's shop because allegedly some nails protruded inside the footwear.

Burglary-Arson At W. Newton Sta.

Sunday afternoon at 4:30 Patrolman Joseph Carroll entered the Boston & Albany railroad station at West Newton to find posters on the walls ablaze and a fire in a box containing time tables. Carroll extinguished the fires and upon investigating discovered that several slot machines in the station had been broken open and looted. A furnace shaker, taken from the cellar at the depot was used to smash the slot machines. The police believe the burglary and arson to be the work of boys and expect to make arrests.

Recent Weddings

CHILDS—MOORE

Miss Doris Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence V. Moore of 35 Wesley st., Newton, was married to John Enos Childs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Childs of Worcester, on Saturday evening, April 6th, at the Immanuel Baptist Church, Newton. Rev. Newton A. Merritt, Jr., performed the ceremony.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of bride's crepe and satin with a tulle veil attached to the wedding cap which her grandmother Moore had worn seventy years ago, and carried a bouquet of Easter lilies. Miss Priscilla Howe Moore, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of ice green chiffon. Miss Nancy Clarke of Newton Centre, the flower girl, wore a lavender dress and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of lavender and yellow flowers. Teddy Leonard, of Newton, was the ring bearer.

The best man was William Witter of Millbury, Mass., and the ushers were James Naylor of Concord, William Emery and Howard Bennett, both of Worcester, and Alfred K. Brown of Waban.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. The couple were assisted in receiving by their parents and by the maid of honor and best man. A large number of guests were present at the ceremony. The church was decorated with palms and candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Childs will make their home on Beverly rd., Worcester.

GIERE—SCHOFIELD

Miss Nancy Schofield, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Otto L. Schofield of Wellesley Hills, was married to Dr. Glenn Amund Giere of Washington, D. C., son of Mrs. Nora Giere of Rochester, Minn., on Saturday afternoon, April 6th, at four o'clock in St. Mary's Church, Newton Lower Falls. Rev. Roger Williams Bennett performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with cutaway coat of lace and a short veil of rose point lace. She carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Robert Schofield, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a gown of apple green tulle with a leghorn hat trimmed with peach colored velvet and carried sweet peas. Miss Bette Schofield, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Chadwick and Mrs. Clarence Fischer, sister of the groom. They all wore gowns of peach colored tulle, leghorn hats trimmed with green velvet ribbons and carried white sweet peas. Robert Schofield, brother of the bride, was the best man. The ushers were J. William Harwick, William Blethen, both of Rochester, Minn., and John Snow, Jr., of Halifax, Nova Scotia.

A reception was held in the parish house immediately following the ceremony.

On their return from a wedding trip, Dr. and Mrs. Giere will make their home in Washington, D. C.

STORER—VOSE

Miss Ruth Constance Vose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Edwin Vose of 1010 Centre street, Newton Centre, became the bride of Mr. John Coffin Storer, son of Mrs. John Storer of Newton, on Thursday, April 4, at an attractive wedding which was solemnized in the First Church of Newton, with Dr. Benjamin T. Marshall as the officiating clergyman.

The bride was gowned in deep ivory satin, fashioned with a long train and wore an Alencon lace veil. The bridal bouquet was composed of lilies-of-the-valley, sweet peas and orchids. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Alfred Edwin Vose. Mrs. William Le Roy Young of Waban served as maid of honor and wore a gown of turquoise blue chiffon and taffeta. Miss Jean Frances Howard of Newton, as bridesmaid, was gowned in peach chiffon and taffeta, both carrying bouquets of African daisies and tulle roses.

Horace P. Storer of Providence, R. I. served as his brother's best man. Charles N. Gregg of West Newton, Warner Eustis of Newton, Leonard W. Gifford of Hingham and Earle F.

Bliss of West Newton served as ushers.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held at the Brae Burn Country Club.

The bride is a graduate of the Bradford Junior College and the Katharine Gibbs School in Boston. Mr. Storer is a graduate of Brown University.

After a wedding trip to Bermuda, Mr. and Mrs. Storer will make their home in Newton Centre.

ROGERS—KNIGHT

Miss Lila Edith Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Knight of Torrington, Conn., was married to Eliot Francis Rogers, son of Mrs. Edwin H. Rogers of Hillside ave., West Newton, on Saturday afternoon, April 6, in the Center Congregational Church, Torrington. Rev. G. Homer Lane performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin trimmed with old family rose point lace, and a veil of tulle with cap of rose point. She was attended by Miss May Ackerman of Beverly as maid of honor, who wore a gown of green crepe with matching hat. The bridesmaids, Miss Elizabeth Rogers of West Newton and Miss Florence Clouser of New York, wore yellow gowns and hats and carried Spring flowers.

A. Warren Rogers, brother of the groom, was the best man. The ushers were Alton Knight, brother of the bride, Gordon Cromwell of Mattapoisett, Kenneth Merrill of Boston, and Gordon Paul of Newton.

A reception was held in the parish house following the ceremony.

After May 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will be at home at 31 Coleman rd., Newton Centre.

The bride is a graduate of Smith College, 1931, and the groom of Massachusetts State College and the Harvard School of Landscape Architecture.

Wellesley Playhouse Plans Appealing Vacation Programs

The approach of a school vacation is reflected in the announcement of next week's selection of pictures at the Community Playhouse. Conspicuous among them is "The Little Colonel," recent Shirley Temple picture, which is proving the best liked of this indescribably charming young lady's several successes. An extra day has been added to the engagement of "The Little Colonel" which, presented with Joe E. Brown in "6-Day Bike Rider," will open on Wednesday and continue through the holiday and Saturday.

Another appealing feature on next week's program is "Funny Little Bunch," an indelibly clever Walt Disney Silly Symphony devised especially for Easter. This fascinating short subject has been engaged for the entire week, on Monday and Tuesday for presentation with "West of the Pecos" and "The Winning Ticket," and for the balance of the week on the program featuring "The Little Colonel." Currently showing at the Playhouse is a program which we enthusiastically recommend, the combination of "Good Fairy," starring Margaret Sullivan and Herbert Marshall, and "Grand Old Girl" with May Robson in the leading role. "The Good Fairy" is from the Molnar play, the romantic comedy of Vienna which Helen Hayes did on the stage. The film version, though slightly changed, compares most favorably.

A Wave That Reflects Your Personality and stays permanent!

To lend enchantment and charm to Spring Styles many new modes have been introduced. Our Artists will create a wave that will be distinctively yours. You will be delighted with the rare individuality of your personality wave.

The new hats demand it
The fastidious woman desires it!

BUT—

To insure your permanent wave being really permanent, we cannot stress too strongly the importance of having your hair properly prepared. Your hair may have become lifeless, your scalp sensitive.

Albert's French Pre-Wave Treatment

will correct and recondition the scalp and hair so that the wave is retained permanently. One to three treatments are required—and the cost is inconsequential when compared with the results obtained.

Ask our operators about this new Parisian treatment. You incur no obligation, and they will be enthusiastic in telling you about it.

FUR STORAGE

Cold as the Northwoods in Winter

Clean dry air that preserves the natural oils in the skin, maintaining the rich luster of furs in their prime.

When your furs are received they go to the "cleaning room," where all objectionable matter is removed by skilled fur specialists.

Minor repairs are made before going to the storage vaults. In the autumn your furs are ready, fully revived in luster and beauty. Delivery when you call. Absolute insurance against all kinds of loss. Charge—3% of valuation or that of our appraisers.

Artists Invited To Exhibit

The Art committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club is arranging a most interesting affair in an Exhibition of Paintings by Newton Artists to be opened on the evening of the Spring Concert, April 24th, and continuing through Friday, May 3rd, the hours daily being 2 to 5 p. m. The committee cordially invites any artist living in Newton to exhibit three pictures, with the promise that at least one of these pictures will be hung. In order that the event may feature the talent of artists of the Newtons and awaken appreciation of their accomplishments, as well as give pleasure to the vast number of Newton people who take keen interest in beautiful paintings, it is the hope of not only the committee but of all who know of this All-Newton Art Exhibition that many artists of the city will accept this invitation.

The Club House will be open on Wednesday, April 24th, for the receipt of such paintings, and those who exhibit may call for their contributions on Saturday, May 4th. Mrs. W. Cornell Appleton, telephone Centre Newton 2073, will give any further information desired by exhibitors.

In connection with this event the committee has planned for another of their "Artists' Night" Suppers and Musicals, at the home of Mrs. Allen Hubbard, 51 Montvale road, on Friday, April 26th. Reservations for the supper, at 75 cents each, should be made with Mrs. Stanley P. Lovell, telephone Centre Newton 0777, not later than Wednesday, the 24th.

Luncheon in Honor Of Mrs. Hepburn

"Significant Changes in China" will be the subject for the next International committee Supper Discussion to be held on Monday, April 15th, at 6:45 p. m., at the Newton Centre Woman's Club. Mr. Dickson H. Leavens, who for twenty years was associated with Yale in China, will be the speaker. Supper reservations may be secured by telephoning Mrs. Lucius P. Thayer, West Newton 1415. Club members will be admitted free for the lecture at 7:45. For guests there is a fee of 25 cents.

The Education committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club will offer a lecture on "Birth Control," by Mrs. Thomas N. Hepburn, of Hartford, Connecticut, on Tuesday, April 16th, at 2 p. m., at the Club House. Mrs. Hepburn is the legislative chairman of the National committee on Federal Legislation for Birth Control. Owing to the widespread interest created by the lecture, a Luncheon will be given in honor of Mrs. Hepburn at the Brae Burn Country Club, and the Education committee announces among the distinguished guests who will bring greetings, Mrs. Frederick L. Pigeon, chairman of the General Federation Education committee, Mrs. Edgar Tregning, State chairman of Education, Mrs. Leslie D. Hawbridge, of the Birth Control League of Massachusetts and Mrs. John F. Capron, director of the Twelfth District. Admission to the lecture is 25 cents, to Club members it is free.

Easter Sale and "Magic" Program

Unusual items of food, lovely potted plants, and fascinating Easter basket favors, reasonably priced, will be offered for sale at the Newton Highlands Woman's Club Workshop on Wednesday, April 17th, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. The proceeds of the Sale will be used for the general running expenses of the Workshop.

Mr. Bertram E. Adams, recently president of the Society of American Magicians, will entertain the children of Newton Highlands at the Woman's Club Workshop on Thursday, April 18th, at 10:30 a. m. The Education committee of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club, Mrs. Franklin W. Scott, chairman, is sponsoring this Entertainment.

Eventful Days In Detroit

From the preliminary announcements of plans for June days, from the 4th through the 12th, when the Triennial of the General Federation of Women's Clubs will convene at Detroit, clubwomen who are so fortunate as to be able to attend will have a wealth of good things offered for their entertainment and consideration. It is time to be planning for this trip, and clubwomen will discover on interviewing Mr. Woods, of the Woods Tours, that he has arranged a delightful and most reasonable trip, to add to the alluring features of the Convention itself, after arrival in Detroit. Clubwomen from Massachusetts will leave Boston in late afternoon of June 2nd, and will arrive home on June 16th. This schedule provides eight days for the Convention, a trip to Niagara Falls, a day in Toronto, a day and night sail on Lake Ontario, through the Thousand Islands, and for a night and day in Montreal. The entire cost for lower berth, hotel accommodations and meals, with the exception of those while in Detroit, is $122.00. An additional trip of three days to Quebec and up the Saguenay River, may be taken for the added cost of $42.00. Naturally Massachusetts has a pride in sending a large delegation of clubwomen to this Convention, to give as great an ovation of love and honor to Mrs. Poole as she retires from office, as they gave their Massachusetts former State president when she was elected to the presidency of the General Federation three years ago at Seattle.

or to Mrs. Poole as she retires from office, as they gave their Massachusetts former State president when she was elected to the presidency of the General Federation three years ago at Seattle.

Massachusetts, too, will take pride in the fact that another of her Federation presidents, Mrs. Carl L. Schrader, has originated the impressive and brilliant Pageant, entitled "The Frontiers of These United States," which will be presented on the evening of June 10th. Mrs. Schrader, as chairman of the Program committee for the Triennial, has had a colossal task upon her hands, but with the co-operation of a committee of artistic and talented women, including Mrs. Henry C. Taylor, chairman of the department of Fine Arts, and Mrs. H. S. Godfrey, chairman of the division of Music, this Pageant, descriptive of the "founding" of many qualities of America, as well as the actual founding of settlement, has been arranged in song and "picture" that should be a feature never to be forgotten. Starting with a scene in which Captain John Smith reports to King James and young Prince Charles his discoveries and shows his map of the eastern coast line of the country that was to become these United States, the development by States and frontiers takes up the history of this country. Religion as the Massachusetts Colony, Social life and Cavaliers as the Virginia Colony, the Creole Days of Louisiana Frontier, Trade opened by the New York Frontier. Education recognized as the great force almost immediately upon the settlement of Massachusetts Bay, the Covered Wagon, the Gold Rush Days of California, the Cherokee Strip, give some idea of the strength and color of this portrayal that will be before the audience of that June 10th evening. Appropriate, indeed, is this feature which takes up the keynote of the Convention, as Mrs. Poole has held it for her administration: "These United States".

New England Conference

It is none too early for those who always attend, or any who may plan to attend, this annual presentation of worthwhile reports, to make their reservations for the Annual session of the New England Conference of State Federations of Women's Clubs, to be held at the Providence Biltmore Hotel, Providence, R. I., September 24th, 25th, and 26th, 1935. The audience of that June 10th evening. Appropriate, indeed, is this feature which takes up the keynote of the Convention, as Mrs. Poole has held it for her administration: "These United States".

The Providence Biltmore Hotel is run on the European plan, therefore the rates quoted below are for rooms only. Meals may be obtained in the hotel or at nearby restaurants. Special tickets for the two evening banquets will be arranged and prices will be available at a later date. Mrs. James C. Carmack, 21 Irving avenue, Providence, R. I., the present president of the Rhode Island Federation, has been appointed by its Executive Board as chairman of Arrangements for the 1935 Conference. Any further information may be obtained from her. All single and double rooms have tub baths. Double room rates are for two persons. Single rooms for one person are $3 to $7. Double rooms, for two persons, with double beds, are $5 to $7, and with twin beds, $5.50 to $9. It is advisable to make reservations early, states Mrs. Frederick G. Shaw, chairman of the New England Conference of State Federations of Women's Clubs.

Attention Of Wellesley Alumnae

Clubwomen of Newton who are Wellesley Alumnae or former students may assist greatly in the compilation of the new Directory by reporting facts to the following Newton women in charge of the work.

Mrs. Norman Southworth, of Newtonville, and Miss Virginia Grimes, of Chestnut Hill, are District chairmen of the Directory committee of the Boston Wellesley College Club, of which Mrs. Frank L. Healy, of Wellesley, is General chairman. Those serving on Mrs. Southworth's committee are Miss Minnie Brewer and Miss Frances O'Hallerhan, of Newtonville; Miss Helen J. Mumford, Mrs. William H. Nelson, Mrs. Leonard W. Rowley, Miss Gwendolyn Shannon, Mrs. Charles S. Young, and Mrs. Albert Burman, all of Newton Centre; and Mrs. Robert H. Loomis, Mrs. Morgan S. Hurley, and Miss Ruth Wise, of West Newton. Those working on Miss Grimes' committee are Mrs. Ralph Evans, Mrs. Robert Buck, and Mrs. Haskell Cohn, of Waban; Mrs. Benjamin W. Pepper, Miss Elizabeth M. Wells, and Mrs. Donald Houghton, of Auburndale; Mrs. Henry E. Kingman, of Newton; Mrs. Ferdinand Brigham and Mrs. Richard C. Collins, of Newton Highlands; and Mrs. Ben Ames Williams and Mrs. Frederick Kingsley, of Chestnut Hill.

The committee is checking by personal inquiry the names of the 1863 alumnae and former students in and around Metropolitan Boston, whether or not they are members of the Boston Wellesley College Club. It is hoped that anyone who has not been reached will report the omission to any member of the committee. The directory, which is the first put out by the Club in ten years, will be published in the near future. Members of the Club will receive a free copy, others may have one for a small charge.

Change In Date Of Meeting

The date of the regular monthly meeting of the Executive Board of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs has been changed to Monday, April 15th, at 10 a. m., in the Newton Library, Newton.

OTHER INTERESTING EVENTS

Newton Centre Garden Club

The program for the April meeting of the Newton Centre Garden Club will consist of a lecture by Mrs. Jay Clark, Jr., on "The Little Garden," and of comments on the New York Flower Show. The meeting will be held at the Library on Monday morning, April 15th.

Two of the Club members won prizes at the Boston Show. Mrs. Frederick Rising won first prize for "Annals as a Flower Arrangement in Niches," and Mrs. Austin C. Benton won second prize for "Bulbs," also in niches.

Miss Clara Blattner, of Dana Hall, gave an interesting lecture and demonstration with living material on "Japanese Flower Arrangements" to a class of twenty-five members of the Club on Friday, April 5th.

Waban Woman's Club

The Study Group of International Affairs of the Waban Woman's Club will meet at 9:45 a. m., on Thursday, April 18th, at the home of Mrs. Walter Bauer, 268 Woodward street. The topic for discussion will be "Conflicts of Policy in the Far East."

Auburndale Woman's Club

For the Annual Meeting of the Auburndale Woman's Club on Tuesday, April 16th, the Wellesley Inn has been chosen as the meeting place, and transportation will be furnished for all who apply to Mrs. Strabo V. Claggett, chairman of the Community Service committee, or to other members of that committee. The luncheon will be at one o'clock, and cars will be at the Auburndale Club House until 12:30.

There will be ballot boxes both at the Club House and at the Wellesley Inn. Luncheon tickets at 75 cents each may be purchased from any member of the Hospitality committee, Mrs. Ralph Balch, chairman, or at Keyes Drug Store. No tickets will be available after Friday evening, April 12th.

Newtonville Woman's Club

On Tuesday, April 16th, members of the Executive Board of the Newtonville Woman's Club will be guests of the president, Mrs. Edwin Paddock Crows, at a Luncheon at the Brae Burn Country Club.

The Hospital committee will meet for their regular Sewing Day at the Hospital on April 18th, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Any members of the Club will be welcome.

Reservations for the Luncheon preceding the Annual Meeting on April 23rd must be made by April 20th, and paid for at the latest on April 23rd. Tickets are for sale by members of the Social committee, of which Mrs. James D. Elliott is chairman.

Social Science Club

The Social Science Club will meet in the Parlor of Channing Church on Wednesday, April 17th, at 10 o'clock. Miss Eunice H. Avery will be the speaker of the morning, her subject, "Our Southern Neighbors and Others."

Mrs. Grosvenor Calkins and Mrs. Hugh J. Hince will receive.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Commonwealth of Massachusetts LAND COURT

By virtue and in execution of the Power of Sale contained in a certain mortgage given by W. Mark Noble, Jr. and Merrill C. Nutting, Trustees of the Craigie Realty Trust under a Declaration of Trust dated July 20, 1927, recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 5322, Page 219, said mortgage being dated December 22, 1930, and recorded with said Deeds, Book 5326, Page 44, of which mortgage the undersigned is the present holder, and owner by virtue of an assignment dated January 16, 1935 and recorded with said Deeds, Book 5326, Page 44, and substantially as follows:—

A certain estate situated on the West side of Chestnut Street in the West Newton district of the City of Newton, Massachusetts, consisting of a single frame dwelling house and 171.92 square feet of land more or less and bounded and described as follows:—

Easterly by Curve Street, there measuring eighty and 98/100 (80.98) feet; Southerly by land of Herbert L. Felton, Four Hundred and thirty-two and 2/100 (432.02) feet; Westerly by land of Jaynes, One Hundred Twenty-nine and 89/100 (129.89) feet; and Northerly again by land of Jaynes, One Hundred and thirty-two and 2/100 (432.02) feet; Westerly by Prince Street, Thirty-nine and 98/100 (39.98) feet; Northerly by land of W. Day Jr. High School

The E. R. A. project of plastering and repainting the rooms on the top floor of the building is nearly finished. Those rooms which have already been renovated are in use again, and are much appreciated in their new Spring "dress."

The Ninth Grade is busy with plans for a Spring social and dance to be held in the school auditorium, April 26th, from 3:00 to 5:00 P. M. A general hint has been given to all the future Fred Astaires and Ginger Rogers to limber up their toes and prepare for a good time.

Another interesting number of the Daytonian, the school paper, appeared this last week. The next and final number will appear in June. As a good many members of the present Daytonian staff are ninth graders, and will graduate this year, the Daytonian Club is looking for promising candidates for next year's paper. This year the Daytonian has been a newspaper, where in previous years there has been a magazine of the same name. Now the question is whether the school prefers a magazine or a newspaper. There will soon be a poll to decide the matter.

The Illustrators' Club and the Current Events Club enjoyed a trip to the Art Museum on Thursday, during the regular club period.

Members of the Red Cross Service Club went to the Chelsea Naval Hospital during the club period on Thursday, to deliver candy favors which they had made for the veterans. The girls, previous to this, have taken jars of jelly, and also fancy paper hats which they made, to the veterans' hospitals. As another item in their program of service, the girls are preparing a play to be given for a school assembly.

Weeks Jr. High

At the final meeting of the year on Friday night, April 5, the Parent-Teacher Association elected the following officers for the ensuing year:
President, Mr. Ben Roberts; Vice-President, Mrs. L. L. Blake; Secretary, Mrs. Theron Walker, re-elected; and Treasurer, Mr. Alfred Perrault.

The first half of the evening's program consisted of a concert, given by the school band under the direction of Mr. Parker and Mr. Spaulding.
The band was assisted by Mr. Vincent Marotto, saxophone soloist.

The second part was a pageant of the seasons, directed by Miss Haskins and Miss Prentice. Appropriate readings were given by Martha Stephenson, Jane Ely, Jean Roberts, Phylis Kaplan, and Peter Geisler. Following the readings, most effective tableaux, representative of the four seasons, were presented. The Glee Club, directed by Miss Hanscom, and the Harmonica Club, which is in charge of Miss Andrew, rendered suitable selections during the program.

Theresa Caruso sang a soprano solo.
The auditorium was filled to its capacity, and the audience was most responsive and appreciative.

The very fine performance given by all those who took part.

Cronin Wants No Busses on Dangerous Road

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night, Alderman Cronin called attention to the danger of operating busses of the Mid-dlessex & Boston Company on Rum-ford avenue, West Newton. This street is not accepted, it runs from Lexington and River streets over the swamp territory abutting the Charles River inlet to the Waltham line. Cronin said the street is in such bad condition that there is danger of the busses tipping over into the water. He claimed the bus company has no right to operate busses on the street as it is not specified in the franchise under which the busses are operated. Alderman Tam-pley said that the company operated electric cars over Rumford avenue before shifting to busses. Cronin said the street is a private way and the city cannot repair it. There are several factories along Rumford avenue and a large number of houses in the territory approached by it.

West Newton Man Badly Injured In Car Crash

Peter Cook of 17 Jerome ave., West
Newton, was severely injured about 2:30 Monday morning when the automobile he was driving hit a tree on California st., Newtonville, near Wyoming rd. He was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance and x-rays were taken to determine if he had a skull fracture. After receiving first aid and having been x-rayed, Cook insisted on leaving the hospital against the advice of physicians.

Two Men Badly Injured In Auto Accident

Two men received probable skull fractures on the Worcester turnpike at 2:40 Monday morning when the car in which they were riding crashed into a curb at the Parker street overpass and overturned. The accident was witnessed by Paul Plouffe of South Natick who was in a car following. Newton police upon arriving at the scene found William Gordon, 25, of 19 Garrison street, Boston, lying beside the wrecked car. He was taken to the Newton Hospital where it was thought he had a fracture of the skull. The police, using the floodlight truck of the Fire Department, searched the vicinity for other occupants of the wrecked car. About 6 o'clock Patrolmen Mullen and Murphy found Thomas Healy, 25, of Dorchester, nearby.
Healy said he had wandered into an adjoining field and lost consciousness.
He was also taken to the Newton Hospital to be treated for head injuries.

The car in which Gordon and Healy were riding was later found to have been stolen in Cambridge and Cambridge police will take action against the pair.

Healy had recovered sufficiently on Wednesday to leave the hospital, but a complication arose when his father, who had taken his soiled clothing from the hospital, refused to bring other clothes. Special Officer Feeley of the Newton police had to obtain garments for Healy.

Adverse Report On Bill To Change Newton Elections

The Committee on Cities of the State Legislature presented an adverse report last Friday on the bill which would authorize a referendum on proposals to change the city charter of Newton. The changes proposed included the holding of elections biennially instead of annually, and electing two Ward Aldermen from each Ward instead of one. Conversely, there would be only one Alderman-at-Large from each Ward.

The executive committee of the Newton Center Improvement Association sent a petition to Mayor Weeks asking that city officials take legal steps to compel the removal of the large billboards on Commonwealth ave. at Walnut st., Newtonville. The communication, which was referred to the Board of Aldermen on Monday night, emphasized the fact that a recent ruling of the Supreme Court empowers towns and cities to cause the removal of unsightly billboards.

The billboards in question are opposite City Hall and a couple of years ago the Newtonville Improvement Association sought to have them removed. The town officials of Wellesley recently took action to compel the removal of a number of billboards in that town.

Water Mains To Be Cleaned

The Water Department is planning to start on April 26th a program of main cleaning which will include trunks to be cleaned throughout the city. It is planned to carry on this work as expediently and with as little inconvenience as possible to the public.
During the progress of the work it is to be expected that certain mains will be considerably overtaxed and as a result some inconvenience may be experienced throughout the City. It will be necessary to shut-off the water for several hours in the mains which are to be cleaned, but notice will be given to those affected. It is also to be expected that water supplied through these mains will be dis-colored for some hours after the cleaning process. Complaints as to the condition of the water will be handled as rapidly as possible but the public are requested to withhold complaints for a period of at least twelve hours.

Following is a list of the streets on which the mains are to be cleaned:

Auburn street, from Washington street to Grove street; Grove street; Central street; Woodland road, from Washington street to Central street;
Aspen avenue; Studio road; Vista road; Norwood avenue; Crescent avenue; Watertown street, full length; Walnut street; California street, full length; Crafts street, full length; Adams street; Pearl street; Nevada street; Bridge street; Chapel street; Daly street; Faxon street, Jasset street, Beacon street, from Boston line to Chestnut street.

Aldermen Have Lively Debate on Martin Petition

The Newton Board of Aldermen became badly entangled in a parliamentary mess on Monday night which made an otherwise dull meeting quite interesting. The muddle was occasioned by a recommendation from the Claims and Rules Committee which was on the mimeographed copies of the docket as follows: "Unanimous report, referring back to the Board of Aldermen for a vote on reference to the Committee on Claims and Rules, under the rules and orders of the Board, Petition No. 72339 of Martin Manufacturing Company, for amendment to Zoning Ordinance in Section 559, Paragraph B, line 34, after the word 'stable,' inserting the words 'rectifying and bottling.'"

When President Gordon of the Board presented this recommendation to the Aldermen it was voted on without any discussion and carried by a voice vote of 15 to 1. Gordon explained that the Claims and Rules Committee had discovered, subsequent to ordering hearing on the petition, that a rule of the Aldermen prevents more than one hearing during a year on petitions on any one matter. This rule was passed a couple of years ago to stop petitioners for gasoline stations from presents one petition after another in efforts to wear down opposition. Gordon stated that the vote would bring back before the Board the matter of the Martin Manufacturing Company's petition.

After the Aldermen had voted on referring this petition back, Alderman Lyon asked, "Where do we now stand on the Martin Mfg. Company's petition?" He said that he understood it could not be referred to the Claims and Rules Committee except by a two-thirds vote. City Clerk Grant said only a majority vote is required. President Gordon said, "We will now vote on referring the matter back to the Claims and Rules Committee for consideration." Alderman McKay asked for more information on the matter.

Alderman Lyon said he would vote against referring the petition to the Claims and Rules Committee because a similar petition had already been filed this year and given leave to withdraw. He said if this petition is allowed, bottling and refining at the locus in question will be authorized for all time, because under the Federal law once a rectifying plant is given a permit in a town or city, the permit cannot be revoked. Lyon said that if this petition is granted, there is no good reason why the Aldermen should not grant similar use to any other owners of property in a business

Newton High Leads in Pupils Entering College

Is Second Highest In All U. S.
Cities

"Newton High was rated first of all the public high schools in cities of its size throughout the country in the number of students entering college by the College Entrance Examinations last year," said Principal Paul E. Ellicker. Considering all the cities of the country, only one public high school, the Boston Latin School, entered more students in the College Entrance Examinations last June than the Newton High School. Our school was never rated higher than third of all the cities in the country in former years until this year, when it gained second place among all cities for the first time.

The highest general average of all students registered for the Old Plan or Plan A Examinations was attained by Clarke T. Case '35. His ratings by subjects were:

Subject	Percentage
French Cp. 2	90%
Latin Cp. 3	80%
Math A	90%
Math C	85%
Chemistry	85%
General Average	86%

George R. Collins '35 had the next highest general average of 83.8% and subject ratings—French Cp. 2 85%, Math A 85%, Math C 75%, and Chemistry 90%.

Third in rank was George T. Land
'36 with grades of 80% in History A and French Cp. 2.

Next in order, and their general averages, were Thomas S. Johnson '35 78.7%, Thomas L. Heath '35 77%, Theodore J. Goodman '34 (now at Harvard) 76.3%, Rosalind K. Lewis
'35 76.3%, Richard B. Myrick '34 (now at Harvard) 74%, Edward B. Myrick
'33 75%, and Robert Borovoy '34 73%.

The highest subject rating in the school was obtained by Thomas L.
Heath in Math C with a rating of 95%. This rating placed him in the highest 1% of the 3210 students throughout the country that took this examination.

Sixty-one students in the Plan A Examinations had one or more honor grades.

HARVARD FRESHMEN TIE NEWTON AT BASEBALL

The Harvard Freshman baseball team, fresh from their victorious southern trip, were very lucky to tie a hustling Newton High nine, 4-4, last Monday at Soldiers' Field. The game was called on account of darkness after seven innings had been played. A home run by Guido Castoldi in the fourth inning and a two-run triple by Bill Spilman in the fifth, aided by Harvard errors, put Newton ahead by four runs, but the freshman capitalized on a pair of errors and two bases on balls to tie the score in their fifth inning.

Guido Castoldi Smashes Homer
Bill Spilman, first man to bat for Newton in the fourth inning, grounded out to the third baseman. Guido Castoldi clouted a line drive to right field for a home run. Bullet Byrne drew a base on a two-run triple on a fielder's choice, and got to third on a passed ball by the Harvard catcher. Pete Morrison hit a tremendous drive that landed foul by a single yard. He then hit to the pitcher, Ross, who mishandled the ball, allowing Byrne to score and Morrison to reach first. Gus Castoldi struck out and Red Callanan fled out to center field to end the Newton inning.

Starting in the fifth inning where they left off, the Newtonians gave themselves a 4-0 lead. Ernie Savignano reached first on Roberts' error at shortstop, then advanced on Mike Piantadosi's sacrifice hit. Carl Bosworth got a base on balls. Bill Spilman lifted a three-base hit over the right fielder's head, scoring Savignano and Bosworth.

Errors Aided Harvard
If errors helped Newton to score, they were just as important in aiding the Harvard freshman cause. Red Callanan and Bill Spilman each made one in the fifth, and Guido Castoldi, who had fanned six crimson batters, yielded two bases on balls, the second forcing in the first run for Harvard. John Quinn, who replaced Castoldi on the mound, did well enough until he walked three in a row in the seventh. Quinn was then replaced by Carl Bosworth, who struck out the next two Harvard batters to cut short what appeared to be a game-winning rally.

Guido Castoldi struck out six men and gave four bases on balls in his five innings, while Quinn walked three and struck out two. Pete Morrison had a great day behind the bat, making no less than eleven putouts and one assist. Although they did not play a tight baseball, the Newton team showed great poise in their first regular game, appearing every bit as strong a team as their more seasoned opponents.

Newton Highlights
The Brown University ball team, which beat Northeastern 13-2 last Monday, owes much to Newton High. The patch in the batting order is put there by Norman Appleyard, third baseman, R. Perry Elrod, outfielder, and Charlie Butler, first baseman, who bat third, fourth and fifth.

Appleyard and Elrod scored for Brown to tie the game in the fifth inning, and Butler's two-base hit brought three runs across in the wild seventh. Butler hit two doubles and Appleyard scored three runs.

The Newton High varsity gets one more cut on Monday, when the roster will be limited to twelve regular players. Coach Jeff Jones plans to retain Carl Bosworth and Guido Castoldi as regular pitchers, using the others on the varsity in groups of four, and pitching them with junior teams when they are not working with the varsity.

The 4-4 tie with Harvard Freshmen was a great beginning in spite of errors, and the boys held their own in fast company. Since practice games with Wellesley High and Harvard J. V. have not materialized the next

NEWTON TOURNEY OPENS STATE ARCHERY SEASON

Hoping for a bright and balmy Patriot's Day, the Newton Archers open their 1935 season with their First Quarterly Shoot today at the Newton Center playground. The event is the first of the New England archery season, and is open to all archers. Registration and target assignment takes place at 9:30, and the final event, the award of trophies, occurs at 4 p. m.

The morning shooting begins at 10 o'clock with a Columbia Round for ladies, an American Round for the men, and the first Junior American Round. Mrs. Lyman F. Whitney, Lady Paramount of the Newton Archers, is in charge of the ladies during the morning round. Field Captain Louis C. Smith will have charge of the men's American Round.

Trophies Awarded
The archers adjourn for a bring-your-own picnic lunch at noon, then return to the targets for the afternoon competition. All seniors are eligible for the American Round, starting at 2 p. m. in the Handicap Cup Contest. Juniors will shoot their second round in the afternoon. Field Captain Louis C. Smith will have charge of the afternoon rounds.

Trophies are to be awarded the winners of the day's shooting at four o'clock. The Carnz Clark Cup is given for the best score in the Columbia Round, and the Leigh M. Nisbet Arrow for the best American Round. The Handicap trophies, the Cummings Handicap Cup and the Mariner Junior Handicap Cup are restricted to members, while the Visitors' Handicap Trophy must be awarded to a non-member.

Long Honor Roll
Names famous in archery circles are the sixteen listed in the Honor Roll of the Newton Archers, each of whom has brought honor and distinction to the club by winning one or more National or Eastern Archery Association Championships. No less than fifty titles are shared by these champions: W. Evington Long, George P. Bryant, Dr. Paul W. Cronch, Mrs. D. S. Cummings, Mrs. Edward W. Frentz, Harry B. Richardson, Miss Madeleine L. Taylor, Mrs. Lyman F. Whitney, G. Aldersey Clark, Miss Cynthia M. Wesson, Mrs. Burton P. Gray, Miss Stella M. Ives, Mrs. Louis C. Smith, Homer S. Taylor, Miss Norma Pierce and Donald E. MacKenzie.

Besides this April 19th shoot, opening the Massachusetts archery season, the Newton Archers will stage other quarterly tournaments on June 17, September 2 and October 12 of this year, and the latter date will include the club championships. Other shoots on the Newton club's schedule are those sponsored by archery clubs in Haverhill, Waltham, Swampscott, Worcester, Melrose and Springfield. The State and National associations have their championships July 28-29, the State shoot at Waltham and the Nationals at Los Angeles.

game will probably be the first on the regular schedule, Arlington High at Newtonville next Wednesday. Although people don't know it, the B. A. A. Marathon race, with its long line of plodding runners, is the greatest annual sporting event that Newton sees. It passes through the Garden City all the way from Lower Falls to Lake Street, a distance of about five miles.

Sixty or more thousand people will watch the marathon runners in Newton alone, provided the weather is at all favorable. And the Newton hills, which are not exactly molehills, will seem actual mountains to every patient shuffler who has already gone eighteen miles over the road. They always do.

Warren Huston of Newtonville, a sophomore at Springfield, is a home run for the first score of the game which Springfield won from Arnold 9-3 Tuesday at New Haven. He hit safely three times in four attempts, earned two putouts and five assists at shortstop, figured in a double play, and made one error. George Lamb of Newtonville, former 1000-yard runner for Newton High and Northeastern University, is entered in the Marathon. The Newton Independents, the N. H. S. varsity basketball team in disguise, were knocked off in the third round of the Boys Clubs' tournament last Saturday night in Charlestown. Newtonville M. C., entered in the Junior Division, lost to Beaumont Comets in the third round. Out for spring field hockey at Choate are Marjorie Mintz of Newton Center and Ruth Brooks of West Newton. Orville Forte of Waban is rowing No. 2 in the second four at Tabor Academy.

Agusta Schnabel, girls state mile swim champion while at Newton High four years ago, has resigned as secretary of the women's Olympic finance committee. Bob Estabrook of Auburndale and Donald Fyfe of Waban got varsity basketball letters at Huntington, and M. S. "Bill" Porter and Robert Feely of Newtonville got theirs in track. Bob Van Pattensteiger of Auburndale got a varsity hockey letter at Technology.

A bumper tournament to help in rating candidates for the tennis team at Newton High School has been drawn up by coach of tennis, Walter M. Taylor. A match is being played Friday with Day Junior High, and the first regular varsity match is set for Saturday at Milton Academy.

The listing for the bumper tournament, with the challenger named first in each pairing, is as follows: Porter Jarrell vs. Jack Barry, Lyman Robinson vs. Ronald Cullen, Bob Miner vs. John Elliott, Charlie Parkin vs. Jack Kenney, Bob Brown vs. Tom McCutcheon, George Volpe vs. Tom Peterson, Art Peterson vs. Bill Sauer, Walter Michael vs. Tom Slatery, Gardner Stratton vs. Drew Williams, Burleigh Fernald vs. Roy Merchant, and Dan White vs. Ken Chase.

O. L. WINS CATHOLIC OPENER AT ST. MARY'S

Our Lady's High baseball team won their first Catholic League game Monday, defeating St. Mary's of Waltham 8-7, at Bicycle Park in Waltham. The Newton team scored three in the first inning, two in the fourth, two in the seventh, and one in the eighth. St. Mary's had their eighth run on the bases in the ninth inning in the person of Boice, who was run down while attempting to steal third, making the final out of the game.

Our Lady's was guilty of five infield errors, two by Shaughnessy, two by Gallagher and one by Mullen. Fran Morris doubled for the only extra-base hit made by the winners. Russell Harney stole three bases, Gallagher two and O'Grady one. Our Lady's blended seven hits with ten bases on balls and three errors by St. Charles to make their eighth run.

Our Lady's next opponent is St. Clement's, the game to be played next Tuesday on the St. Clement's field.

Y. M. C. A.
"The Prospectors," a discussion group at the Newton "Y," had a dinner-meeting on Tuesday, April 16th.

Life Saving
With the approach of summer at hand, a good many swimmers are anxious to pass their Senior Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross Life Saving tests. The annual life saving campaign at the Newton Y. M. C. A. gives an excellent opportunity for skilled swimmers to prepare for summer duties in camps at the beaches and to be ready at all times to assist in rescue work caused by water and respiratory accidents.

This campaign will run for five weeks on Monday and Wednesday evenings, starting April 22nd, at 7:30 p. m. Further information regarding this campaign will be gladly given at the Y. M. C. A. or local Red Cross office.

The cost will be 40c for a single period or $3.00 for the entire course, which also includes full privileges with locker at the Y. M. C. A. for three months beginning May 1st. The course will be under the supervision of Mr. V. A. Anderson, Associate Physical Director, assisted by Messrs. Clyde G. Hess, Charles Peterson, Edward Gallagher, W. R. Speirs, Henry McNamara, and Carl A. Eschebach. These men are all Senior Life Saving Examiners who have recently been recertified by Commodore Longfellow of the Red Cross.

Kiwanis Club
Professor George Owen, Naval Architect of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, changed his subject Tuesday noon at the weekly luncheon of the Newton Kiwanis Club, as time did not permit him giving his illustrated lecture on the Battle of Jutland. He talked on sports, both amateur and professional, being the father of Harvard's great athlete, George Owen, Jr. He was an authority on his subject which was a very interesting one. Mr. Owen, being a resident of Newton, was welcomed by a large crowd.

Next Tuesday's meeting will be dispensed with on account of the inter-club meet with Weston-Wayland-Sudbury Club at the Davis Turkey Farm on Monday evening where elaborate preparations have been made for entertainment and a good speaker will be on hand. The ladies of all members of the club will be guests.

West Newton Man Arrested By Waltham Police
Martin P. Cassidy of 223 River st., West Newton, was arrested late Sunday morning by Waltham police. Early that morning an automobile crashed into fences at Grant and School sts., Waltham. The registration numbers on the plates were secured and it is alleged that later a car bearing these plates was found stalled in a muddy road on Prospect Hill. Police watched the car and arrested Cassidy when he came to the mired car before noon. He was arraigned in the Waltham court on Monday and his case continued to April 18.

Urges Greater Interest In Government

"We have sat back for twenty years and not taken an interest in government, and we haven't backed up our public officials," declared Mr. Reginald W. Bird, President of the Massachusetts Federation of Taxpayers Associations, Inc., in his talk to the Newton Rotary Club last Monday. "It has therefore been necessary to organize taxpayers associations in order to make an intelligent investigation of local and state governments. Even where the local town or city government is efficient and economical, the state comes along to see what it can get out of the town or city's savings. There has been an enormous increase in the cost of local government, and it is high time to call a halt. Often officials are hounded into making expenditures against their better judgment by persistent minorities. The taxpayers association can be of great help to stop this."

The terms of membership in these associations are most liberal so that even those who pay only the poll tax can participate. This is as it should be, for as Mr. Bird showed, the man who pays only a poll tax is really taxed on his purchases to about thirty per cent. The taxpayers association tries to educate all. The investigations of the agents of the Massachusetts associations have saved the state millions of dollars the past few years. State federations of taxpayers associations have already been organized in 34 states. Because of sectional issues no national federation has as yet been formed. However, based upon common interests, the states have united into three large units, Rocky Mountain, Central and Eastern.

"Although Newton has always had good government," said Mr. Bird, "it would be advisable to have a similar association here in order to prevent pressure from minorities that may arise. Other well-governed towns have found delay costly."

Guests to the number of ten enjoyed the instructive talk as did the local members. In place of the usual community songs, Lou Haffermehl, a member, played several piano solos to the great pleasure of the audience.

Legion To Present Annual Comedy Next Week

The Tenth Annual Welfare Concert of Newton Post No. 48, American Legion, will be held in the Newton High School Auditorium on Thursday evening, April 25th, and Friday evening, April 26th. This year's entertainment will be in the form of a musical comedy and minstrel show entitled "Hi, Nellie," which was written by Vice Commander Leon H. Mayer. Mr. Mayer has directed three shows in the past few years for Newton Post and is also the author of the theme song of this year's show entitled "Hi, Nellie," and with the assistance of Leon H. Ober, Jr., has this song ready to be sung for the first time at this year's show.

For the past five years a cast of one hundred and fifty members have been rehearsing three evenings each week, and Director Mayer has announced that the show will be ready to produce on the evenings of April 25 and 26, and it is expected that this year's entertainment will be one of the finest musical comedies ever staged in the city of Newton. There are several dancing numbers taking part in the affair and Doris Schroeder has been coaching the various dancing teams which will appear throughout the entire show. Newton Post No. 48, American Legion Orchestra, directed by Ovid F. Avantaggio, will provide the music for the production.

At last year's show every available seat was taken on both nights, and the committee in charge is endeavoring to make this year's affair the most successful show ever staged by the local Post, as these annual shows are the only method used by the Legionnaires to secure funds for Post Welfare Work. The Welfare Committee of Newton Post is headed by Joseph A. Beattie, and all funds derived from these annual shows are used exclusively for welfare work.

The committee in charge of this annual concert is headed by Vice Commander Charles E. Walker as general chairman; Carl Peterson, secretary; Arthur A. Hunt, treasurer; N. Irving Patterson, program; John B. Foley, production; J. Sherman Irving, transportation; John Nolan, tickets; Harry McPhee, theatre; Ovid Avantaggio, music, and Past Commander Harold D. Ames as master of ceremonies on the nights of the show.

DOGS VERSUS THE PEOPLE

The first step of what may mean the repeal of the dog racing laws was taken in the Massachusetts House of Representatives on Wednesday. A bill, repealing such provisions of the so-called pari-mutuel bill enacted last year, and adopted by the people on a referendum in November, was substituted for an adverse committee report on a petition seeking the repeal of the racing laws applying to both horses and dogs. Whether or not the dog repeal bill will successfully pass both branches of the Legislature and become effective is a matter which time alone will tell. There seems little question that sentiment against dog racing has changed considerably, even in those localities where the referendum was approved by considerable majorities. In only two of the forty-eight states is dog racing legally permitted,—in Florida and New Jersey. Do Massachusetts voters know the sport? Outside of the few who have visited Florida for the winter season and a mere handful of others it is within reason to believe that an almost negligible percentage of voters have any knowledge whatever about it. Why did so many voters approve the referendum? Consistent with the times and the popular belief that it would increase state revenues, as well as provide an opportunity for all people, regardless of means, to wager on some form of racing is the answer. Since last November, with public attention focused upon the possibility of licenses being granted in various localities, grave doubt has arisen as to whether or not sentiment would now favor dog racing. We believe that the people of Massachusetts do not want dog racing and that the legislature is heading in the right direction on this most question.

ELECTION LAW CHANGES POSTPONED

The Committee on Cities of the Massachusetts Legislature has reported adversely upon the bills before it seeking to change the election laws of Newton. This was the proper disposition of the proposed bills, as it is clearly indicated that further study should be given the question before any changes are definitely recommended. We trust that the Board of Aldermen will recognize that there is much merit in the elimination of the "off-year" election, that ward line changes are not only desirable but necessary to provide for more equal representation, and that they will approach the problem seriously. Inasmuch as such changes may affect the Board of Aldermen, such a study by a competent committee of citizens and officials interested in the maintenance of good government in Newton seems to be the proper solution.

NEWTON HIGH LEADS

That Newton schools are continuing to lead other public high schools of the country is gratifying to all Newton residents as well as the local school officials. More Newton students entered college last September than from any other city of similar size in the country. And for the first time Newton ranks second of all public schools. In previous years Newton has ranked third but now moves up into second place. The educational facilities offered by Newton schools are a great asset and have attracted many families to the city. Newton can well be proud of the record being made by its students and should guard zealously its school system.

REAL GIRLS WHO DID!

IN BIOGRAPHIES FOR OLDER GIRLS

Eva Le Gallienne in "At 33"—Le Gallienne

"When I went over to Constance Collier to say good-night, she took my face in her hands and said: 'I'm told you want to be an actress?' I flushed scarlet with embarrassment at having the attention drawn to me, but managed to murmur a few words, and then was thrilled to the point of tears when she said: 'You have a good voice for the theatre. I have a feeling you'll be all right.' This was the beginning of a great friendship between us. I was her slave from then on and her worshipped her with all the intensity of my twelve years."

Marie-Jeanne Philipon (Madame Roland) in "A Daughter of the Seine"—Eaton

"To understand clearly how little Marie Philipon became the great Madame Roland of history you must take well into account the books she read between the ages of six and eleven years. Remember that there were few books for children in those days, no children's libraries—indeed only one or two libraries in all of Paris and these were for the use of scholars. But that eager youngster could smell the presence of a book as a cat smells a mouse in its hole."

Approves Auction Of Boy at Scout Pageant

Mayor Sinclair Weeks this week approved the plans of the Newton Boy Scouts to "Auction a Real Live Boy" at the Silver Jubilee Pageant in Dickenson Stadium, Newtonville, on the evening of May 17th. Protest against the auction was made recently by John R. Russell of 32 Harvard st., Winchester, on the grounds that such action at a public pageant would serve as a reminder of "the degrading and damnable custom of slave trading."

Satisfactory explanation of the details of the auction were made to Mayor Weeks today by Lyseom A. Bruce, Jr., Scout Executive of Norumbega Council of Boy Scouts and the Mayor's approval followed. Mr. Bruce also communicated the details to Mr. Russell.

"The auction," according to the explanation of Mr. Bruce, "is the prologue of the Silver Jubilee Scout Pageant which we are giving in this local Boy Scout Council. The scene opens on a big field where the spotlight plays on a boy, dressed in ragged clothes, standing on a big rock. The auctioneer comes in and announces that the boy is for sale. Then from the left stage there come on in turn men representing War, Pleasure and Crime, respectively. Each man tells the 'auctioneer' which the field he represents has to offer and bids so much money for the boy."

"When those three have finished then from the other side of the stage there come in turn Big Business, the Farmer, the Professions, Education, each of whom also makes a bid for the boy in money for their respective fields, telling the advantages they have to offer the boy."

"Last of all, a man in Scout uniform, representing the Boy Scout movement, comes onto the field and he tells what Scouting has to offer the boy. Instead of money he offers the auctioneer 1,000 opportunities for the boy—opportunities for clean living, camping and all of the other activities and features of the program which the Boy Scouts of America offers."

"As a result the boy is turned over to Scouting and trained and that constitutes the climax of the auction and leads him to the next episode of the Pageant."

Object to More Gas Stations

Hearings on three petitions for gasoline stations were held by the Aldermen at the meeting on Monday night. Objections were made against two of the petitions—those of the Newton Co-operative Bank for a station at the southwest corner of Bridge and California streets, Nonantum; and the petition of Anna Delaney for a station at the southeast corner of Walnut and Floral streets, Newton Highlands. J. Edward Theriault of Bridge street opposed the proposed station at Bridge and California streets. He said the neighborhood is a community of small, but attractive homes, and that the co-operative bank can sell the locus in question as a home site. He said there is now a station across the street from the proposed site and another station nearby. He asserted the locus, situated at down grades on two streets, is a traffic hazard.

Arthur Trudeau of 396 California street, owner of abutting property, also registered opposition. A petition of owners of nearby homes was filed in opposition. A Mr. McIntosh, for the bank stated that the bank held a mortgage on the property and could sell it if a filling station permit is granted. The Newton Planning Board has recommended placing the property in a private residence zone as the surrounding territory is nearly all residential.

Homer Brown of Elgin street, Newton Center, favored the granting of the Delaney petition at Newton Highlands. He said Mrs. Delaney has owned the place since 1908, cannot sell the property at any reasonable price for residence, but can sell it profitably to the Sun Oil Company for a filling station. He presented a petition signed by 60 persons, including abutters, favoring the granting of the permit. Mr. Reynolds, speaking for the executive committee of the Newton Highlands Men's Club, opposed the petition on the ground that there are already enough filling stations in that village. Charles Dasey of 344 Lake avenue opposed the petition as a father of small children who must pass the corner in question. He said that many school children have to pass this corner and there are two stations now within a block of the locus. He said it would add to traffic congestion at a bus terminal and would constitute a menace.

No opposition developed against the petition of L. Frank Perkins for a gas station at 76 Needham street, Newton Upper Falls.

Autos Collide At West Newton

Cars driven by Gertrude Wagner of Milton and Thomas McAvay of Chandler st., Boston, collided last Friday afternoon at Commonwealth ave. and Washington st., West Newton. The Wagner girl and Catherine O'Brien of East Milton, who was riding with her, reported they received slight injuries.

seeds, low Turkish divan and chairs, and heaps of soft colored rugs. Pressed to the window-pane stands a little bit of a girl with fair hair falling in bangs right in her eyes. Her nose is flattened against the glass and looks white and cold. That forlorn little girl is myself, a being so mysterious to me now that I am grown up."

Aldermen Hold Lively Hearing

zone. He commented that the opposition to the previous petition of the Martin Manufacturing Company was based on temperance grounds, and that was a good reason for opposing.

Alderman Lyon said there is a far greater reason for opposing the petition because it means the breaking down of the zoning ordinance. He argued that rectifying means distilling and covers not only the making of spirituous liquors, but also petroleum products. He said it would open wide the doors for such industries in Newton. The Ward 3 Alderman said that at the public hearing on the preceding Martin petition about 60 citizens were present, and 50 of these opposed the petition. He asserted that if another hearing is held there will be 500 present to oppose. He stated that the Aldermen should settle the matter right here and save their constituents from coming to city hall time after time on recurring petitions.

Alderman Rason said the original petition from the Martin Mfg. Company had received a fair hearing, was given leave to withdraw and no new phases had been presented. He argued that the great question is to retain the zoning restrictions and keep the character of Newton what it has been in the past. We should not open the back door and allow things to creep in that the zoning ordinance was created to keep out. He said that the interest of all the citizens is greater than the interest of a few. Alderman Grebenstein said that inasmuch as Alderman Holden, chairman of the Claims and Rules Committee, was absent, the matter should be laid on the table until the next meeting.

Alderman Cronin raised a point of order. He said the Board took a vote on the motion printed on the docket which specified that the Martin petition be referred back to the committee on Claims and Rules. Cronin said no motion had been made on the question on which Aldermen Lyon and Rawson had spoken. Alderman Grebenstein moved to lay the matter on the table was then put and carried by a rising vote of 10 to 6. Alderman Cronin then asked President Gordon for a ruling as to the intent of the vote taken by the Board on the motion printed on the docket. Gordon said it was on the question of bringing the Martin petition before the Board of Aldermen again. Alderman Lyon said he understood the petition has only been referred back to the Board and was about to be referred to the Claims and Rules committee.

Alderman Atkins said the vote of the Board had referred the petition to the Claims and Rules Committee and he read the order printed on the docket to prove his contention. He suggested that the vote be reconsidered and asked Gordon to make a ruling as to whether or not the Aldermen had not voted to refer the petition to the committee. Gordon first referred the question to City Clerk Grant and then asked City Solicitor Bartlett for a ruling. Bartlett said he was not in the aldermanic chamber when the motion was put and voted on, but the procedure would have been for the Claims and Rules Committee to have referred the petition back to the Board because it was not properly before the committee. He stated that the duty of the President of the Board is to ask permission of the Board to have the petition referred back to the committee. President Gordon said that by passing Alderman Grebenstein's motion, the matter had been laid on the table. Alderman Cronin said the Board ought to be big enough to act on this matter tonight.

Passing Thought

The word of historians was regarded as unimpeachable until it became a lucrative business among professional writers to declare things were not as represented in text books. There came a deluge of articles declaring among other things that Puritans were actually hypocrites, that leading statesmen of the Revolutionary times were really rogues, that the most venerated men of the cloth in those days were slyly indulging in their "wee nipple"—and so on until no one was spared. We survived it and eventually learned that the muck-rakers were slinging synthetic mud that had been manufactured largely in their own minds.

And yet there are today periods when faith in the great men and women of the ages is not too firm. In these upset times, more's the pity, discouraged people are inclined to listen to slander of the illustrious dead and living. Therefore, on Patriots' Day let us remember not only Paul Revere, Gen. Dawes and others of that famous April nineteenth, but those of the ages who by their valor, their sacrifices and their lives gave us this great country.

Patriots' Day—a day to honor American patriots and American institutions, principles and purposes. A day of appreciation and gratitude, of pride in the United States and memory of its founders.

Danger Ahead!

The whizzing of automobiles up Centre-street hill from Newton to Newton Centre is getting altogether too common, if you ask me. I've noticed them on my Sunday afternoon strolls. A resident tells me it's going on day and night and frequently terrible smashups are barely averted.

Some drivers pay no attention to oral or printed warnings. They might, my friend thinks, slow down if they saw a white line painted on the surface between Franklin street and the summit. This would discourage, in part, that dangerous practice of trying to pass the car ahead. Well, the city cannot afford to station traffic police along the route but it certainly ought to be good for some white paint and a man to apply it. Let's try this before some speed demon kills innocent people.

Too Fond of Eating

An overwhelming appetite for good food, like that for strong drink, is apt to lead to trouble. Nevertheless this is not intended to minimize the horror of alcoholic intemperance by emphasizing the misadventures that may await the glutton. It is merely a story and a true one.

A bachelor friend of mine who lives in the center of Boston has a habit of reading late. One o'clock in the morning may see him absorbed in a detective story or a classic. His choice is wide but he must have the best. The same with food, although he has no regular schedule for meals. One of his favorite combinations is made up of doughnuts and coffee. There is an all-night lunch room near his apartment which at 2 o'clock in the morning offers its customers a fresh batch of delicious doughnuts. Thus there is some compensation in being one of those whose duties or habits keep them out at that hour.

My bachelor friend, in his eccentric system of eating, decided the other morning to be present when the doughnuts were brought from the kitchen. In order to arrange it he had to stay up later than usual. In fact he became sleepy. Still resolute, however, he left his room and made a place for himself at the lunch-room. The doughnuts weren't quite ready so he waited.

The next he remembered his rimless eyeglasses (pince nez to you) had fallen on the marble top of the dining table and smashed into small pieces. Total cost for that appetite, $15 for the eyeglasses, plus the price of the doughnuts and coffee.

Anxious To Learn

Possibly the telephone company has a follow-up system whereby it learns the reaction of subscribers who have read "Between Ourselves," a small pamphlet prepared by the publicity department for the edification of patrons. Without receiving a call I wish to assure the officials that the next time I telephone Australia I shall obey the injunction, "Don't shout." Furthermore, I shall try to remember that "out-of-town telephone rates go down with the sun" and do as much telephoning as I can at the most appropriate hour. I should like to know whether the reduction stands if there has been no sun that day to go down or up. Maybe the next issue of "Between Ourselves" will enlighten me.

Frankness of Youth

The older of the two sons in a family of my acquaintance is 17. He has had a long vacation every Summer, practically all of which was spent in sailing the ocean blue off Martha's Vineyard, the family's summer home. There was talk the other night of his getting something to do this year—any kind of a congenial job where he could earn pocket money for "prep" school next winter. Father told how he had done that very thing and with considerable success, implying that Son might put in an agreeable Summer himself on somebody's payroll.

After the little talk Mother took the boy aside and asked, gently, "Tell me, just what would you like to do this summer?" "I'd rather go back to Edgartown and have a bigger boat," the straightforward lad answered.

Dr. H. M. Field has changed the color of his house by applying a coat of paint.

The watering cart has made its advent in this village and now there isn't so much dust blowing.

On Sunday evening a brown horse and buggy owned by Dr. Cobb of Cambridge was stolen from in front of Whitman's stable on Center street. Officer Emerson recovered the team about an hour afterward near the Brighton line. The thief escaped.

The alarm from Box 16 (Center and Church streets) on Tuesday was given by Mayor Kimball to demonstrate that our Fire Department were prompt in responding to an alarm. Steamer 1 was at the spot 1 minute and 40 seconds after the alarm was given, and the whole department in about 15 minutes. Quick work that, when we remember the long distances some of them had to go.

NEWTONVILLE ITEMS

The resignation of the Rev. F. W. Gunsauls of Central Congregational Church was read at the morning service last Sunday and was a great surprise to most of the people. He leaves to accept a more responsible position at Baltimore at a salary of $8000.

John M. Viles has bought a desirable farm near Farwell and Crafts streets and his father, who is a practical gardener, will take charge of it and raise vegetables for his son's market which is located in Newtonville.

WEST NEWTON ITEMS

The Highway Department has put in force a very strict rule prohibiting smoking and conversation by employees during working hours.

The High School Battalion has removed their guns and equipment from City Hall, marching down Washington street on Wednesday to the armory at Newton, and making a fine military appearance.

To Foreclose Cousens Fund Mortgages For Householders

The Aldermen at their meeting on Monday night voted to authorize the trustees of the Cousens Fund to foreclose mortgages on two properties, one on Gay st., Newtonville, the other on East Boulevard rd., Newton Centre. When this request from the trustees was ordered to a vote, Alderman Temperley asked for further information. He said he did not want to vote on something he knew nothing about. He commented that the other Aldermen might do this if they saw fit, but he would refuse to vote. President Gordon of the Board could only inform Temperley of the names of the streets where the houses on which the mortgages were placed are located. He did not know how much had been loaned on the properties, but said the City Clerk would get this information for the Aldermen before a vote was taken. It developed that $5000 had been loaned on one property and $5500 on the other.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Doctrine of Atonement" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 21. The Golden Text is: "Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation" (Hebrews 9:28).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. . . . For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye" (Ezekiel 18:30, 32).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Every pang of repentance and suffering, every effort for reform, every good thought and deed will help us to understand Jesus' atonement for sin and aid its efficacy. . . . Wisdom and Love may require many sacrifices of self to save us from sin. One sacrifice, however great, is insufficient to pay the debt of sin. The atonement requires constant self-improvement on the sinner's part" (pp. 19, 23).

Rev. Edward Payson Drew, D.D., of 313 Highland ave., West Newton, died on April 16, following a brief illness. He was born in Cabot, Vermont, 68 years ago, the son of Rev. Stephen F. Drew of Lane Theological Seminary. He graduated from Yale in 1891 and during the following five years studied at Berlin and Jena Universities, Washington University in St. Louis and Chicago Theological Seminary. He held pastorates in Elmhurst, Illinois, Keene, New Hampshire, and Roxbury, and from 1906 to 1918 was pastor of First Church, Worcester. In 1916 he had a leave of absence and served as professor of English at Tsing Hua College, Peking, China. He served as interim pastor for a year at Packet Street Church, Ipswich, England, and then became pastor of the Auburndale Congregational Church where he remained until 1926. Since then he was a professor at the Gordon College of Theology and Missions.

Dr. Drew is survived by his widow, Mrs. Julia (Nestle) Drew, and a sister, Miss Mary Drew of Tyron, N. C. His funeral service was held today at the Second Church, West Newton. Rev. Nathan R. Wood, president of Gordon College, and Rev. Boynton Merrill officiated.

MRS. HAZEL L. HARRIS

(From The Barnstable Patriot)

This village has seldom been so saddened as it was on April 9 at the death of Hazel L. Harris, wife of Edward L. Harris. Mrs. Harris died at the Cape Cod hospital after a week's illness. She underwent a serious operation on April 3 and for a few days showed some improvement but complications arose and all that modern medical science could do, was of no avail.

Mrs. Harris, who was 42 years old, was born in Newton, June 9, 1893, the daughter of George and Nellie Snyder. She resided in Newton until her marriage to Mr. Harris in 1918, when she came to this village. With Mrs. Harris her home and the welfare of her family came first, but she found time to take an active and helpful interest in the civic and social life of the community. She was a member of the Women's Club and the Unitarian Guild Alliance. Her sterling character won her many friends who are deeply grieved at her death. The entire community has only the deepest sympathy for the bereaved family. Mrs. Harris is survived by her husband, daughter Jane and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Snyder.

Young People to Present
"The Restless Jewel"

"The Restless Jewel" by Adam Appleby (Carl Pierce) is the play chosen by the Older Young People of The First Church of Newton for their second annual production. This time it's a mystery comedy with plenty of laughs and plenty of thrills. The play is to be presented at 8:15 p. m. on Friday, April 26th, at The Unitarian Parish House, Newton Center.

It is the story of a very slippery $500,000 gem which threatens to disrupt the marital bliss of a newly-wed couple. The young people are doing an admirable piece of acting which will prolong suspense and make the play exciting as well as amusing.

The play is under the direction of Mrs. Robert S. Allingham, and the cast includes the following: Claire Burnham, W. Leslie Doten, Edith Duthie, Margaret Fairchild, Dorothy Giles, Esther Newell, Robert Polhemus, Katherine Randall, Elizabeth Giles Smith, Robert Schontag, and Theodore Wilkinson.

50 Percent of

Miss Underhill is a member of the class of 1936 of Wellesley College. Mr. Curtis was graduated from Princeton College in the class of 1932 and is a member of the class of 1935 at the Harvard Law School. The date of the wedding has not been set, but their future home will be in Boston.

Professor and Mrs. Paul J. Sachs of "Shady Hill" Cambridge, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marjorie Sachs, to Mr. Carl Emil Pickhardt, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Pickhardt of 281 Otis street, West Newton. Miss Sachs, a graduate of the Winsor School, made her debut in the 1927-1928 season and is a member of the Junior League. Mr. Pickhardt prepared for college at Exeter and graduated from Harvard in 1931. Since graduation he has been studying Art and has just been awarded by Harvard the Bacon Travelling Fellowship for study in Europe. The wedding is to be held in June.

Nursing Association To Hold Diphtheria Immunizing Clinics

The yearly diphtheria immunization clinics conducted each spring by the Newton District Nursing Association, in co-operation with the Board of Health, will begin April 23, 1935 and continue through May 10, 1935.

All babies and young children who have not received this protection may attend.

The schedule of location, date and time of clinics is given below:

West Newton Library, Chestnut Street, West Newton
April 23, 1935—3:00 P. M.
April 30, 1935—3:00 P. M.
May 7, 1935—3:00 P. M.

Twombly House, 348 Elliot Street, Newton Upper Falls
April 24, 1935—2:30 P. M.
May 1, 1935—2:30 P. M.
May 8, 1935—2:30 P. M.

Stearns School, Jassett Street, Nonantum
April 25, 1935—2:30 P. M.
May 2, 1935—2:30 P. M.
May 9, 1935—2:30 P. M.

Bowen School, Langley Road, Newton Centre
April 26, 1935—2:30 P. M.
May 3, 1935—2:30 P. M.
May 10, 1935—2:30 P. M.

The value of immunization against diphtheria is now a matter of history and it is hoped that in the near future this disease will absolutely disappear.

As yet it is necessary for the child to receive three doses for complete immunization and the co-operation of parents in this respect is anticipated.

Newton Ladies Interested In Benefit Bridge

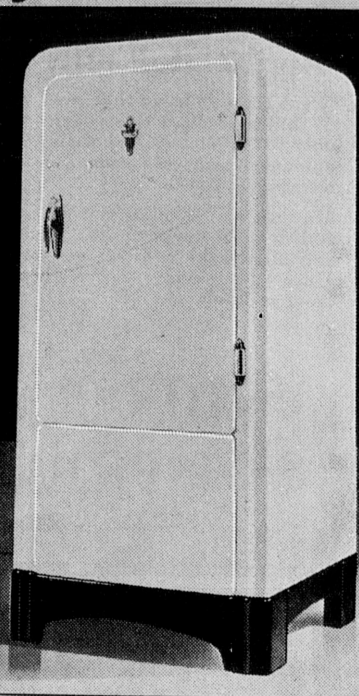

A number of Newton women are interested in the novel "bruncheon bridge" and fashion show to be given Tuesday, April 30, from 11 to 4 p. m. at the Brae Burn Country Club here. Mrs. Richard H. Norton, Jr., Mrs. Cecil Clark, Mrs. Louis J. Hunter, and Mrs. Rudolph Jacoby, of Newton Centre, and Mrs. David W. Wells of West Newton have purchased one or more tables for their guests. The program is to benefit the Aid Association of the Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals which provides most of the garments and surgical dressings used.

"Bruncheon" or the mid-morning refreshment to be served with the parade of new fashions for young women, matrons and children, will consist of coffee, doughnuts, cinnamon toast, sandwiches and toast and marmalade. Tickets are one dollar and may be secured from Mrs. John P. Sutherland, 295 Commonwealth Avenue, Ken. 1609.

WOMEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES

Spring Concert And Dramatics

The Club Chorus of the Newton Centre Woman's Club will hold their Spring Concert on Wednesday, April 24th, at 8 p. m., at the Club House, 24th St. Madame Appoline Blair has arranged a delightful evening of music with Marie Murray of radio fame as vocal soloist, and Mr. Haig Carapetian as instrumental soloist. The Chorus will give several numbers including "Pan," in which Mrs. Marian Merrill will sing a solo with a flute obligato.

There will be a Dramatic Afternoon at the monthly meeting of the Newton Centre Woman's Club on April 26th, at 1:30 p. m. After the social hour and short business meeting the Club Chorus will sing, with Mrs. Edward A. Estover as violinist. The Dramatics committee will then present a one-act play "It's a Woman's Privilege," written by Mahle Conklin Allyn, and coached by the chairman, Mrs. Donald E. Walsh. Club members in the cast will be: Catherine Alvord, Persis Green, Jessie L. Hardy, Helen Noetzel, Marion P. Waterman, Alice B. Andrews, and Mrs. Harold R. Keller.

Henry F. Long Will Be Speaker

The Honorable Henry F. Long, Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation for Massachusetts, will speak on "Taxation" at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House on Tuesday evening, April 23rd, at 8 p. m. This timely topic of appeal to all citizens will be presented by one pre-eminently fitted by his position and experience to explain its various phases and contemplated changes, therefore Newton residents will be glad to know that they are invited to attend this meeting.

It is given under the auspices of the Legislative committees of the Newton Centre Woman's Club and of the Newton Branch of the Boston League of Women Voters, of both of which committees Mrs. Walter Hartstone, of Newton Centre, is chairman.

Not the least valuable feature of this program is the opportunity that will be afforded for questions from the audience, which Mr. Long takes keen pleasure in meeting and answering adequately.

Annual Meetings

Auburndale Woman's Club

The Auburndale Woman's Club closed its year on Tuesday, April 16th, with a Luncheon and business meeting at the Wellesley Inn.

A short program, which included a group of four songs by members of the Auburndale Woman's Club Chorus, and xylophone solos and piano solos by Miss Mildred Beasley, was offered by Mrs. John F. Heibek, Program chairman for the past year, who was reelected for the coming year to the same office.

Mrs. Ernest F. Drew, retiring president of the Club, conducted the business, which included reports from officers and chairmen of committees, and closed with her own report in which she expressed her deep appreciation for the privileges which she had enjoyed while in office. She then presented the incoming president, Mrs. Edward B. Gray, who adjourned the session.

Other officers elected were Mrs. James Dunlop, first vice-president; Mrs. Herbert Farrier, second vice-president; Mrs. Joseph Appelt, re-elected as recording secretary; Mrs. Frederick Briscoe, corresponding secretary; Miss Anne Bunker re-elected as treasurer; Mrs. George Follett and Mrs. John Heibek, Directors to serve for three years; and Mrs. Joseph McCarron, Mrs. William P. De Witt and Mrs. Ernest Drew for Nominating committee.

A pleasant feature of the afternoon was the presentation by Mrs. Ray Lamb, chairman of the Art committee, of a painting "Morning" by Henry Orne Rider, an Auburndale artist.

The Luncheon was planned by the Hospitality committee, Mrs. Ralph Balch, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ashley Wright, and transportation was furnished by members of the Community Service committee, Mrs. Strabo Claggett, chairman, assisted by her vice chairman, Mrs. Henry Craig Jones.

Waban Woman's Club

The Waban Woman's Club will hold its Annual Meeting at the Neighborhood Club House, on Monday afternoon, April 22nd. Dessert will be served at 1:30 o'clock during a musical program.

Annual reports will be given, to be followed by an entertainment provided by Gil Hamlin and the Taylor Sisters on the Good Ship "Lollipop."

Mrs. Howard A. Haney and her committee will be in charge of the Social hour.

Newton Highlands Woman's Club

On Tuesday, April 23rd, the Newton Highlands Woman's Club will hold its Annual Meeting in the Congregational Parish House. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock, with election of officers and reports of committees at 2 p. m., followed by a Home Talent program arranged by the Dramatics committee, Mrs. Preble W. Blake, chairman.

Elliott, chairman of the Social committee, announces that all reservations must be made by the 20th and paid for by the 23rd. A business meeting with election of officers and directors will follow, after which the afternoon will be in charge of the Music and Drama chairmen.

Mrs. Ernest L. Nichols will present the Glee Club which will be directed by Mr. William Ellis Weston. Mrs. Roger Wheeler has arranged for a short play, "Hop of My Thumb," to be enacted by students of the Bishop-Lee School, of Boston.

The last meeting for this season of the Literature Class will be held on April 29th, not on the date listed in the Year Book.

The grounds in front of the Club House have been improved recently by the planting of evergreen trees and shrubs, under the direction of Mrs. Henry E. Johnson, chairman of Conservation.

West Newton Community Service Club

The Community Service Club of West Newton will hold its Annual Meeting at the Second Church on Wednesday, April 24th. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock and will be followed at 2 o'clock by the business meeting.

Harriette Patey Long, a graduate of Mt. Holyoke and of the Cambridge School of Domestic Architecture and Landscape Architecture, will give an illustrated talk on "Gardens of New England and Old Spain."

The Club Chorus will sing. Reservations for the Luncheon, which will be in charge of Mrs. C. H. Lippincott, should be mailed at latest on Saturday, April 20th.

It is hoped that those who cannot be present at the Luncheon will attend the business meeting and the Garden Talk.

Social Science Club

The Annual Meeting of the Social Science Club will be held at the Brae Burn Country Club on Wednesday morning, April 24th, at 10:45 o'clock. The president, Mrs. J. Porter Russell, will receive with the two outgoing secretaries, Mrs. Carlos T. Pierce and Mrs. Robert T. Waller.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock.

Newton Community Club

Channing Church Parlor will be the place of meeting for the Annual Meeting of the Newton Community Club on Thursday, April 25th. The business meeting, with election of officers, and annual reports of officers and of chairmen of standing committees, will be held at 11 a. m. This meeting will be followed by the Luncheon at 12:30 o'clock.

The entertainment for the afternoon will be given by Adele Neff, Mimi de la Vie, in an entirely new program. She will be assisted by Mr. Gunner Winkler, Violoncellist. Miss Neff, a member of the Newton Community Club, has given several delightful programs in Newton. She is considered an outstanding artist in her chosen field. Mr. Winkler studied with the celebrated Rudolph Natel.

West Newton Women's Educational Club

The Annual Meeting of the West

Newton Women's Educational Club will be held on Friday, April 26th, at 12:30 p. m., at the Brae Burn Country Club. The guests of honor at this last meeting will be Mrs. John F. Capron, Twelfth District director; Mrs. Charles C. Willson, president of the Newton Federation; and Miss Doris Coan, the new president of the Juniors.

Mrs. Margaret Lamprell Burren, of Newton Highlands, will furnish the entertainment during the afternoon. Mrs. Burren is a well-known reader, and is especially known to radio audiences, having taken part in many radio programs.

Mrs. Louise Filene is chairman of the Annual Meeting and is being assisted by the following committee: Mrs. Charles A. Durant, Mrs. Charles E. Gibson, Mrs. Henry F. Keating, Mrs. George H. Jackson, Mrs. Gilbert R. Jones, Mrs. Francis H. McCrudden, Mrs. Joseph A. McDonald, Mrs. A. W. Phillips, and Mrs. Carl Thomas.

Tickets for the Luncheon may be obtained not later than April 23rd from Mrs. Jackson or from Mrs. McCrudden.

West Newton Junior Women's Educational Club

The last meeting of the West Newton Junior Women's Educational Club was held at the home of Ruth Fulton, on Hillside avenue, West Newton. Here it was decided that the Club would accept the invitation of the Newton Centre Junior Women's Club. The Club sent four representatives to this Newton Centre meeting, and there a report of the activities of the past year was given by Doris Coan, the secretary.

It was also decided that the Nominating committee would select as officers for the next year the following members: President, Doris Coan; secretary, Beatrice Olen; treasurer, Kay Harrington; and vice-president, Carolyn Hayden.

The Club chose the Wellesley Inn as the place to hold the Annual Banquet.

The Club feels honored to have had as guest speakers during the Club year, Mrs. John F. Capron, Twelfth District director, and Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, president of the Senior Women's Club. At the April 12th meeting of the "Mother" Club the Juniors helped to serve in the Tea Room.

Boston City Federation

Newton clubwomen affiliated with the Boston City Federation will find much of interest in their plans for the Annual Luncheon and election of officers at the Vendome at 12:30 o'clock on Friday, April 26th. His Excellency, the Honorable James M. Curley and Miss Mary Curley are to be guests.

Judge Felix Forte, whose subject will be "Is there a Melting Pot?" and Miss Katherine Vose Parker in "Glimpses of a Legislative Session as a Woman Sees It," will speak. Mr. Edward J. Bleau, Baritone, and Master Frankie Zecchino, the "Boy Violinist," accompanied by Mr. Howard Slayman, will entertain.

Guests from the Massachusetts State Federation will be Mrs. Thomas J. Walker, president; Miss Mary D. Clare, Sixth District director, and Mrs. Moses H. Gulesian, chairman of the Music division; as well as past presidents of the Boston City Federation. Mrs. Robert J. Culbert, the president, will preside.

Other Interesting Events

West Newton Women's Educational Club

The Travel Class of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will meet at the home Mrs. B. Howard Lester, 205 Mt. Vernon street, West Newton, on Monday, April 22nd. Mrs. John S. Franklin will be the assisting hostess. "Newfoundland" will be the subject of the talk by Mrs. Everett L. Upham, and Mrs. Raymond O. Littlefield will read a paper on "Cape Breton." This is the last of the series of very successful meetings of this Class for this year, during which it has been studying Western Lands and Canada, under the capable leadership of Mrs. George D. Thomas.

On Monday, June 3rd, the Class has planned its Annual Outing which will be held at the Toll House, Whitman, followed by an excursion to Brant Rock.

The members of the West Newton Women's Educational Club enjoyed a most delightful afternoon on the anniversary of the Club's fifty-fifth birthday, Friday, April 12th. On this day tribute was paid to the members of the Club who had belonged for twenty years or more. Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, president, addressed these "old members," of whom more than twenty were present, in a very gracious manner, congratulating them on their length of service and their unflagging interest and enthusiasm in the Club and its activities. Among the members who had belonged to the Club for many years were Mrs. George Phillips, who joined the Club fifty-three years ago, and Mrs. Samuel Darling, who has been a member for forty-eight years. Both of these ladies were present at this fifty-fifth birthday celebration.

The president also extended a welcome to the guest of honor, Miss Emma D. Coolidge, who spoke a few words of acknowledgment.

The entertainer for the afternoon was Miss Alta Lena Nicholson, who was assisted at the piano by Miss Margery Shepard. Miss Nicholson is an unusually versatile artist. She plays the saxophone, the cello, and the piano; she sings very pleasingly, and is a clever character impersonator.

CITY OF NEWTON

CITY CLERK'S OFFICE

WHEREAS, Petitions have been filed with the Board of Aldermen of the City of Newton as defined in list attached hereto for the modification of District Boundary Lines as established by "Zoning Ordinance, Chapter XXII, as amended," and
WHEREAS, Said Board of Aldermen intend to grant said petitions, it is therefore ORDERED, That a hearing be had thereon and that Wednesday, the 15th day of May, 1935, at 7:45 o'clock in the evening, at the City Hall in said City of Newton, before the Committee on Claims and Rules of the Board of Aldermen, be and the same is hereby assigned as the time and place for hearing all parties interested therein. It is further ORDERED, That three weeks previous to said date of hearing, due notice of said intention and of said hearing be given to the owners of real estate directly affected by the change, real estate opposite to and abutting on such property and all the real estate, which in its opinion may be injurious, if affected thereby, and that notice of the proposed change; and that further notice be given by publication in the Newton Graphic on April 19th, 1935, under the provisions of Chapter 269 of the Acts of the General Court of 1933.

List of Petitions accompanying Order of Hearing for Modification of District Boundary Lines shown below: 72408 Daniel J. Lynch, S. J., et al., changing real estate from General Residence to Private Residence District, on Commonwealth Avenue, Ward 6, north side, starting from the business district at Lake Street and continuing westward to the private residence district, for a distance of 150 feet from Commonwealth Avenue.

Attest:
FRANK M. GRANT, City Clerk.
Notice is hereby given by the Planning Board that it will hold a public hearing on the proposed amendment to the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newton described in the foregoing notice and at the same time and place, under the provisions of Chapter 269 of the Acts of the General Court of 1933.

Attest:
WILLIAM P. MORSE, Clerk, Planning Board.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals for the collection, removal, and disposal of house offal, garbage and like waste material in Newton, Massachusetts, will be received at the office of the Street Commissioner, City Hall, Newton Centre, Mass., until 11 A.M., Tuesday, April 30th.

All proposals must be sealed proposals, made in duplicate, one proposal to be deposited with the Commissioner must be accompanied by a certified check upon a National Bank or Trust Company in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the sum of $15,000.00 payable to and to become the property of the City of Newton if the proposal is accepted and the bidder neglects or refuses to comply with the terms of the proposal. One proposal (without check) must be filed by the bidder in the office of the Comptroller of Accounts of Newton, prior to the time set for the opening of the bids. (See Ordinances of the City of Newton, Chapter 2, Section 21, as amended.)

Form of contract setting forth the specifications and form of bond to be signed by the Contractor and by a surety company authorized to do business in Massachusetts, can be obtained at the office of the Commissioner.

A sufficient bond for the faithful performance of the contract in the penal sum of $75,000.00 will be required.

It is the purpose of the Commissioner not to award the contract to any bidder who does not furnish evidence satisfactory to the Commissioner that he has the ability and experience in the class of work called for, that he has sufficient capital, plant and equipment, and a sufficiently permanent market or other satisfactory means of disposal to enable him to prosecute same successfully, and to complete it upon the terms and conditions named in the contract.

If any price appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal containing such price.

The Commissioner reserves the right to accept or reject any or all proposals or any part of any proposal and to award the contract as he may deem to be for the best interests of the City of Newton or not to award any contract at all, and any contract made will be made subject to appropriations and grants to meet payments thereunder.

CHARLES A. MAHONEY, Street Commissioner.

Auto Goes On Wild Rampage

Arthur W. Lowe of 25 Halcyon rd., Newton Centre, cranked his automobile as it stood in the driveway at that address last Thursday. Unfortunately the car was in reverse gear. It backed out of the driveway, veered against the house at 22 Halcyon rd. and then backed into the driveway at 14 Halcyon rd. and into the garage of F. R. McPee. The wild automobile crashed into a car parked in the garage and forced the latter onto an electric refrigerator which was stored at the rear of the garage, badly damaging it.

About Town

By Edward H. Powers

For a century the textile industry ranked first among the means of providing livelihood for a large percentage of inhabitants of New England. Cotton, woolen and worsted mills were erected along rivers in New England and operated by water power. With the growth of this country and the use of steam for power, these mills increased in number and size, bringing great wealth to many of their owners, and employment and prosperity to hundreds of thousands of workers.

The first serious blow to New England's textile industry came about a generation ago, when wealthy New England mill owners in order to obtain even greater profits, built mills in Southern States, ostensibly to have the manufacturing near the source of supply, but largely to take advantage of cheaper labor in the South. They exploited the poor whites of that region, working men, women and little children long hours for small pay. As a result, New England's supremacy in the cotton industry declined.

Nearly twenty years ago artificial silk began to supersede cotton and natural silk and another severe blow was struck at the cotton mills of New England. Then came the depression, and as a result the majority of the textile plants in New England are either lying idle, or occupied in part by other industries. Many valuable buildings have been razed so that their owners would be freed from paying taxes on them.

The remnant of the cotton industry in New England, which has been struggling for existence against big odds, now is being wiped out because of the high processing tax imposed on cotton goods by the Federal Government, and the rapidly growing importations of cotton textiles from Japan. The processing tax has so increased the prices on cotton fabrics that it has rapidly decreased the demand for these goods and this condition is not only hurting the cotton manufacturers and mill workers of New England, but also the cotton raisers of the South for whose benefit the tax was created.

If President Roosevelt and his "brain-trusters" do not quickly abolish this ruinous processing-tax, and do not take action to save New England workmen and women from the competition of Japanese textile workers, Czechoslovakian shoemakers and other low paid foreign labor, there will soon be a huge increase to the already large number of New England's former wage earners who are now dependent on the E. R. A. or local welfare relief. Japan need not consider waging a war with this country when she is permitted to invade it so successfully in a commercial way.

The speech made by Secretary of Agriculture, Wallace at Brunswick, Maine, yesterday is real comforting to the hundreds of thousands in New England who have been dependent on the textile industry. How glibly Mr. Wallace advised New England to turn to new methods and new means of obtaining a livelihood. Why doesn't he give the same magical advice to his agricultural proteges in the West and South? Mr. Wallace says that he does not think the rank and file of New Englanders are behind the textile industry in the protests on the processing tax and the importation of Japanese goods. If the President concurs with the attitude of Mr. Wallace, the latter gentleman will realize at the next National election (if he is alive) whether or not New England's rank and file want consideration as well as the West and South.

For the past several years when permits for gasoline stations in this city were granted, instead of allowing such stations to use their entire street frontage as approaches and egress of automobiles, it has been the practice to only permit two drive-ways of 20 or 25 feet. Alderman Temperley was responsible for this. He argued that pedestrians had little protection when obliged to walk across 100 or more feet of space in front of filling stations over which automobiles might travel. Also, the wholesale confiscation of sidewalks by filling stations in business sections in this city have, without legal authority, painted the curbs between the drive-ways at their stations red to prevent parking. They are not satisfied with special privileges from the public, but want to hog public property and needed parking spaces. The Chief of Police and Street Commissioner should cause red paint illegally placed on street curbs to be removed.

Auburndale Youth Arrested For Stealing Auto

Edward J. Ferrick, 18, of 183 Melrose street, Auburndale, was arrested late Saturday night by Patrolmen Bibe and Turner when they caught him on Ballard street, Newton Centre, changing a flat tire on a car which had been reported as stolen. The car owned by Solly Bernbaum of Waltham had been stolen in that city. Another youth who was with Ferrick made his escape. Shortly afterwards a car owned by Robert Turner of Eldredge street, Newton, was stolen, while parked on Nathan road, Newton Centre, and later found abandoned on Arapahoe road, West Newton. The police thought this car might have been used by Ferrick's companion in making his getaway. Ferrick was arraigned in the Newton court on Monday and held in $1000 bonds for the Grand Jury. He was charged with drunkenness and larceny of an automobile.

Newton Youths

Arrested After Wild Pursuit

Metropolitan police captured three Nonantum youths early Monday morning after a long chase through Brighton and Watertown during which two shots were fired to halt the alleged automobile thieves. The captives were Carmine Magnarelli, 18, 125 Adams st.; Luigi Panaggio, 17, 84 West st.; Daniel Leone, 16, 85 West st. The police observed the car being driven on Market st., Brighton, in a suspicious manner and chased it in their cruising car. The pursuit extended from Market st. along Arsenal st., Watertown, to School st., where Patrolman Dyson fired the shots. The five occupants of the pursued car jumped out of it. Magnarelli surrendered, two climbed over a high fence at the Hood Rubber Company and two ran along Arsenal st. and escaped. Later Watertown police arrested Panaggio in that town. Leone was arrested by Patrolmen Hoyt and Elliot when he returned to his home Monday morning. Later Monday warrants were issued for the arrests of Louis Civetti, 17, of 238 Nevada st., Newtonville, and Pasquale Forte, 15, 114 West st., Nonantum, as the other two occupants of the alleged stolen car which was the property of William Shriberg of West st., Nonantum. The five will appear in the Newton court on April 18 for trial.

Drunken Cyclist

Fares Worse Than Drunken Autoists

George L. Donovan of Caldwell st., Charlestown, was arraigned in the Newton court on Wednesday charged with larceny of a bicycle and drunkenness. On the first charge he was sentenced to serve four months in Middlesex County Prison. The drunkenness charge was placed on file. Donovan was arrested on Tuesday night by Patrolmen Mullen and Murphy when they observed him riding the bicycle in zig-zag fashion on Waverley ave. They found he had taken the wheel from the garage of John McNeil at 252 Franklin st., Newton. Last June Donovan stole a bicycle in Lawrence and served two months for that theft.

In Court For Using New York Plates On Car

Armand Poirier of 11 Beecher terrace, Newton Centre, was in the Newton court on Wednesday charged with driving an uninsured and unregistered automobile. The case was continued to April 24th. Patrolman McCormie, the complainant, charges that although Poirier is a resident of Newton Centre, he registered the car he has been driving in New York and has been operating it under New York registration plates.

In Court For Not Identifying Self After Crash

Frank L. Campbell of 153 Foster st., Brighton, was arraigned in the Newton court on Wednesday on the charge of leaving the scene of an accident without revealing his identity. Patrolman Maloney stated that Campbell drove away after his car had collided at Newtonville square on April 2, with a car driven by Joseph Roche of Wayland. The case was continued to April 22nd.

Irving O. Palmer Made Trustee of Chaffin Fund

Irving O. Palmer, former principal of Newton High School, was appointed a trustee of the Chaffin Fund on Monday by Mayor Weeks. He succeeds Alderman Donald McKay who resigned because he has been serving both as a trustee of the Chaffin Fund and a member of the Aldermen.

Community Playhouse Announces Fine Program

Continuing its well established record of popularity "The Little Colonel," starring Shirley Temple, began its four day engagement at the Wellesley Hills Community Playhouse Wednesday. It is this charming young star's most delightful film and as appealing to adults as it is to children. Joe E. Brown in "6 Day Bike Rider," a laugh-filled comedy, is the second feature. Deserving of special mention is the timely short subject on the program, a Walt Disney Silly Symphony, one of his best, and made especially for Easter.

Two distinctly fine bills are announced for presentation at the Playhouse next week. For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, there is "The Whole Town's Talking," which stars Edward G. Robinson. An ingeniously contrived story of double identity it was termed "the best of the month" by the screen critic for Esquire Magazine. "The Night Is Young" is the well suited co-feature. Oscar Hammerstein II and Sigmund Romberg are responsible for the film's creditable musical background and the story is from an original by Vicki Baum. Two currently popular films comprise the program for next week-end, the Clark Gable, Constance Bennett co-starring vehicle, "After Office Hours," together with "Polles Borgere," Maurice Chevalier's musical hit.

Rehearsals For Silver Jubilee Pageant Begin

Report Other Plans Going Forward Successfully

Rehearsals for the Silver Jubilee Pageant of the Boy Scouts, which will take place May 17th, have been started and will continue on Saturday of this week. The Indian episode of the pageant will be rehearsed at the Nobscot Reservation between three and five o'clock, and the Cubs rehearsal will also take place on Saturday on the Lowell Avenue playground, beginning at 1:15 o'clock in the afternoon. Nearly 150 scouts and leaders attended the first rehearsal which was held in the Legion Cabin in the form of a special camp-fire, called by Mr. William V. M. Fawcett, Director of the Pageant. The session was opened by the singing of songs led by Edward Patterson. The selections used are the ones which will be sung in the closing episodes of the pageant. Mr. Fawcett explained to the group the general theme of the pageant, and the methods of lighting and staging. He reported that a Committee of Patrons and Patronesses, headed by Mrs. John F. Capron of Newton Centre, has been unusually successful in selling tickets for the pageant, and urged the scouts who are now engaged in the sale of general admission tickets to extend their efforts in the next few weeks in order that some of them may earn sufficient money to go to the jamboree in Washington in August. The ticket distribution among the va-

Martin Mfg. Co. Argues In Favor Of Petition

Because of the impression which has been spread about the city that it is planned to establish a distilling or rectifying plant in the former factory of the Martin Manufacturing Company at West Newton, the following letter from the Martin Manufacturing Company is of interest. A largely attended public hearing was held at City Hall several weeks ago on this matter and a new petition from the company occasioned much discussion at the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen. The letter presents arguments favoring the granting of a permit for the use of the property as a blending establishment.

April 24, 1935.

Editor of Newton Graphic, Newton, Mass.

Dear Sir:

In articles published in a couple of the neighborhood newspapers there was reference made to the petition of Martin Manufacturing Co. to amend the zoning ordinance in such a way as to permit distilleries in business districts. Now this is not true. The company that bought our Plant has no idea of distilling; they expect to do blending only, and blending means the mixing of liquors to obtain some desired end. In their homes a great many of the people of Newton mix a Martini cocktail or a cocktail in some form. For a Martini they would use Gin blended with Vermouth to the proper proportions, probably put in a shaker with some ice and shake it up, and they have a Martini cocktail. Now, there is no difference between that and what this company referred to intends to do except what is done in a small way in the home is to be done by them in a commercial way. What is wrong about that?

Perhaps we made a mistake when we used the word "rectifying". In any event what this company wishes to do is blend liquors. In 1905 George J. Martin bought from the City the land on the corner of Washington and Felton streets. The city had taken this land 16 years previous to that time by right of eminent domain. Martin wished to build a factory for manufacturing Novelty Curtains. He had already been operating in West Newton eight years, but

New Headmaster At Country Day

Shirley Kerns Succeeded by W. Linwood Chase

Shirley K. Kerns, who founded the Country Day School for Boys of Boston in 1907 and has been its headmaster since, has announced his resignation. He will be succeeded by W. Linwood Chase of Wellesley Hills, associate professor of education in the Boston University School of Education. Mr. Kerns, in establishing the Country Day School on Nonantum Hill in Newton was a pioneer in this type of school. He will continue as a member of the Board of Trustees. Mr. Chase is 38 years of age. He graduated from Presque Isle (Maine) State Normal School in 1916, and the University of Maine in 1920. He received A.M. and Ph.D. degrees from Columbia University. From 1925 to 1928 he taught in the Horace Mann School, New York City. He will be connected with Country Day School on May 20 and will assume the headmastership on June 30. He is the son of Willard O. Chase, superintendent of schools of Oldtown, Maine. In 1918 Mr. Chase married Hazel Spinney and they have four children.

School Calendar For Coming Year

The school calendar for 1935-1936 was adopted at the meeting of the School Committee on Monday night. The school year will begin on September 9 and the first term will end December 20. Holidays during this period will include November 11 and the Thanksgiving vacation from November 27 to December 2. The Christmas holidays will be from December 20 to January 2. The second term will be from January 2 to February 21. There will be no school sessions until March 2nd, when the third term begins. This will last until April 17. The fourth term will start April 27 and end June 19 for pupils and June 23 for teachers. The school terms are on the basis of seven weeks in each eight during the school year.

Want Stricter Zoning Laws

A petition has been received at City Hall asking the Board of Aldermen to change land along Commonwealth avenue, Chestnut Hill, from general residence zone to private residence zone. The land in question extends from a business zone near Lake street for a distance of about 150 feet westerly. The purpose of the change is to prevent an apartment house from being erected on the location. By changing to a private zone, construction would be restricted to two-family dwellings. A hearing on this petition will be held before the Claims and Rules Committee on May 15.

Supt. Warren in Explanation of School Curricula

At the meeting of the Newton School Committee on Monday night, Supt. of Schools Warren spoke on certain changes which will be made in the curricula of junior high schools in Newton the next school year. The purpose is to give pupils the choice of a wider range of subjects. In making his reports, Supt. Warren said:

"One of the chief aims of the Junior High School is to help its pupils to discover and explore their individual interests and abilities, and then to lead them through actual experience, aided by guidance, to choose wisely their school curriculum and thus ultimately their life work. To accomplish these ends the Junior High School offers to every pupil opportunities in many and varied types of work.

"Since the seventh grade is largely a period of orientation and gradual transition from the elementary to the Junior High School, the program of studies is common to all pupils. Nevertheless, even in this grade are found opportunities for the discovery and exploration of natural abilities. Here is introduced the study of General Language, which not only helps to determine a pupil's interest and ability in the foreign language field but is of great value to all boys and girls of this age, especially to those whose home life presents a foreign language background.

"In the eighth grade pupils are given an opportunity to exercise the right of choice in the matter of electives, but in this selection they should seek the advice of both parents and teachers. Boys and girls who are planning to go to college should elect either French or Latin; French for courses leading to the B.S. degree; Latin for those which lead to the A.B. degree. Although it now seems probable that Latin will eventually be dropped as a requirement for admission to both men's and women's colleges, at the present time most colleges advise that it be taken if the A.B. degree is desired.

"The ninth grade offers three distinct curricula: General, Commercial and College Preparatory.

"The General Curriculum offers to both boys and girls a well balanced academic training and is recommended especially for pupils who wish to follow music or art as a career. With a careful choice of electives this curriculum prepares for entrance to junior colleges, teachers' colleges, training schools for nurses, and kindergarten training schools.

"The Commercial Curriculum is designed for pupils who expect to go directly from Senior High School into the commercial world or to a school of Business Administration. It gives to boys a general business training, and to girls training in stenography and secretarial work.

"The College Preparatory Curriculum is planned for those pupils who desire to enter colleges which admit either by certificate or College Board examinations. The work in this curriculum is of a very exacting, academic nature and demands a serious attitude on the part of a child to insure success."

Ask For Bids on Garbage Collection

Bids for the collection of garbage in Newton will be opened on April 30. According to the contract specifications as issued from the office of Street Commissioner Charles Mahoney, the contractor who will be awarded the bid for collecting garbage in Newton during the coming several years will continue to carry it outside the city. There has been talk that the garbage would be burned in the costly new incinerator at Newton Highlands, but obviously this plan has been abandoned. It is believed that it will cost the city less to have the contractor dispose of the garbage as food for pigs rather than burn it in the incinerator, as there is a considerable revenue obtained from the sale of garbage, and usually the contractor raises pigs himself.

The garbage contract for the past 8 years has been held by John Janse of Oak Hill, Newton Centre, who is a bidder for the new contract. Because of numerous objections regarding the collection of garbage during early morning hours, a proviso has been placed in the new contract specifying that collection will not start before.

Two Sessions for Kindergartens

Kindergartens in the Newton schools will be operated next year on a two session basis the same as they have been during the past year. Because of the large enrollment in kindergartens in some of the schools in this city it became necessary to put the two session plan into effect in such schools last year. Children are not discriminated against. Those who attend the morning sessions the first part of the year attend the afternoon sessions the last half, and vice versa. A few complaints were received from parents regarding the afternoon sessions. They claimed their children were too tired afternoons to attend the kindergartens. But, as it would cost taxpayers $12,000 more for additional teachers to have only morning sessions, the school department does not believe this additional burden on taxpayers warranted.

Another Blast Damage Claim

A belated claim for alleged damage from blasting during the excavation for a new sewer at Newton two years ago has been presented by Mary B. FitzPatrick of 327 Tremont street, Newton, who states that the walls and ceilings of her house were damaged.

Plan Newton Charity Horse Show May 11

Third Annual Event to Be Held At Newton Ctr. Playground

One of the most successful outdoor civic events of 1934 in the Newtons was the Newton Charity Horse Show held on the Walworth Estate in May. About two thousand people attended, and almost one thousand dollars were contributed to the Mayor's Relief Committee and the Y. W. C. A. Of great interest, therefore, is the decision of the Show Committee to put on the third annual show for the benefit of the same causes this year on the Newton Center Playground on the morning and afternoon of May 11.

Mr. Allan J. Wilson, a resident of Newton Center and one of the backers of the new Suffolk Downs horse track in East Boston, has consented to serve again as chairman of the committee and he will also act as treasurer. Mr. Oliver A. Johnson of Waban will be secretary of the committee; and Mr. Arthur J. Lovesey of Milton, whose experienced hand guided the first two shows to success, will again take responsibility for the management of the affair.

Mr. Godfrey Priest of Westbury, Long Island, will judge the saddle and harness classes and Mr. Richard Danielson, Master of Hounds of the Grotton Hunt, the jumpers and hunters.

The Playground Commission will again co-operate in supplying stands, and many boxes will be provided. The boxes will seat six people and will be sold at nine dollars a box. This price includes admission. Last year all of the boxes were sold, and it is expected that they will be in demand this year. Some already have been taken.

Those who wish to subscribe to boxes this year or to purchase admission tickets at fifty cents each are urged to apply to Mrs. Allan J. Wilson at 805 Commonwealth avenue, Newton Center, or Mrs. B. Alden Thresher at 188 Collins road, Waban, who are in charge of the sale of tickets, or to the following members of the enlarged Show Committee which met Thursday night at the home of Miss Louise Walworth at 931 Center street, Newton Centre:

The Hon. and Mrs. Sinclair Weeks, Mr. Percy R. Ziegler, Mr. M. Lester Madden, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Paine, Mr. and Mrs. Norman F. Pratt, Mr. Thomas Weston, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Weston, Mrs. William C. R. W. Blaisdell Made Principal Of Weeks School

Is Now Principal of School in Reading

At the meeting of the Newton School Committee on Monday night Raymond W. Blaisdell was elected principal of the Weeks junior high school at Newton Center to succeed the late Frank F. Carr. He will assume his duties at the beginning of the next school year in September.

Mr. Blaisdell was born in Maine 37 years ago, graduated from Maine Central Institute in 1915 and from Bates College in 1919. He took graduate courses at Bates College, Columbia University and Boston University. He received an A.M. degree from Harvard in 1932. He was principal of the West Paris, Maine, high school in 1919-20, superintendent of schools at Turner and Leeds, Maine, from 1920 to 1923 and teacher-principal of the to 1923 and teacher-principal of the Highland School at Reading from 1923 to 1927. In 1927 he organized the Parker junior high school at Reading and has since been its principal. He has been prominent in the activities of the Mass. Junior High School Principals Association. He is a member of the First Congregational Church of Reading and the Reading Rotary Club. He is married and has one daughter.

Blasting Wakens Newton Folks

A large percentage of Newton's residents were awakened Tuesday morning by a series of blasts which started shortly after 6 and continued until 7:45. A particularly loud blast at 7:30 caused houses in widely separated parts of the city to vibrate quite perceptibly. Inquiries by phone at the GRAPHIC office caused an attempt to be made to ascertain the source of the blasts. Because of a heavy blast of dynamite a couple of weeks ago at a ledge on the new Cambridge-Concord state highway at Lincoln, it was thought the early morning explosions might have come from that place.

Small Girl Hit By Automobile

Elaine DiGregorio, 4, of 3 Emerald street, Nonantum, was hit Saturday evening while walking on Watertown street by a car driven by Omer Caron of 24 Chapel street, Nonantum. She received a fractured knee in addition to cuts and bruises. She was taken to the Newton Hospital.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

NEWTON AT CAMBRIDGE IN LEAGUE BASEBALL

Cheated by an April cloudburst out of playing their home opening game with Arlington High, the Newton High baseballers go to Cambridge this afternoon for their first Suburban League game with Cambridge Latin at Russell Field. In all probability, the same nine which started against Arlington Wednesday will do battle with the Latins. If so, Guido Castoldi and Pete Morrison will be the battery, backed up by Jim "Bullet" Byrne on first base, Bert Marrazzo at second, Bill Spilman at shortstop and Milton "Nipper" Jones at third. Outfielders who started against Arlington, and will be ready for Cambridge today are Carl Bosworth, Sylvan Simon and Palmer. Bosworth, John Quinn and Edward Nichols are the relief pitchers, while Palmer and Gammons are understudies for catcher Pete Morrison.

Newton Leads Arlington 1-0

Although less than two innings of baseball had been played when a rainstorm broke up the party on Wednesday, Newton was already off to a good beginning. Bullet Byrne beat out a rap down the third baseline, went to second on a perfect sacrifice bunt by Pete Morrison, and scored when Bert Marrazzo hit into short right field. And right there the game was called, with Newton leading 1-0, one out and Palmer batting.

Guido Castoldi, sophomore pitcher and heavy hitter, dominated the two innings played under the tenting clouds. Of the eight Arlington batters who faced him, Guidi struck out two, walked two, and eliminated the others on infield plays, three of which Guido handled personally, leaving the only other chance to Bill Spilman, who took O'Brien's grounder for an easy putout. Coming to bat in the first inning, Castoldi thrilled the Newton bleachers by riding the first pitched ball far into left field, where it carried foul by a bare six feet. He then fled out to center field.

Intermediates Strong

The Arlington game was not postponed, but cancelled, since the teams would be unable to meet Friday, and the schedules are fairly well dated after that time. Now that Coach Jones has selected his fourteen varsity players, the junior teams get under way at once, with such worthies as Gus Castoldi, Ernie Savignano, Ted Ladfield, Ernie MacLeod, Jack Herrick and John Rechel supplying the intermediate varsity with color to spare.

SPILMAN ELECTED CAPTAIN NEWTON NINE

Bill Spilman, veteran shortstop, yesterday elected captain of the high school baseball team for the 1935 season. Spilman came up last year from the Intermediate Varsity to the Varsity infield, and was accorded all-scholastic recognition at the end of the playing season. He is a three-sport man, having won letters in football and basketball.

Newton Archers Tournery

Seventy-six devotees of archery took part in the first quarterly shoot of the Newton Archers, held on the Newton Center playground range last Friday. Miss Madeleine L. Taylor, 1933 women's national champion, and now a student nurse in New York City, won both Columbia and American rounds for women, after having driven most of the night to get here. A member of the Newton Archers, she was awarded the Carnegie Cup for the best Columbia Round of the day.

Other winners included Professor M. H. Elliott, who won the Cummings Handicap Cup for members, and Robert C. Goldrich, who captured the Mariner Junior Handicap Trophy. The next shoot staged by the Newton Archers is set for June 17.

Here and There

Newton High baseball team makes another attempt today, at Cambridge, to start the season right. Jeff Jones' hustling club has yet to play a full nine-inning game. Those track team ineligibles, Dussossoit, Huling, Quick and Heard, will not be available to Coach Busch until the Brookline meet, and then only if they get by the faculty. Tom Gilligan is playing in the outfield for the Harvard Grads ball team. Charlie Butler hit a grand slam home run for Brown in their game with Holy Cross, scoring four runs, but Brown got beaten anyway. The N. H. S. tennis second team's match with Watertown High, scheduled for Tuesday, has been put off because the Watertown courts are

Newton Highlights

Huntington Tennis Team Here

The Newton High varsity tennis team plays Huntington School on the Newtonville courts this afternoon. Team matches with Milton Academy and Nashua having fallen through, this will mark the beginning of the schedule, provided more April showers don't interrupt the program. As a result of almost daily rains, the courts are in perfect condition.

Huntington faces Newton without M. S. "Bill" Porter, the leading tennis player at the in-town school for the past three years. Porter, a Newtonville boy, is on crutches as the result of a knee injury incurred in a ball game. Newton's leading four are Captain Leo Geary, Paul Rich, Tom Stratton and Gardner Stratton, each of whom has beaten and been beaten by others of the four in bumper tournament matches. Stratton, No. 4, has come up all the way from twelfth in the course of the tournament.

Our Lady's Baseball

Our Lady's high school has yet to drop a game in the Catholic League baseball series. Fr. Haley's nines won the championship of the league in 1933 and 1932, and they appear to have a well-balanced club again this year. Their game with St. Mary's of Brookline today at Cabot Park promises to be a good one, since the visitors routed Cathedral High, 10-4, on Tuesday.

John Seymour MacLean, who pitched against St. Clement's at Dilboy Field on Tuesday, doled out six passes, but allowed only three hits, and Our Lady's won, 4-2. Playing errorless ball all day, the Newton parochials made three of their four hits in the fourth inning. Cliff Choquette will probably get the call to pitch at Cabot Park today in the first home game for Our Lady's.

Rehearsals Begin For Silver Jubilee Pageant

rious organizations of cubs, scouts, and sea scouts is in charge of Carleton S. Redmond, Scout Commissioner.

In this spectacular Silver Jubilee Pageant, which will be staged in the Dickinson Stadium, adjacent to the Newton High School, 1000 Boy Scouts of Newton and Wellesley are going to illustrate what scouting is all about. To begin with, the pageant will demonstrate why a boy should become a scout. Then it will go on to show how most of the Scout program is borrowed from outdoor men—the Indians, pioneers, and other of that brotherhood. Starting at the bottom of the list, the Cubs will demonstrate what they do, how the cub program is a "home program" and all the interesting things that the Cubs do. Then will be shown a Cub invested into a Scout Troop and the activities of a troop meeting. In this large troop meeting, patrols will be played by troops; Scoutmasters will be patrol leaders; and Commissioners, Scoutmasters, Next, mothers and fathers, who make up the anticipated audience of 5,000 strong, will get a chance to see the games that are played in Scouting. Three hundred scouts will show them just a few of the best ones.

Following this, the audience will be stirred, amazed and startled to hear the noise that accompanies the sinking of a ship. They will see the flames go up and then, as the lights turn on, they will see a shipwreck on dry land. There will be a thrilling rescue by the Scouts. They will see up a breeches buoy and bring off from the ship those in peril on the sea.

The lights will fade out on this spectacle and then brighten up again on a camping episode. One hundred tents will spring up as if by magic. Small fires will be lighted in front of each. Scouts will assemble for the Scout Council Fire and sing songs. In the background will be other demonstrations depicting the story that is being told. Between all of the main acts will be entre acts taking place on the top of towers.

Five members of the Newton Y. M. C. A. Boys' Department will take part in the Annual Circus held by the Huntington Avenue "Y" Boys' Department on Saturday, April 27th, at 8 p. m.

John and James Martin, Jack Masters and Nicolò Notaratoso of Newton and William Quinn of Watertown are preparing a group of clown acts. They have already presented these acts before Newton audiences and were asked to perform in Boston. The Clown Band, Fire Department, and Sharpshooter acts will be presented as well as a "welcoming" opening for the show. Henry Shaw, also of Newton, who is now attending Huntington School, will also put on a specialty number with which he has delighted audiences here in Newton in the past.

Dramatic Club Opens

On Monday afternoon the Boys' Department Dramatic Club opened under the direction of Mr. Robert MacLoud of Brighton. This group has already selected three plays on which to start and expect to be ready for the Father and Son Supper to be held in the near future.

Other Clubs To Open

On Tuesday afternoons from four to six, Edward Cook will be at the Y. M. C. A. to instruct any of the boys in Model Aircraft Building, and groups in Woodcraft and Campercraft will open on Thursday afternoon under the leadership of Messrs. Matthew Billings and Edwin Foster.

Midget Baseball Practice To Start

Practice for the Midget Baseball Team will open Friday afternoon at 3 p. m. Mr. Andrew, who has charge of this team, will be assisted by David Imrie of West Newton and John Elder of Waverley.

The group will receive instruction in both infield and outfield playing, batting, and sliding. In the near future, the team will be chosen to represent the younger element of the "Y" at the Annual Younger Boys' Roundup to be held at Norumbega Park, and against other teams during the summer months.

Boston Mutual Life Insurance Company

The annual report which the Boston Mutual Life Insurance Company makes at this time is its 35th. Although this is one of the younger life insurance organizations, comparatively speaking, it has now had all the tests that one-third of a century can provide, including that of a most profound business depression.

The company's premium income for 1934 substantially exceeded its premium income for 1933. At the close of the year, it had 4½ per cent more of insurance in force than when the year began. In 1933 this was one of the few insurance companies to show an increase of insurance of more than 3 per cent. That it has scored an even larger increase in 1934, this time 4½ per cent, shows that its agency department is alert in carrying the company's story to the public and that their company itself enjoys a standing that wins public confidence.

The company has a good record for treatment of policyholders. It has been prompt in meeting settlements of death claims and also in paying cash surrender values and policy loans to those who have to resort to their insurance for cash when times are bad. It has kept its finances in the right condition for making such a record. It is in keeping with this purpose of appreciating the policyholders' point of view that the Board of Directors has apportioned dividends to policyholders for 1935 on the same basis as for 1934.

Burglary at Chestnut Hill

The home of Mrs. Alice and Miss Helen Watson at 38 Commonwealth avenue, Chestnut Hill, was burglarized some time Sunday evening and loot valued at many hundreds of dollars taken. It included two sealskin coats, a caracul coat, a squirrel coat and a number of articles of jewelry. Some of the jewelry had a sentimental value, being family heirlooms. Mrs. Watson and her daughter left their home about 1 o'clock and returned after 11 o'clock Sunday night to discover the house ransacked. The burglar entered by forcing the front door. Last winter Mrs. and Miss Watson were occupants of the apartment house at 41 Commonwealth avenue, which was badly damaged by fire.

Guzzi Gets More Better Lighting

As a result of efforts by Alderman Guzzi of Ward 3 street lights on Auburn street between Washington street and Commonwealth avenue, West Newton, and Elm street between Washington and River streets are to be kept lighted all night instead of until 1 a. m. Guzzi has also requested Street Commissioner Mahoney to have arc lights placed on Prospect street, opposite the entrance of St. Bernard's Church, and at the corner of River street and Auburndale avenue, West Newton.

Plan Bridge Party To Raise Funds for Scout Bldg.

Plans are well under way for the bridge party to raise funds for the new Scout building for the Boy Scout and cub troops of the Sixth Norumbega District in Newtonville. The bridge will be under the auspices of the Mothers' Auxiliary of these troops and will be held on Tuesday, May 21, at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. S. Burkhardt at 81 Church st., Newton. Mrs. L. E. Huston is chairman of the committee in charge. Mrs. C. J. Allen is in charge of transportation.

Newtonville Townsend Club

The Newtonville Townsend Club will meet tonight at 8 at Room 5, 233 Walnut street. Guests will be present from Arlington and Lincoln. Alphonso P. Grinnell will be the speaker. Following the talk a penny sale will be held. On April 30 a bridge will be held at the club room.

Letters To The Editor

TWENTY TONS OF CANS

Dear Mr. Editor—

In re: "Twenty tons of cans and non-burnable materials taken from incinerator in one week."

Let me quote from the "Notice to Public" sent out over the signature of Richard H. Ellis, Director of Public Works:

"(b) The terms 'combustible matter,' 'rubbish,' and 'refuse substances' shall include waste paper, wooden boxes, tin cans, broken earthenware, whole bottles, whole earthenware . . ."

And then wonder at the trouble at the incinerator.

ABOLISH BILL-BOARDS

To the Editor:

The Industrial Arts Exposition now showing at Radio City, N. Y. C., exhibits a very interesting model of the "City of the Future," designed by Frank Lloyd Wright.

Among the many improvements is the elimination of roadside advertising, long known as the bill-board, but now euphemistically referred to as Painted Panels, or Poster Bulletins.

The court has recently ruled that the taxpayers have a right to decide how attractive their own localities should be, and because of this ruling, Wellesley, Concord and other communities are taking steps to control or suppress this irritation.

The Newton Centre Improvement Association has petitioned the city officials to compel the removal of the bill-boards that so glaringly disfigure the surroundings of our beautiful City Hall.

Obviously it is the duty of the city to remove them because the advertiser cannot be expected to do so voluntarily.

This particular group of bill-boards could have been removed long ago if the business men who patronize this form of advertising, had insisted upon an appropriate location. It would then have been unprofitable to maintain the bill-boards at this particular location.

When a business depending upon the decision of a person who chooses to build a home in Newton, because it is a beautiful city, does its bit to make the city less attractive, the reasoning becomes a little involved if not obscure.

As a potential purchaser, I would not buy lumber, awnings or what not from local concerns who use these bill-boards because if they had the welfare of their city at heart they would not so conspicuously disfigure the garden spot that we the citizens of Newton are paying for.

It is surprising how many people feel the same way when it is brought to their attention, and as there are plenty of other concerns to do business with it is not difficult to get along minus the services of the "Patrons of the Painted Panels."

LESTER M. PETERSON,
36 Fairfield St., Newtonville.
April 23, 1935.

CAN WE TAKE IT?

How aptly this 1934-35 slang expression fits into the present-day picture. At this time, a great many American citizens are "taking it" right on the pocketbook, and wondering whether or not they will be standing on their feet when the New Deal of the NRA, the "Brain Trust," and all the allied organizations have had their shot at our nerve centre, the industries of the nation. At no time in the history of our country has public confidence been so shaky as it is now. Heretofore, the conservative investor has purchased his securities, placed them in safe keeping, and at the due date has cut his coupon or received his dividend check. Out of this income so derived, he anticipated paying his share of the local, State, and Federal taxes, perhaps viewing with some alarm the ever-increasing burden of additional taxation. Now he is faced with a greater fear, not only of additional taxation but with absolute destruction of the roots of industry, of which the individual investor is a fundamental part.

Like a giant octopus, stretching its tentacles over everything within its reach, the present Administration seem possessed to control all industry. This they hope to accomplish by establishing a bureaucracy in Washington with which to dictate to every conceivable organized industry. A dictator in business may be the way to salvation in these times, but he must first and last be a man who has been through the mill in his particular line and under obligation, political or otherwise, to no man or party.

For the past two years we have read daily in the newspapers about the "Brain Trust." The membership of this body has changed several times, internal strife seemingly the cause. Undoubtedly this group of men, individually and collectively, is as brilliant as could be gathered together, but are they statesmen, politicians, or educators? I cannot conceive of the board of directors of any good-sized bank turning their assets and organization over to a brain trust to operate. The results, I fear, would be disastrous; then why try it on the industries of this country?

Legislative measures are being constantly presented to the House and to the Senate, requesting more or less conformity with the powers in Washington. Some would place the Government in direct competition with old first-line companies, especially in the public utility field.

A vicious circle is being established by this practice. If you destroy an investor's chance of a fair return on his money, and then, in the next breath, overload him with taxes to meet the abnormal spending program of the day, with what will he pay?

When the present Administration sees the light and refrains from interference and competition, then perhaps will the situation look brighter and the general public gain back a wee bit of its former confidence. Meanwhile, we the taxpayers must voice our protests through the right channels, namely by letting our Congressmen and Senators know by correspondence our wishes in these matters. If more people would get in the habit of writing their district leaders, a truer public opinion could be formed and acted on. You cannot by legislation or dictatorial control revive business, be it financial, industrial, or agricultural. Our own history has taught us this lesson. Why not profit by it? In the meantime, can we take it?

W. S. PACKARD,
Waban, Mass.

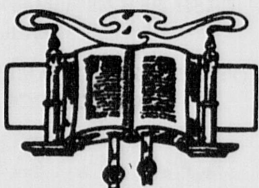

Kiwanis Club

Members of the Newton Kiwanis Club journeyed to the Davis Turkey Farm last Monday evening to join the Weston-Wayland-Sudbury Club in their First Anniversary meeting. Members and Kiwanis-Anns numbered 74 persons. After a delicious turkey dinner music was furnished by Mr. John Price of the Sudbury Club. After a short resume of the first year's activities of the new club President Carlton W. Ellms welcomed members of other clubs in attendance. Two of the Kiwanis official family were present in Lieutenant Governor Stephen R. Dow of Brookline and Everett W. Ireland, District Secretary of Somerville. Gov. James P. Gallagher was unable to attend on account of an interclub meeting in Waterville, Me. Rupe Thompson, President of the Newton Club, which sponsored the new club, also made a short address.

The main speaker of the evening was Rev. Clifford O. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lexington, who gave a talk on "The Value of Friendship."

The speaker for next Tuesday at the Charles River Country Club will be Harry Seymour Ross, President of Emerson College. His subject will be "Kipling." Mr. Seymour was principal of Worcester Academy for 11 years and Dean of Emerson for 25 years.

NORUMBEGA DISTRICT COUNCIL OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Annual meeting of the Council of Religious Education will be held on Tuesday, April 30, at 8 P. M. at the Newton Immanuel Baptist Church, with the Council president, Herbert C. Mayer, presiding.

The purpose of the meeting is fourfold, to hear reports from officers and committees, to elect officers for the coming year, to adopt a budget for 1935-36 and to consider plans and programs for the year.

Those entitled to attend and vote at such meeting are pastors, church school superintendents or directors, and two selected representatives from each Protestant church in the District, which includes Newton, Waltham, Watertown, Belmont and Weston.

Caney Creek Crusaders

Come to Newtonville

Twelve mountain boys from the Caney Creek Community Center, Pippasburg, Kentucky, will speak for their people at a forum meeting to be held in the Methodist Church, Newtonville, next Friday night, May 3, at 7:30. For several years these young crusaders have been making an annual pilgrimage to the Newtons where they have many interested friends. A large audience will welcome them as everyone interested in mountain education is cordially invited to attend. There is to be no admission charge. Urge your young people to hear these boys from the Cumberlands.

To Lecture On Gaspe Peninsula Next Monday

Last May Mr. A. C. Shelton gave a picture lecture on "Beautiful New England" before the members and friends of the association. His slides are taken in the natural color and not colored by hand. Most everyone present said they had never seen more beautiful slides than were shown that evening, and many even went so far as to say that they did not realize that such pictures were possible.

All residents of Newton Center are invited to the Woman's Club Monday evening, April 29, at 8 o'clock, to hear Mr. Shelton's new lecture on "The Gaspe Peninsula."

Auto Mechanic Gets Police Job

Charles N. Beckert of 77 Smith avenue, West Newton has been appointed a civilian automobile mechanic for the Newton police department to assist Serg. Bart Cullen, the auto mechanic of the department. Because of the hard usage received by the police cars it was necessary in the past to have considerable repair work done on them in addition to the work done by Cullen. This work was done by garage repair shops in this city. With the additional automobile mechanic and new equipment at the police department garage, it is planned to eliminate the outside repair work and it is supposed that the new arrangement will be more economical.

Rebekah Lodge Celebrates 25th Anniversary

On Monday evening, April 22nd, Sumner P. Lawrence Rebekah Lodge No. 177 celebrated their 25th anniversary in Odd Fellows Hall, West Newton. At 6:30 o'clock ninety sat down to a bountiful turkey supper. After supper a reception was given to the president of the Rebekah Assembly and Board, Deputy President and Marshal, Charter Members and the twenty-five-year members. There are only five Charter Members remaining and thirteen twenty-five-year members out of the ninety-nine who joined when the lodge was instituted, April 14, 1910. The lodge was instituted by Charles Perry, Grand Master, deceased, and Board of Grand Officers. Grace Mitchell and Board of Assembly Officers installed the Officers of the Lodge and the Degree Staff from Brighton Rebekah Lodge certified the degree. Rosamond Dukeshire of Brighton Lodge was appointed the First Deputy. Charles F. Dow, P.P.G., was the First Degree Master. The invited guests at the 25th anniversary were the President of the Rebekah Assembly, Helen L. Morton of Springfield, the Board of Assembly Officers, District Deputy President and Marshal, Noble and Vice-Grand of Ida Butler Lodge, Arlington; Noble and Vice-Grand of Naomi Lodge of Worcester, Past President, Gertrude Reidel; Marion Edwards, Present Degree Mistress; and Rosamond Dukeshire the First Deputy, and the Charter Members. The address of welcome was given by the Noble Grand, Mae E. Smith, P.N.G. Address by the President of the Rebekah Assembly, Helen L. Morton. Remarks by District Deputy President, Noble Grand, Lyman Morrell; Vice-Grand, Archie Bellinger, of Waban Lodge; Degree Mistress, Marion Edwards; and Past Grand Master Morton, of Worcester.

Past Vice-Grand, Mary M. Smith, presented a twenty-year Veteran's jewel to Jessie M. Clark. The Charter Members are Etta E. Dow, P.N.G.; Helen N. Meriam, P.N.G.; Miriam Mills, P.N.G.; Katherine Vinings, and Charles F. Dow, P.G. The twenty-five-year members are Myra Angell, A. C. Baxter, P.G.; Marvella E. Baxter, P.N.G.; Elizabeth Clark, Carrie E. Holmes, P.N.G.; Amelia A. Kilburn, Morris E. Beardsley, M. Millie Beardsley, Jessie M. Clark, Phoebe Nutting, Mae L. Sweett, Alice R. Toombs, and Ida M. Welsh, P.N.G. Music was furnished by the Baron E. Lira orchestra. The play "Green Stockings" was presented by the Elliot Players. The parts were all well taken but the part of Phyllis Faraday, taken by Ruth Jenks, is worthy of special mention.

The program as a whole was by far excellent and well carried out. Anniversary committee: Mae E. Smith, N.G.; Blanche G. Buell, P.N.G.; Edward L. Weldon, P.N.G.; Etta E. Dow, P.N.G.; and Margaret Keyes, V.G.

Ensemble Groups Prepare For Final Concert

The ensemble groups of the Peirce and Clafin Branches of the All Newton Music School are coming together on next Sunday afternoon, April 28th, at two o'clock in the Unitarian Parish House, West Newton, to rehearse for their Final Concert. This concert, coming on Monday evening, May 20th, at the Newton High School, is an annual event and is a fitting climax to the season's work. The program of interesting and varied numbers will include selections by Bach and Handel of special interest at this time, since the 25th anniversary of the births of these great composers is being commemorated in musical circles all over the world. It is always an inspiring sight to see these young people, over sixty in the combined orchestras, working so well together in this ideal form of group work.

The Music School is a Charter Member of the Newton Community Chest, Inc., and all of the recitals and concerts are open to the public without fee.

Newton Ladies Interested In Kappa Luncheon Tomorrow

Mrs. Addison C. Burnham of Bracemore road, Newton Center, will be one of the guests at the speakers table at the Kappa Kappa Gamma luncheon at the Hotel Puritan, Saturday, April 27th, when Kappas of Greater Boston are host to the 700 or more alumnae of the fraternity in New England. Mrs. Burnham is a member of Boston University chapter and is a past Grand president of Kappa, which is one of the two oldest social college fraternities, with chapters in 70 educational colleges of this country and Canada.

Others from Newton working on various committees for the luncheon are Mrs. Carl Gurnish of Cotton street and Mrs. Ernest P. Rallsback and Miss Mary Jane Rallsback of Foster street, all three of whom were members of Kappa Kappa Gamma at the University of Indiana. Among the guests will be Mrs. Eugen C. Andres, Jr., Standards chairman of the fraternity, who before her marriage to Mr. Andres of Kirkstar road was Miss Helen Snyder of Seattle.

Garden Guild Extends Service To The Newtons

Due to demand the Garden Guild has extended its services to the Newtons. The Guild was organized by Fred J. Nisbet of Roslindale, and Frank A. Batstone, Jr., of West Newton, both landscape architects and graduates of the Massachusetts State College, Amherst, Mass. A complete and intelligent landscape service is offered to the suburban home owner. The Guild has been operating with great success and enthusiasm in Roslindale and the Parkway District.

Rotary Club

"We shall never recover ourselves, unless we can have new trade treaties with other nations," said Dr. Brewster Eddy in his talk to the Rotarians on Monday. Dr. Eddy, who recently returned from a nine months' trip to the Orient and Europe said he "saw 22 countries, visited 15, and actually studied 9." During the summer he was a member of the party of his brother, Sherwood Eddy. He gave a rapid but revealing survey of impressions carried away from China, Japan, Russia, Germany and Austria in particular. He had many opportunities to talk with officials and others and was able to witness exciting happenings in Vienna at close range.

The speaker was greatly impressed with the rapid progress made in China since his previous visit. China is hard at work cleaning up physically and morally. The central government is ruling over more provinces now and the Communists are being overthrown rapidly. The better sort of missionary work done by foreigners in China is beginning to tell. As for Japan, there will be no war with the United States if America's best can stay in touch with Japan's best. To send our fleet to oriental waters next summer is poor business. In Germany, Dr. Eddy feels that 96 per cent of the people are behind Hitler. He is to them the Messiah that is leading them out of the slavery of the Versailles treaty. Turning to Russia, "there is no communism there," he said, "what we see there is state socialism. The Russians are going ahead with great strides in their social program. Illiteracy has been reduced to about ten per cent."

Mr. Franklin Field, soloist of the Central Church, Newtonville, entertained the club with several songs before the address. Dr. Eddy's talk and Mr. Field's songs made this one of Rotary's best meetings.

Dramatic Club to Present "The Belle of Barcelona"

"The Belle of Barcelona" will be presented on Thursday evening, May 2nd, in the Newton Centre Woman's Club House by the Newton Dramatic Club. This musical comedy is replete with melodious songs, with glamorous settings and is strung on a Spanish plot of love and intrigue. There will be some exceptional dancing by many of Newton's most beautiful girls under the direction of Hazel Sands Welch. There will be singing by professional singers of note who carry the leading parts. A competent chorus of 24 young men and women and an orchestra of seventeen pieces. The scene is laid in the central plaza of Barcelona. The old walls and pendant flowers make a charming scene.

The club is fortunate in having Mr. Gilbert Hamlin, National Broadcasting director of chorus, in charge of musical direction. Mr. Charles M. Clark the regular orchestral director of the Newton Dramatic Club shares in this exacting work. They are producing a most finished show. Mrs. Everett W. Varney is in charge of the whole production. Bolton Wilder is stage manager and Barbara Lippincott created the scenery. The costumes are in charge of Mrs. Bertram Moore, Mrs. Franklin Trube, Mrs. J. T. Ridgway and Mrs. Chester Baker. The leading parts are taken by Sylvia Pettys and Ermond Lewis (Mr. Lewis was recently heard as soloist in the Highland Glee Club's concert), Earle Saunier, Harry E. Moore, Celeste Callaghan, Mrs. H. P. Forte, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morrow, Mr. Lassen, James Waters, Bertram Moore and Muriel Carpenter.

Hospital Aid Benefit Shop Conducts Dress Sale

The Hospital Aid Benefit Shop at 795 Washington st., Newtonville, will be open from 4 to 10 P. M. on May 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th for a sale of fresh, new summer wash dresses and aprons.

The Hospital Aid Association is planning to buy a new X-ray table for the hospital; purchases will help to make this possible.

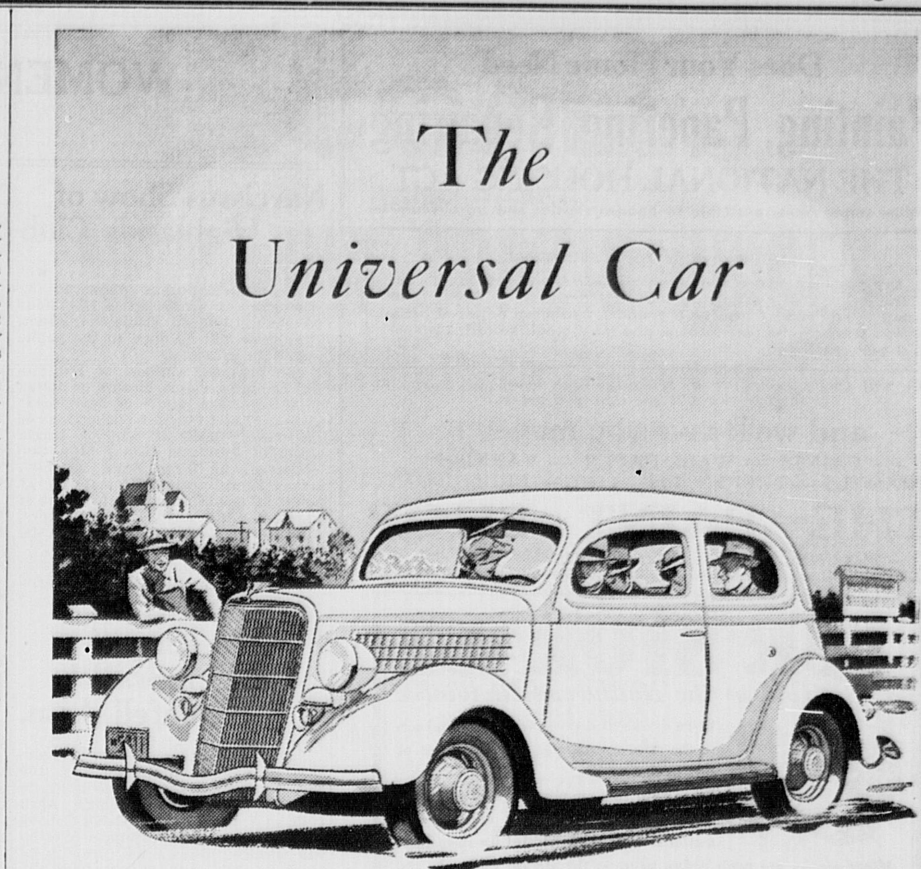

Biting and Barking Dogs

Mark Furness of Coolidge street, Brookline, reported to the Newton police last Friday that he had been bitten by a dog owned by David Bernstein of 6 Chamberlain road, Newton. The animal was ordered restrained and Dr. Bontelle, city veterinarian, notified to examine it.

J. J. O'Hare of Windemere road, Auburndale, was notified last Friday to restrain his dog. A neighbor had complained that the barking of the animal disturbed him.

W. C. T. U.

The annual meeting of the Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held Thursday, May 2nd, at 2:30 p. m., in the Baptist Parish House, 848 Beacon street, Newton Centre.

ONE name comes quickly to mind when you think of "The Universal Car."

The description is distinctively Ford. No other car is used by so many millions of men and women in every part of the world. Everywhere it is the symbol of faithful service. . . . That has always been a Ford fundamental. Something new is constantly being added in the way of extra value. Each year the Ford has widened its appeal by increasing its usefulness to motorists. . . . Today's Ford V-8 is more than ever "The Universal Car" because it encircles the needs of more people than any other Ford ever built. It reaches out and up into new fields because it has everything you need in a modern automobile. . . . The Ford V-8 combines fine-car performance, comfort, safety and beauty with low first cost and low cost of operation and up-keep. There is no other car like it.

City Engineer Morse Tells of Growth of Dept.

Last month at a meeting held in Second Church, West Newton, city officials of Newton explained the workings of their various departments. The following informative history of the Newton Engineering Department was given by City Engineer Morse, who will retire soon after serving the city 54 years:

"Newton became a City on January 5, 1874.

"The first City Engineer, Mr. Frederic Schoff, organized the Engineering Department in that year.

"The Engineering Department has charge of all plans of streets, sewers, drains, water work and lands of the City. These plans now number about 29,000. The following are also functions of this department: preparation of Board of Aldermen orders with descriptions of land takings, staking lines and grades for street, sidewalk, sewer and drain construction as well as for water pipes and highway contracts. The work of figuring and levelling street betterments and sewer assessments is also part of the work performed by this department. House numbers are assigned by the Engineering Department.

"As a considerable portion of the work of the office is the examination of records of property on streets where lines are to be established for acceptance and also for the Assessors' block system, copies are made of all Newton land plans recorded at the Registry of Deeds, East Cambridge.

"The City Engineer's duties are varied as he is subject to calls from the Mayor, the Board of Aldermen, any committee of the Board and from the various officers of the City Government, to perform any work belonging to his office. He is also Clerk of the Planning Board and a member ex-officio.

"The Planning Board was originally created in December 1913, with the usual powers and duties of Planning Boards. In May 1925 when the City accepted the Board of Survey Act, the powers of the Board of Survey were added to those of the Planning Board. One hundred and sixteen meetings have been held to date and 288 plans of proposed developments and street locations have been approved.

"On October 31, 1932, the office of the Engineering Department was transferred from the old City Hall, 1337 Washington st., West Newton, to new and adequate quarters in the new City Hall at 1000 Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre.

"The present City Engineer began his period of service for the City with the second City Engineer, Mr. Albert F. Noyes, March 21, 1881, just 54 years ago today, during the administration of the fourth Mayor, Hon. Royal M. Pulsifer, with Edwin O. Childs, City Clerk; Winfield S. Slocum, City Solicitor; William E. Fuller, Superintendent of Streets, and Albert S. Glover, Water Registrar.

"It has also been my privilege to work with Mayors Ellison, Kimball, Burr, Hibbard, Fenno, Bothfield, Cobb, Wilson, Pickard, John W. Weeks, Weed, Warren, Hutchinson, Hatfield, Childs and Sinclair Weeks; City Clerks Kingsbury and Frank M. Grant; City Solicitors Bishop and Joseph W. Bartlett; Street Commissioners Ross, Stuart and Charles A. Mahoney; Water Commissioners Whitney, Ellis and Joseph J. Murray; Director of Public Works, Richard H. Ellis; City Engineers Woods, Farnham and Rogers; Assessors Hagar, Jackson, Coffin, Baily and John W. Murphy.

"Some of the most noted improvements with which the speaker has been associated are the establishment of the sewer system, zoning system, drainage system, additional water supply, street numbering system, Assessors' block system, elimination of grade crossings both north and south sides of the City, street widenings on Washington, Tremont and Boylston streets, laying out and construction of Commonwealth avenue boulevard, High-Level sewer, Bulfinch Park improvement, Playgrounds established at Newton Centre, Edmonds Park, Cold Spring and Auburndale Park, bridges over the Charles River at Nahant, Elliot, Wales and Washington streets and the new City Hall grounds.

"My fifty-four years with the City have afforded me a great deal of pleasure and I acknowledge with thanks the cheerful and courteous co-operation which I have received from my associates throughout the City in carrying on the various works with which I am connected as City Engineer of Newton.

"I hope that the City of Newton continues to prosper and grow in the future as it has done during the past fifty-four years."

Legion Commander Made Hon. Member U. S. W. V.

Commander Arthur R. McCarthy of Newton Post No. 48, American Legion, was made an honorary member of the United Spanish War Veterans' Camp, No. 10, at their annual muster held at the War Memorial Building, Newton Centre, on Wednesday of last week. Three hundred members and friends attended including county and state officers of the organization. Senator Arthur Hollis, Col. Comerai and Ex-Mayor Edwin O. Childs are also honorary members. Commander McCarthy's generous service in rendering assistance to many of the camp's members and to orphans and widows was recognized in remarks made when the honor was conferred upon him.

Instruction for School Janitors' Examination

A course of instruction to assist men of Newton who may want to take the examination for school janitors will start on Thursday night, May 2nd, at 7 p. m., in the Davis School on Waltham st., West Newton. This course is free. It will be given by George Kellar, assistant to the Superintendent of Schools, and Arthur Swanson, supervisor of janitors in the Newton schools. The examination will be held on June 22.

Newton Youths To Make Bicycle Tour of Europe

Through the courtesy of the Cunard White Star Ltd. Anchor Line, The Tech Aristocrats' dance orchestra under the leadership of Thomas J. Dale have arranged a visit to Europe, sailing on the S. S. Aquitania from New York on June 6. The orchestra, composed of Thomas J. Dale, West Newton, William A. Camp, Newton Highlands, Allan Q. Mowatt, Swampscott, Lewis Reitz, Brooklyn, N. Y., and R. Herbert McFee, Newton Centre, students at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, plans to make a bicycle trip through France, Switzerland, Italy and Germany if time will permit. They expect to return on July 9.

Caterers to the Canine

Help for bemused dog owners who have any sort of bother with the weekly rations is offered by the Canine Catering Co., an unusual organization which is extending its activities into Newton. Since last June these caterers to dogdom have been supplying the meals of pets in Brookline, where their office and plant are located.

The system consists of contracting with the owners to furnish fresh food for the dog or dogs three times a week. The ration is fresh beef, not canned food, and is supplied in any form the owner or his veterinarian may designate—raw or cooked, diced or ground up, with or without other foods mixed up. The rations are packed in one-meal lots, or in bulk, enough to last until the next delivery, as may be desired. Deliveries are made Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons. The meat is fresh, Government-inspected beef, without preservative or coloring. In hot weather, refrigerated trucks are used for deliveries.

The headquarters of the Canine Catering Co. is at 85 Washington st., Brookline. The idea was originated in Pennsylvania and has since become popular throughout the east.

On Thursday, May 2nd, there will be held a Narcissus Show at the Workshop of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club on Columbus street. This show will be open to the public from 3:30 to 9 p. m.

The first ten Classes of Exhibits will comprise single blooms or stalks of the various kinds of Narcissus; Classes 11 and 12 will be collections of Narcissus; Class 13 will be single bloom of hyacinth. Class 14 a Collection of Any Spring Bulbs, in which arrangement counts for majority of points; Class 15 is an Arrangement of Narcissus and any Spring Flowers. All Classes except the last must be grown by the exhibitor.

This show is under the direction of Mrs. Edgar J. Smith and Mrs. Mildred B. Cooper.

First Meeting of Newton Branch, Grenfell Assn.

The first meeting of charter members of the Newton Branch of the New England Grenfell Association is planned for Tuesday evening, April 30th, at 7:45 o'clock, at Cabot School, Newtonville. Judge Thomas Weston will preside. Guests are cordially invited to join with the members in hearing Dr. Harrison E. Kennard, of Dudley road, Newton Centre, tell with pictures, in a half-hour address, how work was carried on last summer at the Grenfell Mission station in Cartwright, Labrador, after the hospital burned.

The meeting has been planned for evening so men can hear Dr. Kennard, whose experience with the Grenfell Mission last summer called for an extraordinary amount of ingenuity. When Dr. Kennard was appointed medical officer at Cartwright there was a well-equipped cottage hospital. When he reached Labrador there was a hole in the ground and a heap of ashes, and he literally performed operations on a packing box for an operating table. Dr. Robert H. Goodwin, his predecessor at Cartwright, is expected to be present to give another half-hour speech on winter work at a Grenfell Mission station. The school auditorium, where the meeting will be held, is on the ground floor.

The Newton Branch of the New England Grenfell Association is composed of people throughout Newton who have signified their interest in Dr. Grenfell's work, in response to a letter sent out last fall and signed by long-time supporters of that work, Mrs. George W. Auryansen, Mr. G. Fred Harwood, Mrs. Ralph Lewis, Mr. Loomis Patrick, and Mrs. Lucius H. Thayer. There are no dues for membership in the Branch, and until the date of the meeting admirers of the Grenfell work may enter their names as charter members of the Newton Branch by writing Mr. Loomis Patrick, 64 Putnam street, West Newton.

At the meeting the Branch will organize by the election of officers. The slate to be presented consists of president, Mr. Kenneth B. Harding; vice-president, Rev. Edward C. Herrick; secretary-treasurer, Mr. Loomis Patrick; Advisory committee: Mrs. William Andrew, Miss Caroline Bowditch, Mrs. George S. Fuller, Miss Margaret McGill, Mr. Fred Rust, Judge Thomas Weston, and Dr. George W. Van Gorder. Mrs. Charles Wood Bond will head a committee for the collection of warm used clothing for use on the Labrador coast; Mrs. Archer T. Robinson will see to the collection of new clothing under the Needle Work Guild which sews for the Grenfell Mission. Miss Alice Nichols will be officially, as she has been informally in the past, Grenfell Christmas Card representative, and Miss Cleome Place will help the young people's organizations in Newton by providing speakers on Grenfell Mission work upon request.

Light refreshments and an informal reception will conclude the meeting.

Light refreshments and an informal reception will conclude the meeting.

Glee Club Will Give Concert

There will be held at the Unitarian Parish House in West Newton next Monday evening, April 29th, at 8:15 o'clock, a very attractive program under the auspices of the West Newton Community Service Club, featuring a Concert by the Glee Club in their Annual presentation. There will be a Professional Dance Group from the Miriam Winslow School of Boston; a farce entitled "Elizabeth's Young Man," coached by Horace Creede Railsback; and groups of delightful numbers by the Glee Club, directed by Marion Kingsbury. Assisting artists will be William Preston Helms, tenor; and Frank Batstone, violinist.

Tickets at fifty cents each may be obtained from Mrs. Thomas Cooper, telephone West Newton 1688, or from the Dorothy Muriel Shops.

direction of Mrs. Howard A. Haney, music was furnished by an Hawaiian Quartet.

At the business meeting which followed, Mrs. Arthur W. Davis, the secretary, gave a summary of the reports of committee chairmen. She reported that the Club has had a full membership and a waiting list, with an average attendance of 205. The Art committee has arranged two series of classes in painting trays and furniture, as well as an exhibition of the work of Waban artists. The Music committee tried the experiment, which has met with great approval of holding five Morning Musicales at the homes of members instead of planning incidental music for Club meetings. The Literature committee arranged a series of three afternoon lectures. The Civics and Community Service committee members have given faithful service at the Clothing Chest and Benefit Shop. The International Relations committee has aroused great interest in the study of important world affairs with frequent meetings of a group of fifteen to twenty attending. The Membership committee, with a member in each of fifteen sections, has served as friendly link between the Club and the community, calling on newcomers who have interest in the Club.

By a vote to amend the By-Laws these last two committees were made standing committees, having shown their great value to the Club this last year.

The treasurer's report showed that $910.46 had been received for the Community chest, and for scholarships, more than $500.00 of which was made at the Philanthropic Bridge and at the play put on by the Drama committee in November.

The Scholarship committee announced the award of two scholarships for next year, to Alice Frayer and Helen Merse, both of whom plan to enter Mount Holyoke College next fall.

The following officers were elected for 1935-1936: President, Mrs. B. Alder Thresher; first vice-president, Mrs. Andrew B. Sides; second vice-president, Mrs. Robert W. Moore, Jr.; recording secretary, Mrs. Arthur W. Davis; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Pauline H. Putnam; treasurer, Mrs. Russell Burnett; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Roger Preston; and director for three years, Mrs. Joseph C. MacDonald.

The business meeting was followed by a short entertainment of singing and dancing, given by Mr. Gilbert Hamlin and the Taylor sisters.

Newtonville Woman's Club

The Newtonville Woman's Club held its Annual Meeting and Luncheon in the Club House on Washington park, on Tuesday, April 23rd, at one o'clock. The Social Hall was set with long tables on which were vases of gay flowers which presented a spring appearance. Mrs. George Lowry Davis offered the opening prayer.

Following the luncheon, the business meeting was held in the Auditorium. The reports of the several chairmen, which were combined in one, and read by Mrs. Edwin P. McGill, recording secretary, showed a record of enthusiastic activity and accomplishment under the guidance of Mrs. Edwin P. Crawe, president. Announcement was made of the gift of the annual scholarship to help some girl in college. The treasurer's report showed the Club to be on a sound, substantial footing.

The members were asked to stand in silent tribute to the following members who have passed away during the past year: Mrs. Rolfe; Miss Grace Allen, Miss Barton, and Mrs. William Palmer, charter members; Mrs. Ames and Mrs. F. O. Holmes.

Notice was given of a Flower Show to be given in the fall by the Garden Club in conjunction with the Conservation committee of the Woman's Club.

After a vote was taken on two changes in the By-Laws, the president asked for the reading of the ballot of officers for the coming year, by Mrs. Bion M. Weatherhead, chairman of the Nominating committee. This ballot was accepted and subsequently voted upon unanimously by the Club members. The following officers elected for the year 1935-1936 were:

Bassett; secretary of Finance, Mrs. Chester L. Merrill; and directors: Mrs. Anton A. Wild, chairman of Civics committee; Mrs. Horace P. Coleman, chairman of Conservation committee; Mrs. Fred M. Blanchard, chairman of Hospitality committee; Miss Lisette F. Henderson, chairman of Legislative committee; Mrs. Randolph S. Merrill, chairman of Music committee; Mrs. Harold C. Bond, chairman of Program committee; and Mrs. David F. Hill, chairman of Volunteer Service committee.

The music for the afternoon, presented by Mrs. Ernest L. Nichols, chairman, was given by the Glee Club, directed by Mr. William Ellis Weston. They sang "Song at Sunrise," with Mrs. Clinton W. Kyle, Soloist; "Softly Soundeth Through My Soul," "May Day Carol," and "A Birthday."

Mrs. Roger Wheeler, Drama committee chairman, then offered a play, "Hop O' My Thumb," by Frederick Feine and Richard Pryce, provided through the courtesy of the Bishop Lee Dramatic School, of Boston, and played by pupils just completing their first year, with the following cast: Celeste, Muriel Harris; Rose, Mary Louise Maytag; Clem, Bettie Tucker; Madame, Katherine Alamy; Amanda, Barbara Gerry; and Horace, John Hall.

Mrs. Crawe, the retiring president, presented the in-coming president, Mrs. Pearson, with a gold note-book and a large bouquet of flowers, besides the symbol of her office, the gavel.

The Club, after completing a most satisfactory year, is already planning a Bazaar to be held on the 13th and 14th of November.

Other Events

Newtonville Woman's Club

The last meeting for the season of the Literature Class of the Newtonville Woman's Club will be held on April 29th, at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. Mace Andrews, 67 Clyde street. The subject for the afternoon will be "Louisa May Alcott; Her Life and Writings," and papers will be read by Mrs. George W. Auryansen and Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden. Club members and their friends are invited to be present at this meeting which is sponsored by the Education committee.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

Luncheon at one o'clock will open the celebration of the Annual Meeting for the Newton Centre Woman's Club at their Club House, on Friday, May 3rd. Reservations should be made for tickets at $1.00 each with Mrs. Arthur H. Brooks, telephone Centre Newton 3346, not later than Wednesday, May first. The business meeting with reports of officers and committee chairmen, and the election of officers for the next year, will begin at 2:30 p. m.

RADIO. Dr. Louise Leverone, State chairman of Public Health, will be one of the speakers on the Radio program tomorrow, Saturday morning, over Station WBZ, during the half-hour beginning at 11:30 o'clock. Mrs. William Taylor, Eleventh District director, also will speak. Music will be given by the composer, Mr. Paul Allen.

ANNUAL MEETING. May 21st to 23rd are the days of the Annual Meeting of the State Federation at Swampscott. Already clubwomen who attend these events regularly are making their reservations with the New Ocean House.

A feature of special interest is the presence of Mrs. Poole on the first two days, Tuesday and Wednesday, and her attendance will be marked, perhaps, with a bit of sadness in the thought that she is to go out of office as General Federation president, at Detroit in June. There has been a thrill in welcoming her, not only personally as a Massachusetts daughter and beloved former State Federation president, but as the outstanding leader in the national Club World, which all will be sorry to relinquish, being intensely human and loving high honors! She, probably, however, has something exciting before her—new worlds to conquer, for her energy, ability, and ambition will be sure to find her with some occupation that will be an inspiring announcement when she chooses to take the clubwomen into her confidence. This may be on the evening of Tuesday when she is to address the session.

On Monday, May 20th, there will be a pre-convention Council of Club Presidents—incoming, outgoing, and remaining, as it is aptly put—at 8 o'clock, in the Ball Room of the New Ocean House. Presidents eligible to attend are urged not to overlook this opportunity and should make every effort to save this time.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Poole will meet with those who are planning to go to Detroit for the Triennial to assist in explanations of arrangements of all kinds, and to tell of scheduled events.

There has come the announcement that this year Massachusetts will do away with the reading of reports by chairmen of departments—the first State to make this innovation. There seems to be from some quarters enthusiastic approval of this, the statement being that the three-day rehearsals of activities, sometimes duplicated, become wearisome. But to many clubwomen who desire to know the actual facts of accomplishments of the outgrew his leased quarters and desired his own. He made a gentleman's agreement with the city that he would build a plant that would cost at least $10,000. The plant and land were afterwards assessed for $70,000, and the merchandise for about $150,000, so in later years the Company paid taxes of over $4,000.

Argues In Favor Of Martin Petition

Now in 1922, 17 years after this plant was built, the zoning took place in the City of Newton. When the plans were drawn, Martin Manufacturing Co. Plant was put in a manufacturing zone. An expert was called in from Cleveland to tell the city how to zone property, and it is evident he told the people that were doing the job to put it in a business district, because that was what was done and without any notification of any kind then or later to Martin Manufacturing Co. that we were switched into a business zone. Martin Manufacturing Co. was the largest manufacturer in the City of Newton, and the largest manufacturer in the district reporting to the Dept. of Labor and Industries at the State House every month. We were doing a business of from about $1,500,000 to $1,452,000. Notwithstanding that we were the largest manufacturers we were the only ones in the City of Newton put in a business zone. If there was anything more ridiculous in zoning, I would like to have it pointed out. It was foolish and there was absolutely no excuse for it.

Just before the zoning was voted on the writer found out we had been put in a business zone and he protested it. He was promised then that if he let the zoning go as it was, nothing detrimental would ever happen to Martin Manufacturing Company's property; and this was because he was assured that if he upset the zoning plans—and it would be the third time it was done—there would be no zoning in Newton for some years; because the men who were doing the zoning by this time had become disgusted with the work; consequently, another gentleman's agreement to let the matter go that way. Now comes the present situation.

The stockholders of Martin Manufacturing Co. voted to liquidate. We liquidated in 60 days, all except the land and buildings. To liquidate we had to sell for cash. We had one cash offer. It was a great deal less than the Company was assessed for by the City but we thought it wise to take the offer. On account of being in a business zone it is necessary to have that section rezoned so these people can operate a blending plant.

There has been considerable opposition by perhaps 10% of the population of Newton, but some of the most leading citizens of this City see nothing wrong about this proposition, and when I say the leading citizens I mean exactly that.

Martin Manufacturing Co. employed from 135 to 155 people. This new organization expects to employ about 150 and they will all live in Newton. The merchants of West Newton felt the loss of income when the Plant was closed. Twenty-four of them have already written asking the Board of Aldermen to make some arrangements to have the Plant opened. Many more in West Newton would like to have written the same type of letter, but hesitated to do so fearing it might hurt their business.

There would be nothing disagreeable about the operation of the Plant. A Government inspector would be installed there at all times. It would not be even possible to steal a bottle of any of the product, matters are watched so carefully, and that applies to the managers as well as the employees. There would be no difference in the looks of the Plant. The receiving and shipping would be the same by truck—as it was with Martin Manufacturing Co. when they shipped twenty million dollars worth of goods and distributed three and one-quarter million dollars in wages.

If anything was ever due any organization this request of Martin Manufacturing Co. is certainly due them. In 1903, or 1904, before the Company was incorporated George J. Martin voluntarily doubled the tax assessment for the following year. He has lived in this City from his birth, at which time the City had $300 population. He has always been a strong advocate for anything that would benefit the City and has done many helpful things of which the citizens, with few exceptions, are unaware.

A large number of the very leading citizens of this City who have been approached on this matter are in favor of the petition and they feel its passage is due Martin Manufacturing Co. in order that the City act honorably with this Corporation.

MARTIN MANUFACTURING CO.
George J. Martin, President.

Fined for Having Stale Fish

Nicholas Voutirista, who operates a market at 558 Commonwealth ave., Newton Center, was fined $10 in the Superior Court at Cambridge yesterday on a charge of having for sale tainted fish. He had pleaded nolo, the complainants were Irving House, agent of the Newton Health Department and Agent Sheehan of the U. S. Marine Fisheries Division. Voutirista was fined $50 in the Newton court on February 25 on this charge and took an appeal.

Hens Stolen at West Newton

Eight hens were stolen from the hen house at the rear of the home of Mrs. John Riley, 141 Parmenter road, West Newton, last Friday. The hens were taken during the darkness of the early morning hours. The police are trying to find the thief.

Camp Day Prepares For 18th Season

The Newton Y. M. C. A. opens its 18th season of camping on June 26th for boys of the Newtons and vicinity. Never before in the history of Camp Frank A. Day have reservations been made as early as this year. The staff is nearing completion and many outstanding men have been secured to guide the boys during the summer.

Mr. Clyde G. Hess will again direct the camp, his thirteenth year in that capacity. Mr. C. Evan Johnson will return for his fifth year as Associate Director. Mr. Johnson, a graduate of Colby College, is a teacher-coach at Walpole High School. A new Director in Nature Study has been secured in Prof. Fred L. Daye of Colburn Classical Institute. For ten years Prof. Daye has been the active head of Nature Work in a camp on Lake Winnepesaukee.

The head-counselors of the three divisions will be directed by men of many years experience. The Senior Camp will be directed by Mr. Frank J. Polican. He has been Associate Director of Camp Sagamore, a large camp in New York State. With his ability as a director of orchestras, glee clubs, and musical productions his experience will be most helpful for boys who are musically inclined. In the Junior Camp, Kenneth P. Lane of Washington-Lee University, will return for his tenth year at Camp Day. His special training and ability fits him particularly well for this position. The Midgets will be more than pleased to know that Edward Campbell of Bowdoin College returns to head the division. Mr. Campbell started the Midget Camp three years ago and won complete confidence with both parents and campers in this division.

The Camp Physician's position is still undecided, but in all probability a registered M.D. who is specializing in children's diseases, will be secured. Other men to serve as counselors are as follows:

Arthur H. Clarke, Camp Secretary and Midget Counselor; Duncan Cotting, University of Maine; Gale Wisback, Newton High graduate and elected into the National Honor Society; William Fish, Bowdoin College; Harold Butt, Springfield College; Winslow D. Collier, Boston University; Stuart D. Collier, Springfield College; John Woodbury, Harvard University; Richard Clapp, Bowdoin College; George Bramhall, Huntington School graduate.

A new phase of camping this season will be the organization of a Boy Scout Unit. Through the co-operation of the Norumbega Council, a trained Counselor in Scouting will be placed on the staff. This will enable the boys to receive complete training in Scouting throughout the season. "Jim," as he is popularly known to the boys, will again take charge of horsemanship and eight horses will be available for the boys to learn the art of horsemanship and enjoy riding to the fullest degree.

The kitchen has a change in personnel. "Timmy," who has been the chef for nine years, will not return. In his place will be Mr. Will Perrier, formerly chef of the Sebago Lake Hotel at Sebago, Maine. His many years of experience and his congenial personality will add materially to that important department of camp. Omer LePage, the popular baker, will return in that capacity again and will also give instruction in baking.

The Senior tent line will be entirely new platform and mostly new tents. The tents will be two feet longer and a foot higher at the side walls. The platforms will be 14 x 20 giving a four-foot veranda on each tent. It is hoped that the Junior cabins will be started this summer and that will greatly improve the Junior clearing.

Last Fall the boats were all taken to the mill and completely overhauled. They will be put in the water shortly after the first of June so they will be in first class shape by the time the campers arrive. Seventeen canoes and two war canoes will all be repainted aluminum color and should present a most stately appearance on the Lake. The committee are considering the purchasing of two or three more sail boats which will give the camp a very fine fleet for its waterfront.

Visitors' Day has been changed from Saturday and Sunday to include Wednesday afternoons in addition. A program of activities for the family will be presented at that time. Another drastic change is the possibility of visitors to reserve places for meals at the camp. The front veranda at the dining hall will be reserved for parents and friends. Reservations for Saturday supper and Sunday meals will be possible.

Reservations are being made to such an extent that it will not be long before a waiting list will be established and places will be at a premium. The following boys have made reservations for the periods at camp: Arthur H. Appleton, David J. Ashton, Arthur E. Barnard, Jr., Richard Barron, Robert K. Barron, Robert Briggs, Frank C. Brimblecom, Warren C. Brimblecom, Albert F. Brock, Harold C. Bronsdon, William P. Bronsdon, Kenneth L. Chesley, Robert H. Clapp, William Davis, Donald L. Deming, Wilbur S. Deming, Jr., Richard N. M. C. O. F. To Give Scholarships At Boston College

The Mass. Catholic Order of Foresters as part of its Catholic Action program will award four year scholarships at Boston College to Catholic graduates of high schools in this State who will give evidence that they possess qualifications necessary for trained leadership. Competition for these scholarships will be open only to applicants who are qualified for admission to the Bachelor of Arts course at Boston College. Francis J. Roland of Boston has been appointed chairman of the committee which will award these scholarships. The M. C. O. F. will finance these scholarships at a Catholic Action Day at Boston College on September 28, the formal opening of the football season.

Newton Truant Officer Retires

Wesley J. Furbush of Davis ave., West Newton, truant officer for the Newton School Department for the past 37 years, will retire on June 14th because of having reached the age limit. Mr. Furbush has combined efficiency with humaneness and served faithfully. In addition to his duties as truant officer he has conducted an automobile sales business at West Newton for many years. His hobby in former years was horses. With his brothers he engaged in the training, racing and sale of horses before automobiles largely wiped out the horse business.

TRAVEL NOTES

A summer tour "Around the World" conducted by James Boring Company starts from New York on June 29th via the S. S. Majestic. It will cover 30,000 miles, 75 famous cities and scenes will be visited, 18 countries and islands and 4 continents are included in the itinerary. The cost, including shore trips and trans-continental rail travel is only $975. Tourists on this trip will be back in New York on September 8th. Full particulars may be had from the Newton Steamship Agency, 11 Centre avenue, Newton.

The magnificent steamship Resolute of the Hamburg-American Line will make a 5 days' cruise from New York to Bermuda leaving at 6 p. m. May 29th and arriving back on June 3rd. Rates are from $50 up.

The S. S. Resolute of the Hamburg-American-North German Lloyd leaves New York on June 29th on one of the most attractive cruises of the year. The 14,000 miles itinerary will take 47 days and will include Madeira, Morocco, Algeria, Malta, Sicily, Italy, France, Spain, Gibraltar, Portugal, Holland, Norway, North Cape, Fjords and Germany. The cost is $475 and up.

The S. S. Reliance of the same company sails from New York on June 28th for a 42 days' cruise of 12,000 miles which will include Iceland, Arctic Circle, North Cape, Baltic Sea, Sweden, Estonia, Finland, Russia, Norwegian Fjords, Denmark, France and Germany. The cost is only $450 up, according to stateroom.

For a real rest at small cost why not take a trip on the Savannah Line from Boston to Savannah. Eight days on the water, an outside stateroom, excellent meals; all for $53.

Why not take a trip to Bermuda on the superlative Furness Line steamers? The cost of a round trip from New York is $50.

If you want a long vacation on the ocean at moderate cost take a 22 to 25 day cruise on the Furness West Indies Line for $150. The trip includes stops at thirteen of the West Indies and also Trinidad and British Guiana. Among the places visited are St. Thomas, St. Croix, St. Martin, St. Kitts, Antigua, Montserrat, Guadeloupe, Dominica, Martinique, St. Lucia, Barbados, St. Vincent, Grenada, Trinidad and Demerara.

The Cunard-White Star Line will conduct a number of very alluring cruises during the coming summer. The huge Olympic will make four cruises to Quebec, the Saguenay and St. Lawrence Rivers and Bermuda on July 6, July 29, August 6 and August 17; all Saturdays at 5 p. m. from New York. It will return to New York from each cruise on Friday of the second week following. A stop will be made at Boston on each Sunday following the departure of these cruises from New York and passengers embarking at Boston will disembark on the Boston call of the succeeding cruise. The minimum fare from Boston for these long cruises is only $145. The Carinthia will make a North Cape-Russian cruise on June 29 of 45 days with a minimum rate of $450.

Full details of all these cruises and reservations may be obtained from the Newton Steamship Agency, 11 Centre avenue, Newton in the Postoffice Building. Phone Newton North 4501.

Child Injured; City Asked To Pay Doctor's Bill

Roscoe Hayes of 37 Lansing road, West Newton, has presented a claim of $82 against the city for medical expenses occasioned in the treatment of his son, Rolfe Hayes. The boy was pushed down an embankment at the yard of the Angier School in Waban during a morning recess period. The child came in contact with some sharp stumps as he fell down the embankment and received a severe gash in one of his thighs. After the accident a barrier was placed at the edge of the bank.

Accident Victim Held for Grand Jury

Thomas J. Healey, 24, of South Sydney street, Dorchester, was bound over to the Grand Jury last Friday and placed under bonds of $3000. He was charged with the larceny of an automobile. Healey was one of the two occupants of the car which crashed into a curbing at the Worcester turnpike and Parker street, Newton Center, on April 15. Healey received a head injury, and his companion, William Gordon of Boston, received a fractured skull. Gordon was under treatment at the Newton Hospital for about a week and was then transferred to the Boston City Hospital.

Vandalism At Newton Laundry

Someone entered the building of the Suburban Home Laundry, 225 California st., Nonantum, on Wednesday night and maliciously damaged the steam engine at the place by smashing two eccentric rods. The damage was estimated at several hundreds of dollars, as the laundry could not be operated during the day. Entrance was effected by forcing a rear door leading to the engine room. A laundry at Chelsea was recently the scene of more vandalism.

Present Purse to J. H. Shaughnessy

John H. Shaughnessy of Chestnut st., Newton Upper Falls, retired inspector of the Newton Police Department was given a pleasant surprise yesterday. He was asked to come to police headquarters and when he arrived there was presented with a purse of money by Chief Michael Hughes, who told the recipient that the gift had been contributed by his former associates as a token of their esteem.

Arrest Two Men For Fighting

Frank DiMarco of 161 Chapel street, Nonantum, and James Farina of Bridge street were arrested Sunday night by Patrolman Treddin after they had indulged in fistfights in that district. In the Newton court on Monday morning each was given a suspended sentence of 10 days in Middlesex County prison.

Award Contracts For Street Dept. Supplies

Bids for supplying the Newton Street Department with supplies were opened at the office of Street Commissioner Mahoney on Tuesday. The contracts were awarded to the lowest bidders who had conformed with the required specifications. Some contracts were split among several bidders when the bids were alike. Arrest Waltham Man For Car Theft

Raymond Vachon, 26, of Robbins place, Waltham, was arrested on Sunday morning by Newton police charged with stealing an automobile owned by Emil Caron of 22 Langley road, Newton Centre. He was arraigned in the Newton court on Monday and his trial continued until April 26. The car was stolen while parked near California and Nevada streets, Newtonville. It was recovered later in Waltham. Vachon stated that Caron had permitted him to take the car on previous occasions, as the two were friends. When Caron made the complaint that his car was stolen he did not know Vachon had taken it.

NOT YET CONVINCED

In justice to the petitioners for a change of zone in land in West Newton where it is proposed to install a "blending" plant we carry a news story in this issue stating the proponents' side of the case. The question is raised what is wrong with "blending" in a commercial way similar to what many individuals may be doing in their homes? Our reply is that the fact that it is planned to blend commercially is contrary to the desires of the best interests of the city. We can conceive of many things which are done privately by individuals which could be detrimental to the city as a whole if permitted commercially. And protection from undesirable commercial enterprises is the fundamental idea of zoning. Furthermore once a blending plant is licensed in Newton the voters of the city have little more to say. Should Newton at any time in the future return to a "no license" status the blending plant could continue to operate as it would be under Federal regulation. We sympathize with the owners of the existing plant and feel they are sincere in their desire to maintain Newton as a desirable place in which to live. It is, however, common knowledge that the agreement of any body is not binding upon future action by succeeding bodies in consideration of related matters. We are still unconvinced of the desirability of permitting the proposed change in zoning to enable any blending plant to operate in Newton.

NO NEED FOR A CHANGE

About two years ago the State legislature established an Emergency Public Works Commission consisting of three members. This commission considered all state projects which were to be handled through the co-operation with the Federal Administrator under the PWA plan. Governor Ely appointed the members of this commission which was to expire on June 30 of this year. Early in the present session of the legislature a bill was introduced extending the life of the commission in order to have machinery available to handle similar projects when additional Federal funds were provided. Governor Curley this week sent the bill back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that it be changed so that the terms of the present members would expire as originally intended on June 30. The life of the commission was to be prolonged and Governor Curley would appoint new members to the board. While the right of any executive to name officials to various positions upon the expiration of the term of office is one which is ordinarily upheld, many persons view this request of the Governor as another instance of dictatorship and desire for control. The present commission consists of men of exceptionally high calibre. No fault has been found nor, we believe, can be found with the administration of their duties. We can see no reason why there should be any change in the personnel of this commission.

SPEND YOUR MONEY IN NEWTON

Information furnished by the home survey recently conducted in Newton reveals the fact that local residents are prepared to expend a considerable amount of money on repairs and renovation of property. The advent of spring weather should serve as an additional stimulus to local business concerns. Now is the time to advertise with additional assurance that readers are interested in spending money upon their homes. And now is the time for readers to give particular attention to the advertisements of local merchants. Local merchants are prepared to give quality and service. The money you spend in Newton will provide Newton people with work, will provide Newton merchants with additional business which will result in general improvement in local conditions if sufficient volume is assured. Do your part and spend your money in Newton.

Chris Dahlberg in "Swift Rivers"—Meigs.

"Chris was not of just the same blood as the slower minded farmer folk of that region. It might account for his hunger for books and learning, a desire out of all proportion to the opportunities about him. He felt grandfather's keen eyes reading him and so tried to answer lightly. They had been speaking of Stuart Hale, of his search for gold and his chance remarks that there might be wealth, but no adventure in the project of cutting logs in the forest and floating them down the river to a market."

Jim Slater in "Away To Sea"—Meador.

"Tomorrow, March 5, 1821, would be his seventeenth birthday. He was big enough to take care of himself—and he thought, to make his own decisions. He had finished school. Now, if ever, was the time to break away—he felt his father came to depend on him too heavily. Jim had no way of knowing that scores of other Yankee boys at that very moment were sharing the same problem—boys who a quarter of a century later would be officers of the fast-selling merchant ships the world has ever seen—the American clipper fleet. Up the coast and down, from Bangor to Baltimore, the call of the sea was strong that Spring."

Chia, Stone Knife Boy in "Stone Knife Boy"—Malkus.

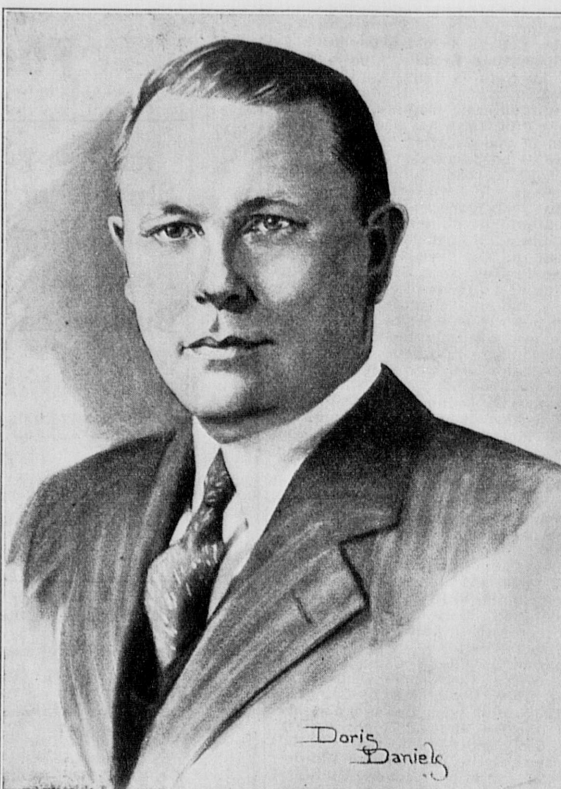

"Here he was on his way home, Chia, Stone Knife boy, of the Ti-guan race and of Taos pueblo. His steps quickened at the thought. He was sixteen now, very tall for his age, and would easily pass for twenty. The white man's school was forever behind him, the long hours of labor at tasks he already knew by heart, with little time to study books or learn the crafts he would have liked to know; lonely, hungry, always. There was never enough on the school table for a youth who was growing."

Harvey Cheyne in "Captains Courageous"—Kipling.

"Once more the door banged, and a slight, slim-built boy perhaps fifteen years leaned in over the high doorway. His pasty yellow complexion did not show well on a person of his years, and his look was a mixture of irresolution,

S. BRUCE BLACK

By F. F. MEYER

One of the real personalities of the Newtons is that of President S. Bruce Black of the Liberty Mutual Insurance Co. of Boston, Mass. Bruce Black has been connected with the organization for eighteen years, during which he has risen to his present position through the merit of his services alone. His able direction of affairs has proved repeatedly of greatest value to the office of President, while his long experience in the field has enabled him to bring a rich personal knowledge to all the problems of operation with which he is confronted. Mr. Black was born at Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin. Educated in the public schools, later entering Ripon College, and furthered his education in the University of Wisconsin, with a degree of A.B.

Mr. Black's career dates back to 1912 with the Industrial Commission bravado, and a very cheap smartness. He was dressed in a cherry-colored blazer, knickerbockers, red stockings and bicycle shoes with a red flannel cap at the back of the head. After whistling between his teeth, as he eyed the company, he said in a loud high voice: "Say, it's thick outside. You can hear the fish-boats squawking all around us. Say wouldn't it be great if we ran one down?"

"I'm Jack Page," he told her hastily. He became suddenly conscious of his new white trousers, and gave his white-spotted blue a slight tweak. "They seem to have started the music up. Let's go in and dance, shall we?" "Do you know," he told her, "this is the very first time I've ever tried to dance in my life." A moment later a young chap roughly took his arm. "May I cut?" he demanded. As in a dream, he turned and walked back through the guests and out on to the porch. There seemed to be no one in the world but himself and this newly discovered girl."

Ood-leuk the Wanderer in "Ood-leuk the Wanderer"—Lide.

"But as though to compensate the small, runty, fur-clad youngster for his timidity, Nature had made a strange gift to Ood-leuk. She had given him a huge crystal, a thing Eskimos are not given to possessing. When at the close of the long, dark winter, these North folk crept up out of their underground huts to watch the spring break-up of the flocks and the towering bergs riding grandly out to sea, the average Eskimo saw only ice—ice that perhaps had a meal or two in it for him. Ood-leuk saw the majestic, drifting bergs as huge crystal crafts, sailing—where? He longed desperately to know what far waters the sea bergs rode, what lands they touched upon. But his imagination could only grope. His was so narrow a world."

Antony Peel in "Back of Time"—Ross.

"Antony Peel came out on deck and draped himself over the railing of the ship that was taking him to Australia. He draped easily over such things as chair arms and railings. During his fourteen years he had accomplished a great deal in length of limb and size of hands and feet, but so far the general effect was a rather loose framework. It would be rounded out with muscles and flesh later on."

of Wisconsin, until 1915, coming to Boston the same year with the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company of Boston until 1917. Then with the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company, Boston, in capacity of Treasurer. In 1919 he was made Vice President and elected to the office of General Manager in 1923. In the year 1924 was elected President. Some of his other activities were: Treasurer of the United Mutual Fire Insurance Company, Boston, and in 1924 he was made Vice President and General Manager. He was Director and member of the Executive Committee of Boston Manufacturers Mutual Fire Insurance Co. In 1914 he became a Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society of America, then Director and former Chairman of the American Mutual Alliance. He was also Director and former President of the National Association of Mutual Casualty Companies, and Director of the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

The Club affiliations are: Grace Burn Country Club, Waban Neighborhood Club, Algonquin Club, University Club, Exchange Club, Commercial Club.

A brief resume in general of Mr. Black's activities: Entire business life since graduation from college has been connected with insurance. Beginning with a deep interest in industrial accidents and workmen's compensation legislation since the inception of such legislation in this country, entered insurance work as statistician and later actuary. From that into financial and executive work but always keenly interested in the technical phases of the business.

The Liberty Mutual Insurance Company—organized in Massachusetts in 1912—originally wrote only workmen's compensation business but now writes all forms of liability and casualty insurance and operates throughout the United States. Workmen's compensation insurance continues, however, to be its principal line of insurance with automobile insurance second in importance. The Liberty Mutual is now the largest mutual insurance company, other than life, in the country. The primary purpose of insurance is the prevention of loss and this company has always been a leader in industrial and public safety taking great pride in its extensive laboratory and field organization devoted to safety.

Mr. Black married Adele Bergner of Sheboygan, Wisconsin. They have three sons, Robert B., Wallace G., and Donald T., all in Newton schools. This little family is the real hobby of Mr. Black's life.

ONE THING... AND ANOTHER

Willing and Waiting

Nothing serious in not following the crowd. On the other hand it may be an indication of originality, independence of thought or a form of initiative. Still, I must confess to a feeling of loneliness because so many people are planning gardens and I'm not. Am no great shakes and never was at planting, weeding and watering, although extremely fond of visiting gardens and admiring buds and blossoms.

It makes me sort of lonesome when I see others taking out books on gardening from the Free Library and to listen to groups of beginners discussing elementary features or experts exchanging advanced ideas on what to raise and how to raise it. Most every magazine has some illustrated references to designs for rock gardens, flower beds and whatnot.

The air is loaded with ambition, visions of Nature's handiwork, expectancy and hope and I'm not in it. Heigho! With drooping spirits I can only pledge to do my bit. If somebody is good enough to present me with a nosegay I promise to thank them and wear it on my coat lapel.

"Householder" or "Patron"

At the risk of being called a "boon dogger", which, I understand, is the New Dealers' name for carping critics, I feel I must comment on one of the new postal regulations. Under it letter carriers may bring to your door a circular letter, free samples of this or that and other matter, none of which bears the name of an individual but is intended for you. Dispensing with the customary formality is said to mean a great saving for the sender. The expense of typing or writing names and addresses, said to be considerable, is saved. Meanwhile encouragement is given to firms to use the mails thereby increasing revenue for the Government.

Instead of yourself you become "Patron" or "Householder" on "Letter Carrier Route Blank-Local". The scheme seems simple and for all I know may prove profitable. I am told that the letter carriers or postal authorities are expected to use discretion in the distribution of such matter. Please don't quote me on this but I have an idea it means that letter carriers become sort of assistants, without pay, of course, to the firm that happens to be going after new business.

On the face of it we seem to lose our identity and that somehow is a blow at our pride. At the same time it strikes me that people who sell lists of prospective customers to large firms will have no market for their wares. Furthermore, there will not be a great need for city directories in this connection and that isn't so good. But what are you going to do about it?

Flying Over Newton

It was my privilege to see the great marathon race, Patriots' Day from an airplane. As a guest of Mr. John H. Shobe of the American Airways, East Boston Airport, I looked down, upon the course from a height of virtually 2000 feet. Of course it was impressive, but so was Mr. Shobe's skill in handling the plane. Equally fascinating was the sky-view of Newton, the homes of my friends and neighbors and even my own front door.

Mr. Shobe was an ace flyer in the war and today is regarded as one of the foremost in New England. He drives several planes. The one he selected for our trip was a Stinson Junior—the newest type. It is easy to understand why Mr. Shobe is called upon to fly with business men who want a quick, safe trip or to make important emergency journeys. The wings of the plane were above us and the view was in no way obstructed. There was no vibration, no sound from the motor. Simply floating peacefully over the world seated in a nice comfortable armchair.

Appreciating Newtonians' interest in their own city Mr. Shobe provided plenty of close-ups. The most easily discerned building of my own neighborhood was the Bigelow School. Next I caught Channing Church, and the whole of Newton Corner.

"How does it look from up there?" I was later asked. And truthfully I replied, "Newton looks good to me from any point."

Not Interested

Admitting that I am a flibberti glibbet, there are happenings nowadays that fall somehow to stir my interest and I would really like to know if I'm alone. I shall be brief as off-hand I can think only of these:

The high blood pressure of certain people caused by Newton's municipal election which doesn't take place until next December.

The movement to abolish county government.

The rivalry between Plymouth and Provincetown as to the landing of the Pilgrims.

Where Do They Get It?

It isn't that the children of today displease me. Far from a grouch I am puzzled by the things they say. Sort of an old fuddy-duddy point of view, I'll admit. The most recent cause of my amazement was an eight-year-old miss who is taking piano lessons and doing very well. Has learnt two or three short pieces which she plays all through.

The other afternoon this bewitching young lady was running over one of the pieces while Mother sat nearby. When Daughter had played it over once, Mother said, "Now play that again and play it softly. You're playing it too loud." Daughter played it again but even louder than before. "I said softer," Mother admonished. "Now once more." The third rendition was the loudest of all, so noisy in fact that Mother put her hands to her ears.

There was a pause and then Mother spoke severely. "Why do you defy me?" she asked, sternly. Daughter tossed her pretty little head. "You're not going to run my life," she snapped.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Probation After Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 28.

The Golden Text is: "God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me" (Psalms 49:15).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. . . . He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death" (Revelation 2:10, 11).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "It the change called death destroyed the belief in sin, sickness, and death, happiness would be won at the moment of dissolution, and be forever permanent; but this is not so. Perfection is gained only by perfection. . . . The sin and error which possess us at the instant of death do not cease at that moment, but endure until the death of these errors. To be wholly spiritual, man must be sinless, and he becomes thus only when he reaches perfection" (p. 290).

Rescue Man From Burning Auto

Arthur Martel of 599 Commonwealth avenue, Newton Center, had a narrow escape Saturday night about 9:20 when the car he was driving hit a tree on Commonwealth avenue near College road, overturned and caught fire. Passing motorists extricated Martel from the burning car. He was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance. He received a cut over his right eye and other injuries. Firemen from Engine 9, Chestnut Hill, extinguished the blaze before the car was severely damaged. Martel said he had to avert his car sharply to avoid a collision with an approaching car.

Uncle Sam's Budget —and yours.

A BALANCED BUDGET is just as important to you as it is to Uncle Sam. For balancing a budget is simply a matter of planning in advance so you won't spend more than you take in.

That's the way to keep out of debt and also to build up a savings account for emergency needs.

Keeping the family budget requires no bookkeeping knowledge. Try it!

Glassware History Dates

From Ancient Egyptians

It is a far cry from the gourds and crude clay vessels of the distant past to the beautiful glass work of the Venetians, the Swedish, and the English today, observes a writer in the Chicago Tribune. During the First century, A. D., the Egyptians began to mold glass vessels that were muddy in texture, fragile, and anything but uniform in shape, but that were widely used in their own country. They passed on their rather crude craftsmanship to the Romans, with the expansion of the empire, and it was from Rome that the Venetians learned the trade. Venice, however, lifted glass making into the realm of the arts and has never to this day been surpassed in the craft. So jealously did she guard the secrets of the exquisite, roseate-hued bubbles that for centuries no glass blower was allowed to leave the country and hence the other European nations could not learn her formulae. Venetian craftsmen were held virtual prisoners on the Island of Murano.

But about the middle of the Sixteenth century the ban was raised and they were allowed to travel in England, Spain, France, and Flanders. Their fame had preceded them, and everywhere they were hailed with enthusiasm. Some of the glassmakers joined factories in the places they visited, while others started concerns of their own.

Dominion of Canada So

Named to Please U. S.

In the first drafts of the British North America act the title of the new confederation was "Kingdom of Canada" and this was the proposal of Sir John Macdonald and other Canadian leaders. This name was opposed by the British foreign secretary, Lord Stanley, as being likely to offend the susceptibilities of the United States, according to a writer in the Detroit News. Finally the name "Dominion" was suggested to a conference of delegates, the inspiration having come from a verse in the Bible (Psalms 72, verse 9 or Zechariah 9, verse 10).

Authorities differ on the origin of the name "Canada." Charlevoix explained that an Iroquois word "kanata" meant "collection of huts" and was mistaken by early explorers for the name of the country. Father Hennepin said that the Spaniards on landing were disappointed with the country and expressed their feelings by calling it "El capá di nada," meaning "Cape Nothing." A similar story is told with regard to the Portuguese who explored the St. Lawrence. Another Indian derivation is from "Kan" for mouth and "ada" for river, originally the country at the mouth of the St. Lawrence.

Rain Tree Based on Truth

One black mark has been partly erased from the records of the early explorers who told the tale of the "rain tree" which supplied water for the entire island on which it grew. Scientists have discovered that at one time an enormous tree grew on the uplands of the island of Ferro, in the Canaries, and was probably responsible for the story. The uplands on this island are about 5,000 feet above sea level and so are often covered with clouds. Because of the dense foliage this tree must have had it is thought it would have been possible for it to gather enough moisture from the passing clouds to cause considerable water to drip from the leaves. Such dripping is probably what sowed the seed from which the story grew.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Turtles Menace to Wild Life

As study of the food habits of the snapping turtle becomes more extended plenty of evidence is uncovered substantiating the belief that this turtle is a menace to fish life of the waters it inhabits as well as to the young of aquatic birds and animals. Snapping turtles killed in spring usually show that they have dined well on the spawn of all kinds of game fish and not infrequently their stomachs contain fingerling bass, bluegills, perch and other fish species. They have been known to grab young wild ducks by the leg, draw them under water and devour them at their leisure. In fact, they will take anything that swims and looks like food. Lakes infested with snapping turtles as a rule are poor fishing waters.

Damon and Pythias

According to Greek legend, Damon and Pythias were two close friends who lived in Syracuse during the early part of the Fourth century B. C. Pythias was condemned to death by the tyrant Dionysius of Syracuse. He was granted leave to return to his home in order to put his business affairs in order after his friend Damon agreed to remain and be executed in case Pythias did not return. Pythias was delayed and Damon was led to execution, but just as the death stroke was to be dealt Pythias came upon the scene. Dionysius was so favorably struck by the friendship between the two men that he pardoned them both. Damon and Pythias are proverbial in literature for their inseparable friendship.

Strange Collection

The world's largest collection of rare paper money, the "Avoimore" collection in London, comprises 40,000 bank notes issued by more than 100 countries during several centuries. It includes the note with the highest face value—five million trillion marks—and the oldest note in the world—issued in China about 700 years ago.

COURT TASTER

Dave gave the new hand a plateful of mushrooms for supper. He had gathered a bucketful in a new paddock. "Isn't any one else having mushrooms for supper?" the new hand asked, noticing that he was the only one eating them.

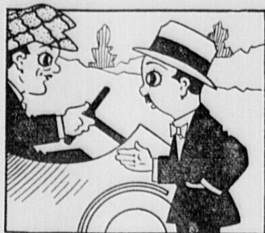

"We like them for breakfast best," Dave told him.

Next morning, Dave went to the new hand's room and asked him how he felt.

"I feel splendid," was the reply.

Dave turned and walked to the kitchen. Putting his head to the door, he shouted: "It's all right, Sarah, you can cook the rest of them mushrooms for breakfast."—Smith's Weekly.

ALONG THE WAY

"How long did it take you to learn to run a motor car?"
"Oh, three or four."
"Three or four weeks?"
"No, motor cars."

Grab Him!

A member of a club has the habit of partaking of his soup in boisterous fashion. The noise upsets the other members, but they are too courteous to protest. One day, however, when the offensive sounds were at fortissimo, a young and nervous member strode toward the culprit and said: "May I help, sir?"
"Help!" retorted the partaker of soup. "I don't need any help."
"Sorry," said the youngster. "I thought perhaps you might wish to be dragged ashore."—Answers Magazine.

Simplified Economics

"What kind of money do you prefer?"
"Paper money," answered Senator Sorghum.
"For what reason?"
"As a matter of fairness. Folks who have gold mines want gold and those with silver mines want silver. I happen to be interested in a paper mill."

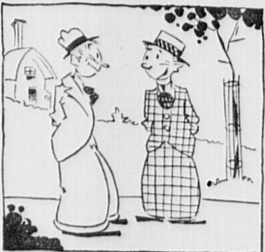

Trying It On

A young man walked into the bank manager's office with an air of great confidence.
"May I deposit £10 here at the end of the month?" he asked.
"Most certainly," said the manager.
"We'd be delighted."
The young man's face lit up.
"Good," he said. "And could you let me have a fiver of it now?"—Answers Magazine.

Aim Was Poor

The small lad of the family had acted so badly that punishment of some sort was necessary.
"Jimmy," commanded his mother, "find a switch and bring it to me." Shortly after the bright, young man returned.
"I can't find a switch, ma," he reported, "but here's a big rock you can throw at me."

PRACTICING

"Misery loves company."
"Yes, and some folks persist in acting as though they were married to it."

A Polite Young Man

The young man was presented to his fiancée's mother.
Mother—Good morning.
Young Man—I seem to recognize your face—have we met before?
Mother—Oh, yes, I was the lady who stood beside you in the tram yesterday while you sat with your face in your newspaper.

Gives Her His All Now

"Do you still bring home flowers and candy to your wife?" the young man asked the old married one.
"Heck, no!" retorted he; "when you have been married as long as I have all you bring home to your wife is your pay envelope."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Tactful Procedure

"How's the war on crime getting on in Crimson Gulch?"
"Fine," answered Cactus Joe. "Any professional criminal that shows up around here is given a bouquet and told he can either take it home himself or let the undertaker pin it on him."

Cunard-White Star Ships To Call At Irish Ports

Beginning with the Samaria sailing on April 19 Cunard White Star will inaugurate a regular Galway, Belfast and Liverpool Service which is scheduled to continue throughout the entire season. Three ships will sail on this route, the other two being the Carinthia and the Franconia.

Galway, in the center of the western coast of Ireland, is an excellent point from which to quickly reach all parts of the Irish Free State. Belfast is on the eastern coast of the central part of Northern Ireland, with railroad and bus connections to all parts of that country.

Westbound this service, leaving Liverpool, will call at Belfast and Galway. The ships will call at Boston both eastbound and westbound. The ships on this route are among the finest in the 20,000-ton class. The Franconia makes a cruise around the world every winter, while this season the Carinthia sailed weekly in the cruising service to Nassau, B. W. I. The Cobh-Liverpool service, maintained at present by the Seythia and Laconia, will be augmented during the entire season by the motorships Georgia and Britannic, whose new ports of call are Cobh, Havre, Southampton and London.

Bullet Grazes Woman in House At West Newton

A bullet fired by Francis Clarke, 17, of 32 William street, West Newton, from a 22 calibre rifle crashed through a window of the house at 323 River street last Saturday afternoon and grazed the chest of Mrs. Rose Toher of that address. Mrs. Toher notified the police after her narrow escape from serious injury and Patrolmen Dungan and McDonough went to the neighborhood to investigate. They learned that the Clarke youth had been shooting at bottles on a tree stump in his yard which is about 150 yards distant from the Toher house. The police seized the rifle but returned it on Sunday.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY

The following books have recently been added to the Art Department of the Main Library.

The Followers of William Blake—Binyon.

A sketchy account of Blake and a few of his followers precedes the section of the book given over to the works of these artists. Of the seventy-nine illustrations, seven are in color and the remainder in monochrome.

Hand-book printing on fabrics—Corbin.

A short but practical and comprehensive treatment of how to hand-block print on fabrics. The order of treatment takes up tools, designing, preparation of blocks, mixing dyes, printing, steaming and finishing.

Drawing made easy—Lederer. A book full of simple helps and suggestions for teaching drawing in the grade schools. The individual amateur will also find it helpful.

Venetian houses and details—Wiener.

Practically a picture book of Venetian houses. The one hundred sixty-eight plates give almost entirely the exterior of the houses, with due attention to some of the most interesting details.

How to identify oriental rugs—Wolfe. A condensed reference for the amateur, in reading material, and plates in color, as well as black and white. Two maps show the places from which the oriental rugs come.

"Parents' Night," which was held Thursday evening, April 11, was a well attended and enjoyable occasion. The program in the assembly hall consisted of a concert by our school orchestra and short talks on subjects of educational interest by Nancy Ryan, Eugene Waller, William Holmes, and Mr. Pearson, Principal of the School. John Ryan was master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers. After that, the guests visited the different classrooms, and there were many interesting exhibits which had been prepared by the different clubs.

The E. R. A. orchestra played in the assembly of Wednesday, April 10th.

The City of Newton Forestry Department is doing some landscape gardening around the building.

The Travel Club had an interesting trip the Thursday before vacation. The members went to visit the Salada Tea Co. in Boston, were shown many interesting articles and processes, and were presented with pamphlets explaining the tea industry.

The girls of groups 1C and 1D under the direction of Miss Spencer entertained Miss Chase and Miss MacLean at luncheon on Thursday, April 11.

The exhibition cabinet contains a very interesting display which was prepared and arranged by the Stamp Club, the officers of which are Harold Haffey, president; Thomas O'Toole, vice president; Donald C. secretary; and James Melcher, treasurer.

The Photography Club has made plans to take, and sell, pictures of different classes and groups in the school.

At the State Principals' Conference, Mr. Pearson was one of the speakers. This was held in Framingham on Thursday, April 18. Mr. Pearson's subject was "The Newton Marking System."

The following took part in the program presented in Assembly on Wednesday, April 24, assisted by the Boys' Chorus and the Orchestra:

Edward Emerson, Robert Davenport, Jack Sundborg, Clinton Wilson, Edward Morgan, Jack Lowell, William Ford, Burton Thornquist, Leon Kruger, Virginia Weston, Clinton Wilson, Albert Tashjian, Dorothy Jones, Bernice Applebaum, William Ford, Margaret Dwight, Philip Flick, Hazel Henderson, Frances Carroll, Barbara Thurston, Gladys Smith.

Piano accompaniments were played by Harriet Tashjian, and Mary Louise Shadman.

The Boy Scouts of Troop 11 are to give a Jamboree Minstrel Show and Entertainment on Saturday evening, May 4, at 7:30 o'clock in the gymnasium of the Bigelow Junior High School. The troop is raising money to send a delegate to the National Jamboree at Washington, D. C. There will be a small admission charge.

Weeks Jr. High

Coach MacConnell held practice for the baseball squad each day during vacation and has whipped into shape a team that shows every promise of a most successful baseball season.

The first games of the class leagues were played on Monday, April 22. Each home team will play two games, and eliminations will take place during the second round.

The third in a series of broadcasts by pupils of the Weeks School was given over Station WBZ on Monday afternoon, April 22. Robert Nichols acted as master of ceremonies and announced the various speakers. Peter Geisler spoke on Our Student Council; Ada Merriam on The Student Patrol; Dawn Eaton, How We Organize Our Classes; Lucius Carpenter, The Boys' Leader Corps; and William Brittain, The Home Room Organization. The program was concluded by a medley arranged and played by the Harmonica Band, made up of the following: Henry DeRusha, accordion player and leader; James Basler, John Gardner, William Hurley, Douglas King, Parker Reidy, Stanley Squiers, Richard Stanley, and James Pierce.

At the April 24th assembly the Newton E. R. A. Orchestra presented its fourth concert of the season. Earle Vaughan introduced Mr. Hamilton, who was directing in the absence of Dr. Stone.

Day Jr. High School

On Friday, April 26th, the F. A. Day will play host to a group of superintendents who will visit and have luncheon in the building. They are Messrs. Warren of Newton, Scully of Brockton, Gruver of Lynn, Stoddard of Providence, Benet of Manchester, Belisle of Fall River and Young of Worcester.

Dr. Samuel Lindsay of the Brookline Baptist Church spoke at the April 24th assembly on "Conditions in the World Today," limiting himself especially to a discussion of Russia, Germany, and the United States. Because of the clarity with which he presented his thoughts, pupils were able to leave the auditorium with a more definite idea of the situation in those countries.

Mr. R. V. Burkhard, Miss Sadie Johnstone, Mr. Frank Tanner, and Miss Eva Grenier have been attending some of the meetings of the Junior-Senior High School Conference at Framingham this week.

The annual spring concert of the F. A. Day band and orchestra will be held in the school auditorium on May 3rd at eight o'clock in the evening. As usual a delightfully varied program has been planned by Mr. Frank Tanner, who is in charge of the instrumental music of the school. Feature numbers will include "Tableaux of Youth," solos, group specialties, an emcee solo by Mr. Charles Spaulding, director of music for the city. The Radio Club, under the leadership of Mr. Alden Reed and Miss Helen Spelman will also provide entertainment. Miss Alice Kennedy is in charge of the tableaux.

Proceeds of the concert will go to the general fund. A few of the things for which the Fund has been used this year are: to buy sewing materials for pupils unable to buy their own; to supply glasses for needy pupils; to obtain supplies and books for the Library; to buy special equipment for the stage such as lights; to pay for certain minor repairs and to provide new equipment such as bulletin boards.

Warren Jr. High

The boys' baseball season is off to a good start. Eighty-five reported on Monday for first practice, with more expected as weather conditions improve. Several veterans were on hand to form a strong nucleus. Varsity and junior varsity teams will soon be organized, and class leagues will be formed for all others who wish to play.

Warren's second annual Pops concert and dance is planned for Friday evening, May 10. Only a limited number of tickets and table reservations will be available. The sale opens on Monday, April 29.

Junior II will hold its second social on Friday, April 26, with Wells Brown, class president, taking charge. Lillian Rallsbach will act as mistress of ceremonies introducing the eighth graders who will participate in the Amateur Day entertainment. The program will be followed by refreshments and dancing, with music furnished by Alden Estes and his orchestra.

Warrenites have been very much interested in the Chinese exhibit which was loaned to the school by Peter and Eric Wilson of Yenching, China. The Wilsons have been spending the year in Newton while their father, Earl O. Wilson, professor of chemistry at Yenching University, is studying ceramics at M. I. T. The exhibit includes a Mongolian hat, a mandarin coat, several ornamental boxes, knives with carved handles, desks, money etc. Of particular interest is a hat generally worn by the wealthier classes. It is formed like a skull cap, covered with black silk, and decorated on top with a knot of peculiar structure. The majority of the Chinese, however, wear a cone-shaped affair made of hard woven straw. We are told that these hats afford excellent protection against the sun.

Community Playhouse Offers Attractive Programs

Clark Gable and Constance Bennett in "After Office Hours" and Maurice Chevalier's "Folies Bergere" have been combined to make an unusually attractive week-end program at the Community Playhouse, Wellesley Hills. In "After Office Hours" we find Clark Gable essaying another of his popular serio-comic roles this time as a smart, "hard-boiled" newspaperman with an ingratiating sense of humor. Constance Bennett provides romantic interest as his socialite society editor while an equal number of laughs go to Stuart Erwin as the ever eager news photographer and to Billie Burke as the fluttry prospective mother-in-law.

"Folies Bergere" deserves credit for cleverly and unobtrusively combining an amusing plot with a tenuous and elaborate musical show. Merle Oberon, soon to be seen at the Playhouse in "The Scarlet Pimpernel," and Ann Southern both are victims of the indomitable Chevalier charm, a combination which delightfully becomes them.

In prospect for next week at the Playhouse are two combinations of features that should prove popular. For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday there is "Society Doctor" together with the well reviewed comedy derived from the Thorne Smith novel, "Night Life of the Gods." For the latter half of the week there is the Ann Harding film "Enchanted April" and Warner Baxter in "Hell in the Heavens."

Reliable Advice On Care of Lawns And Gardens Available

Believing that service to customers is an important part of up to date merchandising the Campbell Hardware Company, 261 Washington street, Newton, has arranged through a former extension service agent, who worked in co-operation with the Massachusetts State College and the United States Department of Agriculture, to give reliable advice on care of lawns and gardens and will test soils free of charge.

This former extension service employee, now a member of the Campbell Co. staff, was for eight years editor of Middlesex County Bulletin in Agriculture, and for many years assisted Agricultural County Agents in 4-H Garden Club work.

Any person desiring advice on what type of fertilizer to use—what lawn seed to plant—how much lime to use or what to do to control insect pests or plant diseases may obtain helpful information by calling at the C. H. Campbell Hardware Store, 261 Washington street, Newton.

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

The Lasell Chorus of one hundred and sixty-five voices, with Mr. Ralph Talley as soloist, gave a concert at the Auburndale Club House on the evening of the twenty-fourth.

On Tuesday afternoon the class in Asiatic Civilization was entertained with pictures of Japan and China shown by Mr. Goffe, at the home of Mrs. Leonard Oterbridge.

The Home Economics Club met for dinner at The Barn on Thursday evening, after which Miss Alice Floyd and Miss Isabelle LaCose of the Class of 1934 spoke.

Guest speakers for the week are Dr. Kirtley Mather and Dr. Phillips Endicott Osgood of Boston.

year, and who are taking their club work seriously, not alone as a gathering place for sociability, or for listening in too many cases to so-called well-informed speakers drone on with absurd and often unintelligent theories and conclusions drawn of their marvelous research(?), this announcement does not awaken enthusiasm.

It is stated that instead of these reports there will be three days, of "hearing the interpretations of well-informed speakers on the serious affairs of the world today, with the hope of undertaking some line of activity that will promote the world's progress."

It is further announced that the customary Reception, always a brilliant affair because of the lovely gowns and flowers, "with its long-extended process of handshaking," also is to be dropped.

General Federation

TRIENNIAL. More than 2,000,000 women, through their elected delegates, will declare their stand on birth control legislation, lynching, universal fingerprinting, and other national controversial topics when the General Federation of Women's Clubs meets in Triennial Convention, June 4th to 12th, inclusive, in Detroit. All indications point to a banner attendance which may reach 5,000. Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, president, will preside over all sessions.

Eight resolutions will be offered for action. That on birth control calls for endorsement of "the principle of Federal legislation for the dissemination of scientifically regulated birth control information." The anti-lynching resolution, presented by the State Federations of Virginia and Louisiana, declares the Federation's unequivocal opposition to the practice of lynching, and "urges its member State Conventions to apply such educational activities as will uphold laws prohibiting this iniquitous practice." Endorsement will be asked for the "nation-wide campaign for universal fingerprinting as a protective measure for every citizen and resident of these United States."

Clubwomen will be asked, in another resolution, to study the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States empowering Congress to grant to residents of the District of Columbia the same voice in their National Government and access to the Courts of the United States as the residents of a State enjoy. Another reiterates the Federation's endorsement of the adherence of the United States to the World Court; one opposes all forms of dictatorship, including Communism and Fascism; one urges Federations "to take up with State and local health authorities the establishment of more effective cancer control," and another urges co-operation with State and local health and child welfare authorities in securing appropriations "to enable states, cities and counties to obtain financial aid from the Federal Government for health and child welfare."

Some of the country's most outstanding personalities, including Miss Josephine Roche, assistant secretary of the Treasury of the United States; Dr. Glenn Frank, president of the University of Wisconsin; and Senator Thomas P. Gore, of Oklahoma, will speak at the sessions and in the Forums, when speakers of opposing beliefs will present their views, their addresses to be followed by open discussions.

The Forum, "Present Political Trends," will feature representatives of the Republican, Democratic, and Socialist parties. The Democratic party will be represented by Miss Roche, who holds a key position in the Administration. In a recent poll, Miss Roche was voted the nation's most prominent business woman.

"Present Economic Trends" is the subject of the second Forum. Speakers will be the Honorable Blackwell Smith, acting general counsel of the National Industrial Recovery Administration; the Honorable James A. Wilson, representing the American Federation of Labor; and a speaker from the office of the United States Chamber of Commerce, as yet unnamed.

The Foreign Policy of the United States will be discussed from three angles.

Dr. Glenn Frank will speak on the program of the department of Education.

The department of Public Welfare will have as its speaker, Senator Gore, the eloquent statesman.

The Rabbi Solomon Goldman, of Chicago, will be presented on the American Citizenship program.

Mrs. Genevieve Forbes Herrick and Dr. Tracy Ferris Tyler of Washington, D. C., will be presented by the Press and Publicity department. Mrs. Herrick is a Washington columnist for the American Newspaper Alliance, and was for many years a correspondent from the Capital for the Chicago Tribune.

Dr. Tyler is secretary and research director of the National Committee on Education by Radio. The National Broadcasting Company is giving an hour Thursday, June 6th, at 11 a. m., for a coast-to-coast broadcast, the principal feature of which will be the address by the president, Mrs. Poole. There may be another broadcast on the closing night of the Convention, with a farewell from the retiring president and a greeting from the new president. The election of all new officers of the General Federation will take place June 10th, with eleven states offering candidates.

Arrested For Drunken Driving

William Phillips of Winthrop street, Clinton was arrested at 2 a. m. Wednesday by Patrolmen Goddard and Smith charged with driving a car while under the influence of liquor. He was arraigned in the Newton court and his case continued to May 1.

Tax Commr. Long Speaks On Problems

The problem of Massachusetts taxation was set with startling vividness before the people of Newton on last Tuesday evening in an address by the State Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation, Mr. Henry F. Long, at a meeting of the Newton League of Women Voters. Mrs. Walter Hartstone presided at the meeting which was held in the Newton Centre Women's Clubhouse.

The total debt of the State, meaning all governmental units, is now $392,000,000 having shown a constant increase during several years. The revenue of the State in 1934 was less by $38,000,000 than in 1930. The demands for the government of the state were greater with each year. What is the solution of the problem? This was left to the consideration of each citizen.

Government expenses are $1,000,000.00 a day—$365,000,000.00 a year. Outlay of 78 days—$78,000,000.00 goes for education. From earliest colonial days it has been recognized that while education of the people does not bring in tangible profits, its intangible profits are great. An educated people is better fitted for self government. Government is for service, not for profit.

Outlay of 54 days—$54,000,000.00 goes for the care of the unfortunate and distressed under general public welfare activities. From our beginnings the aid of such persons has been recognized as proper charge upon the State. That can not be cut out. In general it is administered economically.

Outlay of 52 days—$52,000,000.00 goes for debt service, payment of principal and interest. This could only be reduced by a more rapid paying off of the debt. We are required to pay off the portion of the debt annually but new borrowings have far outstripped these payments.

Outlay of 48 days—$48,000,000.00 goes for highways. There are more demands for increase of highways than for saving along this line. In general proposals for savings are made by those who would not be affected by the suggested economy or by those not thoroughly familiar with conditions.

These are the large items; beyond them are eleven to twelve millions for care of the insane, seven to eight millions for correctional care, six to seven millions for miscellaneous items relating to those unfortunately placed under one cause or another. It is desirable to attempt the care of these unfortunate in their homes, if they have homes?

Beyond these large items are various smaller ones which make up the total.

We have spoken of governmental debt. While we are familiar with the taking over of real estate by the city for tax titles it will be a surprise to many that every piece of real estate in the city is a pledge for the city debt and if necessary could be taken over by creditors upon a borrowing being defaulted.

Still less do we realize that every piece of real estate in the state is a pledge for the State debt. Already of the $6,000,000,000 of real estate $25,000,000 are held for tax titles, representing alone about $800,000,000 of taxable value of real estate.

Another problem has been created by those of us who for the sake of personal saving have discharged employees or by restricted purchases have curtailed or destroyed the income of business men so that they have discharged persons who have thus become a liability of the State.

These being the needs, how shall they be met? We have practically no sources of income which have not been taxed for hundreds if not thousands of years. First among them stand real estate and tangible personal property—things that can be seen and therefore are regarded as clear indications of wealth. Real estate has the further advantage, from the point of view of the collector, that it can not be removed from the state. What has been said of the amount of real estate already taken for tax titles indicates that it can not bear a larger burden than it is at present carrying. To add further would be destroying the thought of the people—the aspiration for ownership of a home.

Can we place a property assessment on other forms of property? Will that drive them from the state?

Can we borrow? Other states are doing that, are accepting a deficit or are giving up desirable activities. The credit of Massachusetts stands so high because her borrowings are limited.

Can we lay a tax upon all the people?

The situation having thus been described, the audience was asked to suggest solutions.

1. Might a small additional income be had by laying a poll tax upon women? That was proposed this year and strongly opposed on the ground that it would usually be paid by some male relative as comparatively few women have independent income. It is an expensive tax to collect, costing about 90 cents for every $2.

2. How about biennial legislative sessions? States which have them sometimes supplement by special sessions which of course reduce the savings. Furthermore, the people have the right to present their needs and air their grievances. A considerable saving might be made by limitation on the introduction of bills. Any bill introduced has to be read and printed. Hearings have to be held before a joint committee; it must then be discussed in each house and finally acted upon. Congress has a committee which passes upon bills presented and throws out those not deserving of consideration.

3. Could the debt be more largely retired during good times? If human nature could be made over. We are loath to be taxed for more than immediate necessities. If a surplus existed there would be pressure to spend it for new projects.

CASEY—BURKE

A beautiful Easter wedding took place at the Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church, Newton Upper Falls, on Monday evening, April 22, at 8 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Veronica Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burke of 822 Boylston street, Newton Highlands, was married to Thomas Henry Casey, son of Mrs. Abigail Casey of Oliver street, Belmont. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Rev. William J. O'Connell, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. Rev. Patrick Kinsella of the Immaculate Conception Church of Astoria, New York, cousin of the bride, was seated within the sanctuary.

Mrs. James Phillips of Newton Highlands, accompanied by Mrs. Holy Flood, organist, sang "O, Promise Me" and "Jesus My Redeemer."

The altar was decorated with Easter lilies.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with court train and a silk tulle veil with lace cap trimmed with orange blossoms and a short face veil. The bridal bouquet was a sheaf of calla lilies.

The maid-of-honor was Miss Elizabeth Burke of Newton Highlands, sister of the bride, who wore a gown of orchid mousseline-de-soie with orchid net turban and short face veil and matching accessories and carried a sheaf of yellow jonquils.

The bridesmaids were the Misses Harriet E. Burke, sister of the bride, Helene Casey, sister of the groom, Margaret Murray of Brookline, and Eileen McGrath of Brighton. They wore gowns of yellow mousseline-de-soie with turbans of yellow net and short face veils and matching accessories and carried sheafs of iris and jonquils.

The groom was attended by his brother, Vincent Casey of Belmont as best man. John Casey and Cornelius Casey, brothers of the groom; Thomas J. Burke, cousin of the bride, and Stephen S. Smith, brother-in-law of the bride, were the ushers.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Newton Highlands Woman's Club which was attended by 250 guests.

The bride's party was assisted in receiving by the bride's mother and the groom's mother. There was music by an orchestra. On their return from a three weeks' motor trip through the Southern States Mr. and Mrs. Casey will reside at their summer home in Onset.

WILLIAMS—FELLOWS

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Dwight Fellows of 142 Homer st., Newton Centre, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Helen Faith Fellows, to Mr. Richard Suggs Williams of New York City on April twenty-fifth. The wedding and reception took place at the home of the bride's Aunt and Uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic G. Melcher of 228 Grove street, Montclair, New Jersey. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Luke White, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church.

The bride was attired in her mother's wedding gown of ivory crepe brillante and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley. She was given in marriage by her father. Her sister, Miss Alice Marguerite Fellows of Boston, as bridal attendant, wore a gown of orchid chiffon and carried Talisman roses. The groom was attended by Mr. Norman Loder of New York.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Michigan, '30, and is a member of the Kappa Delta Sorority. Mr. Williams, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Williams of Toronto, Canada and Tampa, Florida, is an alumnus of the University of Florida and a member of the Sigma Nu.

On their return from a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Williams will reside at Jackson Heights on Long Island.

BOUDREAU—BACON

The announcement of the marriage of Miss Rachel L. Bacon and Mr. Arthur J. Boudreau was made at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Burton P. Gray last Monday.

The marriage took place on June 15, 1934, in New York City.

Mrs. Boudreau is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fairbanks Bacon of Newton and graduate of Yankton College in South Dakota.

Mr. Boudreau is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Boudreau of Newton and a graduate of Newton High School.

"Gold Diggers of '35" Heads Paramount Features

It took two years to complete Gold Diggers of 1935 which comes to the Paramount Theatre next Sunday for a four day run. First National has always been noted for their magnificent musical spectacles and has outdone itself in this picture. Busby Berkeley, who directed "42nd Street," "Wonder Bar," "Footlight Parade" and "Gold Diggers of 1933," directed this picture. He has created the most gorgeous dance number of his career in which ninety snow white grand pianos are used all being played at the same time by ninety beautiful girls. In the cast are Dick Powell, Adolphe Menjou, Gloria Stuart, Alice Brady, Glenda Farrell, Frank McHugh, Hugh Herbert, Grant Mitchell and a score of other stars well known on the screen. On the same program will be seen Ricardo Cortez and Virginia Bruce in "Shadow of Doubt," a mystery story by Arthur Somers Roche.

For the last half of the week Gary Cooper and Anna Sten will be co-featured in "The Wedding Night," a dramatic romance in which Miss Sten portrays a modern American Girl rebelling against the dictates and restraints of tradition, and Gary Cooper appears as a successful sophisticated New York author with whom she falls in love. Helen Vinson and Ralph Bellamy are seen in leading parts in the picture. On the same program will be that comedy team of "Burns and Allen" of radio fame in "Love in Bloom." It has a million laughs and is a very enjoyable story.

Charlie Frank and his Orchestra together with five high class acts of vaudeville will be seen on Saturday evening which opens the evening performance together with the two features.

A very fine program of local people has been arranged for the Radio Audition next Thursday evening under the direction of Carl Moore.

TRAIN-LOAD OF CARS FOR NEW ZEALAND

The export business of the Hudson Motor Car Company has been gaining steadily for the past two and one-half years. As an illustration of how these shipments abroad are going, the other day a train load destined for New Zealand pulled away from the shipping platform at the Hudson factory over the Belt Line road, bound for San Francisco. On the nine cars were seventy-two Hudsons and Terraplanes, all in individual crates.

Georgic, Britannic In Channel Service

According to an announcement by Cunard White Star, the port of Havre, France, will be featured in the new channel ship service by the motorships Britannic and Georgic. The service will be inaugurated next Monday, April 28th, with the sailing of the Britannic.

Another feature of this service will be the call at Cobh, Ireland, on both eastward and westward voyages. Southampton and London will be the ports in England.

The steamship company expects the call at Havre will prove attractive to continental travelers. Cunard White Star has completed arrangements to speed its passengers on their way to points of interest on the mainland of Europe.

The service will also furnish fast freight connections with London. The English metropolis is a great consumer of American products, including foodstuffs in great quantities, textiles, automobiles and general merchandise.

Newton Firm One of New England's Largest Garden Supply Houses

The New England Toro Co. at 1121 Washington street, West Newton, ranks as one of New England's largest and oldest Golf, Park and Estate Equipment and Supply Houses. Their salesmen travel all the New England States.

This company was formed some eleven years ago and was formerly located in Newtonville. Increase in their business necessitated removal to larger quarters and they moved in 1931 to the old Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Car Barn in West Newton.

During the early years of its history all efforts were devoted to machinery to cut grasses. This equipment takes in hand mowers of six inch width to tractor gangs cutting a seventeen foot swath. Later a service station and machinery warehouse was added. The merchandise line was

By Edward H. Powers

The following advertisement was printed in a suburban paper last week for a fruit store—

Bring into your Home
The Spirit of Easter.

We have a fine display of EASTER LILIES
at very reasonable prices.

Fine Fruits and Vegetables
BEER AND WINES.

The brilliant intellect, the practical common sense of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace are shown by his sage advice to whining, obsolescent New England. He tells this region to turn from the textile industry to new fields of endeavor. He specifies one activity that will return prosperity to this part of the U. S. A.—the building of fabricated houses. Now, doesn't this prove that Mr. Wallace has a marvelous mind? New England would have to obtain lumber for fabricated houses from far sections of this country, and thus be unable to compete with the Northwest or the South where the lumber comes from. And who would buy these fabricated houses?

The majority of people in this country today can't afford to buy a fabricated house even if it were of the type made famous by Chick Sales.

Some folks who didn't pray even on Good Friday started to pray Wednesday noon. The first lightning storm of the season came at that time.

This is a subject on which we do not like to dwell. We have for some years been repeatedly requested to mention it but have refrained from doing so because of our friendly relations with many in the groups referred to. But, since the practice in question seems to be growing instead of diminishing, despite the harrowing conditions caused by the long economic depression, we feel constrained to mention it.

When millions of men and women have been unemployed for years and forced to depend on public welfare or assistance from relatives, with more millions struggling to make both ends meet because of reduced incomes and wages, isn't it unreasonable and presumptuous for persons holding public jobs, getting steady wages or salaries, enjoying permanent tenure, and assured of pensions, to ask the public for financial assistance? The ordinary business man today, as well as the great majority of persons trying to earn a livelihood, have difficulties meeting expenses without making contributions to advertising programs or buying tickets for entertainments in connection with sick benefit funds or the like. And if persons have any money to spare for philanthropies there are plenty of opportunities today to bestow aid on men, women and children who are victims of unemployment and in real need of the necessaries of life.

With preparations for war growing apace in Europe, isn't it too bad that this country did not join the League of Nations and the World Court? Our former dear allies overseas who had no money to pay even the interest due on the billions we loaned them, have plenty of cash to manufacture and buy munitions for future strife.

How the ladies go from one extreme to another. The latest transition is from those dolly size and shape hats to the spinnaker type now coming into style.

The forsythia shrubs along the B.
& A. are gorgeous again this Spring after failing to bloom last year.

The leading feature of the Hultman trial has been "boozing." But, behind the scenes it is war, with about $39,- 000,000 still to be expended on the Ware and Swift River projects. The Metropolitan District Water Supply Commission of which Hultman is the head has control over these vast expenditures.

It was Shakespeare who said—"All the world's a stage, and all the men and women in it merely players." Well, the world in recent years has staged a fantastic combination of tragedy and comedy and reminds us of our Hanson's "Superba."

Many of our readers who have reached middle age will remember the spectacles which Hanson Brothers presented yearly for the amusement of the American public.
The Hanson productions were not drama. They specialized in ingenious illusions, using elaborate mechanical devices, and the "actors" included pantomimists, clowns and acrobats.
Things went "hay wire" in "Superba."

It is interesting, amusing or disgusting, whichever angle you look at it, much of this hue and cry against alleged radicals in this country. Undoubtedly there are some dangerous radicals in the U. S. A. who would raise ructions if allowed free bent.
But, the majority of persons alleged by some of the self-proclaimed patriots to be real menaces to this country, are more sincere than many of their critics. Just because a man or a woman advocates a radical change from existing forms of government or social conditions, it does not follow that he or she is a "red." Washington, Jefferson, Hancock, Franklin, Adams and the others of those who revolted against British rule more than a century and a half ago were radicals, and had their cause failed, would certainly have been severely punished.
But, because they were successful in their revolt against the old regime, they have since been acclaimed as patriots, and those Americans who opposed them and remained loyal to England have been sneered at as Tories. Many of those who tune at alleged radicals today do so because they have been receiving some special privilege and fear they might lose this advantage if changes are made in government or social conditions.

Auto Hits Boy On Washington St.

Robert Brookins, 5, of 129 Jewett street, Newton was hit and slightly injured on Tuesday when he was hit by a car driven by Dr. Francis J. Gilligan of 150 Walnut street, Newton-ville. The accident happened on Washington street near Jewett street.

A citizen has suggested to us that Newton's very small motorcycle police force of two men pay more attention to Washington street and less to Beacon street, as there have been more accidents on the former highway, more pedestrians cross it and there is more speeding on it because of its cement surface. Possibly, after a few more citizens are killed and the accident list mounts higher and higher, the motorcycle squad, which in past years comprised eight men, may be restored again.

The request of Newton school teachers that the new school on Nevada street, Newtonville, be named the Ulysses G. Wheeler School in honor of the former Superintendent of Schools brings to mind the fact that very few citizens of Newton can tell anything about the men in whose honor many of our present schools were named.
Wouldn't it be a good idea to have a tablet placed in each school with information regarding the person for whom the school was named?

The suggestion of Senator Parkman that taxes be waived on idle mill buildings during the depression to prevent such structures from being razed by their owners and permanently lost to communities is one that the writer offered a couple of years ago. Now that a person of Senator Parkman's standing makes such a suggestion possibly some attention may be given to it.

Cars Crash At Newtonville

Cars driven by Albert Kohr of Melrose and Joseph Courtemanche of New Bedford, crashed on Crafts street near Albermarle road, Newton-ville at 2:25 p. m. Saturday. According to the report given to the police Mrs. Constance Kohr received an injury to her neck.

Above Waves at Night, Disappears by Morning

There have been fabled lands—such as the lost continent of Atlantis—reported to have vanished beneath the seas, but in the island of Gotland, in the Baltic sea, there is a land storied to have appeared above the waves each night, only to disappear every morning, says a writer in the Chicago Tribune.

Naturally, since the island is now a permanent fixture, it must have stayed put one fine morning. But let the ancient saga tell the story:

"And in the days before our fathers were born, their fathers beheld, at each day's setting of the sun a fair island floating on the misty waves of the Ostersjon. Through all the night it could be dimly seen resting on the water, but at each rising of the sun it disappeared beneath the sea. None dared venture upon it, albeit the wise men said that if a fire but be kindled upon it the land would become fixed.
So, being without fear, Thjelvar took his men in his ship and before dawn landed on the floating island and kindled a fire, and behold the island became fixed and there has remained until this day."

Want proof? There's the island, and the map shows "Thjelvarik bay" and near it a heap of stones that any one will tell you is Thjelvar's grave.

No place in the world is richer in legends and traditions and in relics and memorials to support the stories than is the island of Gotland. That it may likely have been below the surface of the sea for several different periods is now admitted by geologists who have studied the region.

Etienne Brule May Have Been First in Michigan

That Nicolet actually touched Michigan in 1634 is beyond doubt, but there remains a more or less discredited claim that another man preceded Nicolet.

He was Etienne Brule, accompanied on many of his trips by Grenolle, says a writer in the Detroit Free Press.
Virtually the only evidence which gives Brule the honor of first stepping into Michigan is his own story to Sagard, the Recollet, that he did so in 1618, or possibly in 1612.

Sagard's story from Brule would make Brule the first white man to have touched Lake Superior as well.
But Brule's story, which quite probably never will be definitely proved or disproved, is open to doubt because he went or was supposed to have gone, to many other places.

Likewise the Indians cannot be as good witnesses for him as they were for friendly Nicolet.

Brule's fate, they say
